The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, office 508 City Hall Annex, invites proposals from citizens of the United States and corporations or other legal associations wherein the controlling interest to the extent of at least over one half thereof is owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States, for sewerage works in Section 17, Stony Brook, Hyde Park. A bond will be required for doing the work of a surety company approved by the Commissioner in the sum of 100 per cent of the amount of the contract, to secure the due performance of the contract and the full protection of the city. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508, City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Sewerage Works in Section 17, Stony Brook, Hyde Park," and left at Room 508, fifth floor, City Hall Annex, before 12 M. of THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 1953, with a certified check for TWENTY THOUSAND (20,000) DOLLARS, payable to and to become the property of the City of Boston if the proposal after acceptance is not carried out. The proposals will then be publicly opened and read in the Hearing Room of the Street Commissioners, Room 401, City Hall Annex.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, without check, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. All proposals must be in form as shown in record on file at Room 508, City Hall Annex. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications to be taken out on file at Room 508, City Hall Annex. The price of an item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, or the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal containing such price. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the Contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract. CONTRACT FOR REFUSE AND GARBAGE REMOVAL AWARDED TO M. DE MATTEO CONSTRUCTION COMPANY FOR ONE YEAR—PROBABILITY OF CONSTRUCTING INCINERATOR FOR DISPOSAL PURPOSES ENVISAGED IN NEXT 24 MONTHS TO GIVE CITY ADVANTAGES NOT FULLY ATTAINABLE UNDER PRESENT SYSTEM AND PROVISIONS—CONTRACT MAY BE EXTENDED IF NEED IS FOUND.

BOSTON BADLY IN NEED OF A FIRE CODE—FINANCE COMMISSION RECORDS ITSELF IN FAVOR OF MEASURE BEFORE LEGISLATURE INTENDED TO ENABLE CITY TO ENACT CODE BY ORDINANCE—CITES FIRE HAZARDS AT PRESENT MENACING CITY—BOSTON ONLY LARGE CITY WITHOUT SUCH PROTECTION.

The Finance Commission has addressed the following communication to the Committee on Public Safety of the Legislature:

February 26, 1953.

To the Committee on Public Safety of the Massachusetts Legislature.

The Finance Commission desires to be recorded in favor of House Bill 1193, being an act authorizing the City of Boston to enact a fire code by ordinance. It is badly needed legislation.

It is a startling fact that despite the age of the city, the congestion of the older parts of it, the preponderance of old buildings, and its many hazardous industries and occupancies, the city is today without a fire code; and Boston is the only large city in the country without such protection. Many times in the last decade fires which were serious in their effects might have been prevented had authority been vested in some official agency to order change in use of property for the establishment of reasonable safety conditions.

In a recent report, the National Board of Fire Underwriters summed up the situation in Boston with this sentence: "Inspection of a large number of diverse occupancies and processes disclosed that numerous common and special hazards exist that adversely affect both safety to life and property. There is immediate need for the adoption of a modern code of regulations for the complete control of all hazardous substances and operations."

M. DeMatteo Construction Company has been awarded the contract for garbage and refuse disposal for a one-year period, as being, under the circumstances, the most advantageous. Approval of the award and the method used to decide the award, as proposed by Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland, was given by Mayor John B. Hynes.

The letter from the Public Works Commissioner to the Mayor announcing the award reads as follows:

Bidders and Amounts.

The following schedule contains the names of the bidders and the amounts bid per month on the various items:

CITY OF BOSTON,
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,

BOSTON, February 17, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES, Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As a result of publicly advertising for proposals, bids were opened on Tuesday, February 10, for the disposal of certain garbage and refuse. Contractors were invited to submit proposals for periods of one, two, and three years, under items included in five groups lettered A to E.

In order to induce competition, effect justified economies, and to explore every possible method that the City of Boston has available for the disposal of garbage and refuse collected in the areas now included in the so-called Coleman disposal contract, I invited proposals as follows:

1. On the same basic system now in effect in the current disposal contract.
2. On a system similar to the existing one, but providing for the elimination of the Albany Street Scow Station and the substitution of the so-called South Bay dump.
3. On a system providing for the dumping of all garbage and refuse on mainland dumps and the complete elimination of the scows to Spectacle Island.

Items numbered 1, 2, 2A, and 3 relate to the main disposal contract. Items indicated by the designation 6A, 6B, and 7A are supplementary to the main contract and are not considered in the award, as they may not be used. Under the latter-referenced three items, the successful bidder is required to make the Calf Pasture dumping site available for the disposal of refuse collected in the two Dorchester collection districts and in the Elm Hill collection district. Payment will be made under Items 6A, 6B, and 7A only if the Calf Pasture area is used as a dumping site by the successful collection contract bidders in the latter-referenced districts.

The system described above in subparagraph 3 and shown under Group C resulted in the lowest bids. However, I do not feel that the transition from the present system to a system which provides for all mainland dumping should be made at this time. To be perfectly frank, I included this system only as an emergency measure that might have to be adopted if the bids for disposal at Spectacle Island proved excessively high. Such a situation has not developed, as the bids for Spectacle Island dumping are substantially lower than the cost of the contract in 1952. Further, there is a serious question in my mind as to whether the Calf Pasture dump will be available beyond a twelve- or eighteen-month period, as the dumping area is being filled rapidly. As stated, therefore,

I do not believe that it would be wise to discontinue the Spectacle Island operation, which is a sanitary method, although understandably costly.

I wish to call to your attention that the bids submitted under Group D and Group E should be combined in order to compare them with the bids under Groups A, B, and C, as the work under Group D provides for hauling part of the refuse material to Spectacle Island and the remainder to land dumps under Group E. I do not recommend that contracts be awarded as a combination of Groups D and E, as it would be far more satisfactory if the entire operation were carried out by one contractor. If the services were provided by two contractors, there is a strong possibility of conflict if emergency conditions arose which required shifting of delivery of refuse from one location to the other.

THE PRESENT SYSTEM.

After analyzing all bids and giving careful consideration to the entire matter, it is my opinion that a contract should be awarded based on the bids received under Group A, which is the present system. A smaller annual cost would result by awarding a contract under Group B, but I do not feel that the saving justifies changing from the present system. The low bid was submitted by the M. DeMatteo Construction Company of 200 Hancock street, Quincy. The latter-referenced, as you will note, submitted the low bids on all three items under Group A, covering one-, two-, and three-year periods. On the basis of my general knowledge of the operations of this company over a period of years, and also on the basis of a current investigation that I made of its resources, I am satisfied that the latter-referenced has the ability to perform the service and do the work required under the contract, and has sufficient capital and plant to enable the successful prosecution of the contract. I feel, therefore, that a contract should be awarded to this firm for a fixed period of one year, from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, at the low bid price of $39,200 per month.

In order to take advantage of the lower monthly bids submitted by the contractor for the two-year and three-year periods, I have made arrangements with said contractor to submit concurrently with the execution of the one-year contract an instrument granting the city an option to execute a new contract for the period April 1, 1954, to March 31, 1955, on the basis of the bids submitted by the contractor for a two-year contract under Item 2. The above-referenced instrument will also carry a provision granting a further option to the city to execute another contract for the third year, from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, on the basis of the low bid submitted by the contractor under Item 3, for a contract covering a period of three years.

The options have all the advantages of contracts for fixed periods and none of the disadvantages. Contracts for fixed periods of two or three years make it obligatory for the city to keep them in effect for such periods or be liable for damages. Conditions may change in the dumping methods and procedures in the next year or two, and under the option agreements we can guide ourselves accordingly. Contracts for fixed periods of two or three years would not carry these discretionary advantages, and the total cost to the city under either contract method would be the same. It appears to me, therefore, that the options are far more to our advantage than the plan of awarding a contract at this time for a two- or a three-year period.

INCINERATOR ANTICIPATED.

If we obtain the full cooperation of all interested parties, there is no reason why an incinerator could not be constructed and made available for use within the next twenty-four months. The construction of the incinerator would make it unnecessary for the city to continue the present system, which requires dumping at Spectacle Island and Calf Pasture, at considerable expense. In addition, the dumping situation at Calf Pasture may change within the next twelve or eighteen months; and a contract for a fixed period in excess of one year would not give the city the latitude that it would have in a one-year contract with extension options.

For these reasons, therefore, I am strongly of the belief that the one-year contract is far more advantageous and just as economical to the city as a contract for fixed periods of two or three years. If a contract is awarded for a one-year period, the cost to the city will be $96,266 less than the cost of the service in the twelve-month period from April 1, 1952, to March 31, 1953. If the contract is subsequently extended to a two-year period, the cost to the city for each of the two years will be $109,586 less than current costs; and if the contract is eventually extended to a three-year period, the cost to the city for each of the three years will be $122,906 less than the cost of the current service. These substantial annual savings will not—in my opinion—detrimentally affect the high-type service that must be rendered in this important contract which affects the sanitary disposal of garbage and refuse materials.

I respectfully recommend, therefore, that a contract be awarded to M. De-Mattee Construction Company of 200 Hancock street, Quincy, for a period of one year, from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, at the bid price of $39,200 per month, submitted on Item 1, Group A, on February 10 as the result of publicly advertising for proposals.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

FINANCE COMMISSION RECOMMENDS FIRE CODE FOR BOSTON.

PLAN FOR FIRE HAZARD CONDITIONS.

Boston now has a building code by statute, authority under which is given to the Building Commissioner; but this code deals with safety in construction. There is little consideration in it for fire hazard conditions. On the other hand, the city maintains an extensive fire prevention division in the Fire Department. Its Chief reports that it is continually finding fire hazard conditions, which it is powerless by itself to order eliminated. The Fire Department officials and the Building Department officials often do not see eye to eye in this situation because the one is expert in and concerned with what leads to fires, and the other is concerned primarily with structural safety.

Under present laws, the city must route through the State Department of Public Safety most of its efforts to eliminate conditions which may lead to fire. This often means loss of time in correction of conditions. It sometimes means controversy between the city and state agencies.

Illustrative of the difficulties in the situation, the City Fire Department has no direct jurisdiction in matters of location of standpipes, testing of fire hose in buildings, fire escapes, highly inflammable construction materials, changing of building occupancies, storage and use of corrosive acids and dangerous chemicals.

For instance, a short time ago, there were three multiple-alarm fires in the basement of a building in which cosmetics and paint were stored. Because there was no structural defect, and, therefore, there was no action which the Building Department could take, the Fire Prevention Bureau tried to have the State Fire Marshal force the installation of a sprinkler system. The hazard still exists and the Fire Prevention Bureau is powerless to correct the situation.

In another instance, a serious fire took place in a store used for the sale of women's garments. The store met the requirements of the building code, but had no openings for ventilation which in the opinion of the Fire Prevention Bureau were a vital necessity. A district chief of the Boston Fire Department lost his life due to inhalation of the fumes when he went into the store to fight the fire.

SAMPLE ILLUSTRATIONS.

The following are sample illustrations of conditions in the Boston Fire Department is powerless to compel the installation of safety devices:

A six-story building which has two wooden stairways enclosed in wood sheathing houses about one hundred employees and hazardous occupancies, including the manufacture of women's dresses, men's sports wear, and curtains, as well as the manufacturing of shoe patterns, repair of machinery and storage of leather.

Another building, a second-class brick structure used as a hotel of 148 rooms, with retail stores on the first floor, is called a "potential fire trap to the occupants and dangerous to the Fire Department personnel" by the Fire Department.

These instances are not rarities, but are typical of many conditions found by the Fire Department.

There has been loss in lives as well as in property because hazard conditions are permitted to exist. The mere fact that we have a Fire Department to put out fires is not enough. If fires can be prevented by proper regulation, it is to the advantage of the property owner and the taxpayers. Fire fighting cost should be less. The Finance Commission and the National Fire Protection Association have supported the efforts of the Chief of the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Fire Department to obtain legislation to correct this situation.

Ironically, the city has had a fire code prepared for several years. It asked the Legislature in 1950 to enact this code. Because of the belief in some quarters that present laws give the city all the protection that it needs, which is disputed in Boston by Fire Department officials, the bill to enact a fire code for Boston was rejected. City officials, however, claim that though present fire safety laws are probably adequate for smaller municipalities, a special code is necessary because of the peculiar conditions in Boston. The bill before you would, if enacted, resolve the doubt. The city would enact its code by ordinance with the authority of the Legislature.

The Finance Commission feels that this is too serious a matter to be stalled longer by such difference of opinion as has arisen. Lives as well as property are at stake.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

VIII. HIGH COMMENDATION.

At 2:09 P.M., February 12, 1953, the department responded to an alarm from Box 2134 for a fire in the dwelling house at 2 Hubbard terrace, Roxbury.

Upon arrival at the fire, Lieut. Joseph P. Anderson and Hoseman Pompio J. Magistri of Engine Company 12 were informed that two children were trapped in a second-floor apartment which was involved in fire. They entered the second-floor apartment, which had not been ventilated, made their way into the bedroom, which was heavily charged with heat, smoke, and flame, groped around until they found the two children in a bed, and carried them from the room. Both children suffered severe burns and were unconscious when taken from the premises.

Because of the fact that Lieutenant Anderson and Hoseman Magistri performed the rescue work under very difficult conditions and exposed themselves to great personal risk, the Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend them highly, and their cases are referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

By order of Fire Commissioner
MICHAEL T. KELLEHER.

JOHN V. STAPLETON,
Chief of Department.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, February 16, 1953.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., President AHEARN in the chair. Absent, Councillor Hurley.

The Reverend John J. Phelan of St. Ann's Catholic Church, Neponset, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. JOHN J. PHELAN.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Almighty and Eternal God, we turn to Thee in humble prayer; we beseech Thee to enlighten and guide the conduct of the Council in all their deliberations. Grant to them the fulfillment of their high office, that they may work together that their actions will redound to the greater good and welfare of our beloved city and also to Thine own glory and honor.

May they stand forth as worthy servants of Thy people, carrying out the duties of their office on that very high plane of civic righteousness, maintaining unto God those freedoms that have made our nation truly great and altogether unique among the nations of the world.

This we ask of Thee in the name of Thy Divine Son, Who has taught us to pray. Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 16, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners relative to our order of February 9, 1953, concerning the request for the installation of adequate parking facilities in the Dudley Terminal business section.

Mr. Thomas G. J. Shannon,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.
Re: City Council Order of February 9, 1953, Requesting the Installation of Adequate Parking Facilities in the Dudley Terminal Business Section of Roxbury.

Dear Mr. Shannon:

In reply to your communication of February 11, 1953, the Board of Real Estate Commissioners is aware of the acute problem of off-street parking in the Dudley Terminal business section of Roxbury, and also of the new construction that caused the curtailment of parking in the area.

With the cooperation of the Planning Board and the Traffic Commission, the Board will shortly complete a new study of the area together with its recommendations for an off-street parking facility.

Very truly yours,
HERMAN CARP, Chairman.

STREET LIGHTING ON WASHINGTON STREET AND BELGRADE AVENUE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 9, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of the Public Works Department relative to your order of January 26, 1953, requesting that new lighting be planned along Washington street and Belgrade avenue in the Roslindale and West Roxbury area of Boston.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
February 6, 1953.

Mr. Thomas G. J. Shannon,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of January 25:

"Ordered, That the Public Works Commission be directed, through His Honor the Mayor, to plan new lighting along Washington street and Belgrade avenue in the Roslindale and West Roxbury area of Boston."

An immediate survey will be made to determine the number of additional street lights needed in the above-referenced main arteries. I am hopeful that the above-described improvements will be effected in the near future, assuming that the Boston Edison Company will be able to obtain the necessary material and parts needed.

Incidentally, it is my intention to include the resurfacing of Washington street, from Forest Hills to West Roxbury Parkway, in the current year's Chapter 90 program, and, therefore, the modernization of the street lighting facilities on this highway can be accomplished concurrently with the street reconstruction work.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

WINTER OUTDOOR RECREATIONAL FACILITIES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 16, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Board of Recreation relative to your order of December 29, 1952, requesting that brief summaries be prepared of present outdoor winter recreational facilities.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Board of Recreation, February 9, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mayor Hynes:

Pursuant to your communication sending us the order of the City Council dated December 29, 1952, concerning the winter outdoor recreational facilities in the city, we respectfully report in answer thereto.

In answer to request No. 1 for our "observation as to the average number of days during the winter that the flooded skating areas are usable"—from our records, it is determined that there were 31 skating days in 1947, there were in at least some of the park areas in the city. Some of the districts close to the water's edge probably had less than 31 days, but the inland districts, at least, enjoyed this number of skating days. In our recently released public report, a full statement on skating is made.

Question No. 2: "What facilities have been provided and what facilities the Board thinks should be provided for outdoor basketball?"

We are informed that in 1947, there were 50 sets of basketball hoops purchased for outdoor basketball, and these were installed in the various playgrounds throughout the city. We feel that wherever it is possible, outdoor basketball standards should be erected and lights for their use after dark provided. This, we feel, can be done relatively inexpensively.

Question No. 3: "What facilities are provided and what facilities are needed for skiing?"

Similar snow sports are not in a toboggan chute at the George Wright Golf Course, and the natural slopes there and in Franklin Park and Olmsted Park, Jamaica Plain, are available when there is snow for tobogganing and skiing. The MDC maintains a ski slope in the Blue Hills, and at Mt. Hood in Melrose there are skiing facilities which, we think, in view of the limited time in which such an area may be used and of the cost involved, are adequate for the needs of the city.

Yours respectfully,

LOUIS G. MACGIO,
Chairman.

ADDITIONAL STORAGE OF INFLAMMABLE FLUIDS IN SOUTH BOSTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, February 9, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the City Planning Board respective to your order of February 4, 1953, requesting a report on this date concerning the advisability of permitting additional fuel storage in South Boston.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

The City Planning Board,
February 6, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mayor Hynes:

Under date of February 4 you referred to this office an order of the City Council dated February 4, 1953, requesting a report concerning the advisability of permitting additional fuel storage in South Boston at East First street, in accordance with a petition of the Metropolitan Transit Authority and the White Fuel Company, then under consideration by the Board of Street Commissioners.

The Planning Board has been advised that this petition was for two large storage tanks aboveground on MTA property north of East First street and between M street and O street. The proposed tanks were to be set back about 200 feet from the street line and would cover a considerable area of the property. The total lot area of more than 20 acres. The petition was filed under date of January 7, 1953, and an initial hearing was scheduled for January 21. This was followed by a continuance to January 28, and later to February 5. However, at the request of the petitioners, the petition was withdrawn on February 4. Notwithstanding this fact, the Planning Board deems it advisable to submit its opinion, as originally requested, for important reasons.

The area in question is zoned at the present time for industrial use, and storage of petroleum is permitted in an industrial zone. The economic and material life of our metropolitan community is dependent to no small degree upon its ability to import, to store, and to distribute fuels, solid, liquid and gaseous. The importation of certain forms of fuel is most economically achieved through water transportation. Large tankers require deep water channels, and such channels exist along this part of the South Boston water front. Thus, the physical requirements necessary to sustain an important element of our metropolitan economy are present in this area, and the right to use these advantages ought not to be denied for other important reasons.

Industrial use of the water-front area north of East First street is well established, with the power generating plant of the Boston Edison Company and the machine shops of the Walworth Manufacturing Company lying on either side of the area covered by the petition. Continued industrial use in this general area is recommended in the Preliminary General Plan for Boston published by the Planning Board in 1947, and in 1950. The question is really one of whether the storage of petroleum would seriously alter the present situation in its relationship to the adjacent residential area.

Recent trends in zoning indicate that storage of petroleum belongs in the class of heavy industrial which has a number of very pleasant proximity to residence. The area on the opposite side of East First street from the proposed petroleum storage tanks is generally in residential use, and little opportunity exists to create a buffer zone which would afford reasonable protection from the hazards inherent in storage of fuel. This residential part of South Boston is as well established for its own part as the industrial area already described. It has a number of very pleasant advantages, not least of which are the bathing beaches and Marine Park system. The further extension of industrial use, such as petroleum storage, would undoubtedly have an adverse effect upon this otherwise desirable residential locality.

The Planning Board concludes, therefore, that while the respective residential and industrial uses in this part of South Boston are so well established that there can be no question of either ousting the other, no further encroachment by a use considered in current zoning practice to be highly detrimental to a good residential environment should be encouraged.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS F. McDONOUGH, Chairman.

The following was received:

To the Honorable City Council.
Gentlemen:

I submit herewith communication received from Frank R. Kelley, Chairman, Board of Park Commissioners, requesting the transfer of fifty-five hundred fifty-one (5,551) square feet of the city-owned land at the Park Department for playground purposes.
Because of the need for playground areas in this particular section of the city, I submit herewith an order transferring the land from the care, custody, control and management of the Chairman, Board of Real Estate Commissioners, to the care, custody, control and management of the Board of Park Commissioners, and recommend adoption of the order.

Therefore, it is requested that you take the necessary steps to transfer this property from the care, custody and control of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners to the care, custody and control of the Board of Park Commissioners.

Cox (numbered 82 West Rutland square); and
Whereas, The Board of Park Commissioners of the City of Boston desires to use the said parcel for playground purposes; and
Whereas, The Board of Real Estate Commissioners has forwarded its assent to the transfer of said parcel to the Board of Park Commissioners; now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That the above-described parcel of land be, and the same hereby is, transferred from the care, custody, control and management of the Chairman, Board of Real Estate Commissioners, to the care, custody, control and management of the Board of Park Commissioners, for playground purposes.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION RE SALE OF VETERANS' HOUSING.

The following was received:
City of Boston,
Finance Commission, February 13, 1953.
To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.
The Finance Commission believes it is appropriate at this time to record that the social experiment of the 1946 Legislature, chapter 372, authorizing municipalities to provide housing for veterans, by the end of 1953 will have cost the taxpayers of Boston $2,260,-898.55 over and above all other receipts. Moreover, this cost is likely to be substantially increased if the particular housing built under the authority of this act is sold during the present year) at prices now forecast. If it is not sold this year, the cost to the taxpayers in future years will be increased by more than $600,000 in each year.

This particular housing is only that part of the public housing which was financed entirely by the City of Boston. There is no state or federal money involved. It comprises only about 9 per cent of the currently existing public housing in Boston. The production cost to the city (exclusive of financing charges) amounted to $15,383,285 out of a total spent or committed for public housing in Boston to date of $159,715,184.

In other words, the general taxpayers in Boston have had to subsidize living in 9 per cent of the Boston public housing which is amount of $2,260,898.55, and this amount is growing. The same taxpayers contribute another amount, probably more substantial but not easily determined, toward the balance 91 per cent of the public housing which is state and federally financed. No public housing, however financed, has produced any net income in rentals to pay operating and financing costs.

In this distinctly municipal housing, there is a total of 1,210 family units, consisting of 17 one-family dwellings, 487 two-family dwellings, and 319 dwelling units in multiple-apartment structures.

Chapter 372 of 1946 was adopted at a time when it had not been finally determined who would supply housing for veterans—whether it would be the responsibility of the state or the federal government—but there was such a demand for housing for veterans that it was decided, for the City of Boston, that municipalities to finance it to an extent equal to 2 per cent of the average of the previous three years' valuations of the city. Boston was one of a small number of municipalities which took advantage of this opportunity. Under the terms of chapter 372 it had the right to borrow approximately $28,000,000 for that purpose; but before Boston utilized this right to the fullest extent, the Legislature in 1948 authorized the city to use credit for such borrowings. Thereafter, borrowing by most municipalities on their own credit petered out, but Boston has since borrowed $16,500,000 of its $28,000,000 right.

Actually, committing city credit for veterans' housing ceased in Boston after the Finance Commission, in a report in 1949, asked the question: "Why spend the city's money for it, when the city can get plenty from the state?" The state has assumed the responsibility of financing housing for veterans.

At the above figures indicate, it has been a costly venture to the general taxpayers. The annual loss is buried in two items of the city's rate schedule: (City) General Debt Requirements and (City) Departmental Receipts. In the former, the debt requirements for chapter 372, Acts of 1946 Housing, are merged with all other city debt requirements; and, in the latter, the receipts from the Housing Authority of rentals in excess of operating costs is one of about 35 items making up the total receipts of all departments. Since 1949 there has been an excess of rentals over operating costs, and in the past two years there has been an excess, but the accumulation of these aids has not been great enough to meet the original financing plan. The state has since 1953, and thereafter, if the city retains ownership, the only help the taxpayer will get in meeting the original, and the state's, in the excess of rentals over operation costs. This will only take care of approximately one-half of the operating costs of the year. In other words, there is being added each year an annual deficit in the financing cost, which is expected to be about $400,000 in 1953, and above $600,000 in the years to come unless the property is sold.

Unlike the situation in regard to maintenance and fire department activities, this information is not readily available to all who might be interested. Yet it is a matter of public concern which is known for future guidance in similar ventures. The statute creating the Housing Authority gives the City Auditor, who keeps and checks records of all other city and county activities, no similar jurisdiction over Housing Authority activities; the Mayor has merely the right to appoint four members of the Housing Authority; and the authority of the City Council is limited to approving an annual contribution toward administrative expenses of a sum not in excess of $30,000. The Housing Authority is an autonomous body. The Mayor's power to remove a member or to change, which must be sustained at a public hearing, constitutes the only control by any elected public officer. The proposed sale of city-financed public housing represents the final step in a unique program in which the city went into the real estate business in a very substantial way. Extreme care in working out details must be exercised to keep the city's costs at a minimum. Present indication is that the city will receive an average unit price of not more than $8,000, where the original production cost averaged $12,000.

Sale of this housing is required by section 6 of chapter 372, which provides that it must be offered for sale between the fifth and sixth years after completion, unless the State Housing Board permits a postponement. That Board must approve the price.

To summarize the situation, if the Chapter 372 housing is sold late in 1953, as proposed by Mayor Hynes, the investment of the city will have reached a total of $16,732,684, made up of a production cost of $16,383,284 and financing charges (without principal) of $1,949,400. Retrieving this expenditure, excess of receipts from rentals over the operations costs and state subsidy have already contributed $3,993,501.45. This leaves a net of $12,839,182.55 which the sale must produce if the venture is to be liquidated without cost to the taxpayers. However, the best opinion available is that sale of the property now will not produce more than an average of $8,000 per unit. This would mean a return of $10,480,000. On this basis, the net loss will have been a minimum of $2,359,182.55. The loss will be increased to the extent that the property sells for less than $8,000 per unit.

new housing in the city. Now that the housing shortage is no longer serious, the emphasis should be shifted to the rehabilitation of our older properties. There are thousands of properties in Boston which should be rehabilitated and restored to greater economic usefulness. It is in this field that good low-cost housing can be provided. The program will benefit both owners and tenants and, at the same time, it will strengthen the tax base of the city. A large-scale rehabilitation program will stimulate civic consciousness, improve the appearance of the city, and bring about better living conditions in the community.

"Your Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Committee will need the assistance of business and civic organizations, and we will be glad to help you in every way we can."

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION ATTENDS FOOTBALL RULES COMMITTEE MEETING.

E. L. Dick Romney, Representative from Mountain States, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Frank G. McCormick, Representative of the Pacific Coast Conference, Los Angeles, California.

Lou Little, Football Coach, Columbia University, New York.

Carl G. Snively, Football Coach, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Wallace Wade, Commissioner, Southern Conference, Durham, North Carolina.

A. E. Eilers, Commissioner, Missouri Conference, St. Louis, Missouri.

Lee K. Anderson, High School Representative, Oklahoma.

H. W. Emswiler, High School Representative, Ohio.

E. C. Krieger, Representative from Midwest, Ohio.

Don Faurot, Director of Athletics, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri.

L. R. Meyer, Director of Athletics, Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas.

K. L. Wilson, Commissioner of Athletics, Chicago, Illinois.

William H. Ohrenberger, Associate Director of Physical Education, Boston Public Schools.

III. PERSONAL CONTRIBUTION:

Serving on committees as follows:

(a) Committee on Regulations Concerning Necessary Rules for High Schools—Lee K. Anderson, H. W. Emswiler, William H. Ohrenberger.

(b) Committee Devising Rules Changes in Perfecting Football Code Pertaining to Illegality of Motion and Substitution—A. E. Eilers, Carl G. Snively, E. C. Quigley, William H. Ohrenberger.

(c) Committee Reporting on Duties and Obligations of Football Officials and Recodification of Rules Concerning Personal Fouls—E. C. Krieger, Wallace Wade, Don Faurot, D. O. McLaughry, William H. Ohrenberger.

IV. RESULTS:

Great strides were made for the good of football in general.

The death knell to the two-platoon system was sounded for colleges using these rules. The rule was so adjusted that high schools might insert exceptions that would continue free substitution so that the true aims of education might be met. Greater player participation and opportunities for player rest at intervals, at the discretion of their coaches, is thus provided.

It will be noted that this meeting was singular insofar as this was the first opportunity given to the Boston schools for representation on this important committee. The other high school representatives present were—Lee K. Anderson of Oklahoma, and H. W. Emswiler of Ohio.

The meeting afforded an opportunity for the projection of many of the experiences and ideas of the Boston high school program into high school football at a national level. Conversely, valuable information concerning the conduct, operation, playing and directing of the game of football was received.

Much of the work was of a specialized and technical type, the complete result of which will tend to form a set of rules for 1953 that will be more easily understood and administered. This will reflect great merit upon the thousands of high schools in America and, in particular, the high schools in Boston for the coming year.

It is worth while noting at this time that there are approximately nine times as many high schools in America using the N.C.A.A. rules as there are colleges using this code.

Yours very truly,

WILLIAM H. OHRENBERGER,
Associate Director of Physical Education.

BIDS OPENED FOR EXTENDED CONTRACTS FOR COLLECTION AND REMOVAL OF GARBAGE AND REFUSE.

Publicly advertised proposals were opened on Thursday, March 12, for contracts involving the collecting and removal of garbage and refuse in all sections of the city. Contractors will have the opportunity to bid for the work for one or two years in some districts, and for one- or three-year periods in other districts, on the basis of the following alternate systems:

SYSTEM No. 1. This provides for submitting bids for using the conventional open-top vehicle similar to those now used by the collection contractors.

SYSTEM No. 2 This provides for the use by the contractors of the modern all-enclosed steel bodies.

The purpose of advertising for bids for periods in excess of a year is in order to give the contractors an opportunity to bid for the furnishing of the modern enclosed refuse trucks referred to above under System No. 2, and amortize the cost of same over a two- or a three-year period. This type of refuse collection vehicle is used in the more modern and progressive cities throughout the country and, in my opinion, should be used in Boston if the contract costs are comparable to the costs for the furnishing of open-top trucks. The present type of open-top vehicle permits overloading, with the resultant littering of the streets, due to the blowing of the loose papers and refuse from the vehicles while said vehicles are being loaded and also while they are proceeding to the dumping location. On the other hand, the all-enclosed steel body eliminates any possibility of littering of the streets, as the entire load—at all times—is enclosed and compacted.

The present collection contracts cost the city approximately $2,100,000 a year. All contracts for fixed periods in excess of a year are subject to the approval of the City Council.

APPLICATION OF REVENUE FROM PARKING METERS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 2, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Corporation Counsel relative to your order of February 2, 1933, concerning the request for an opinion as to whether or not fees for the use of parking meters may be applied to the operating expenses, in whole or in part, of the Boston Traffic Commission and the Traffic Division of the Boston Police Department.

Respectfully,
FRANCIS X. AHEARN,
Acting Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, February 20, 1933.
To the Honorable the City Council.
Gentlemen:

An order passed by your Honorable Body on February 2, 1933, after directing my attention to the provision in General Laws, Chapter 40, s. 22A (as amended), that the fees for the use of parking meters "shall be established and charged at such rates that the revenue therefrom shall not exceed in the aggregate the necessary expenses incurred by such city or town for the acquisition, installation, maintenance and operation of parking meters and the regulation of parking and other traffic activities incident thereto," inquires whether such fees may be applied to the operating expenses, in whole or in part, of the Boston Traffic Commission and the Traffic Division of the Boston Police Department.

Such fees may, in my opinion, be lawfully applied to such expenses of the Boston Traffic Commission as relate to the maintenance and operation of parking meters and the regulation of parking incident thereto and to such expenses of the Traffic Division of the Boston Police Department as relate to the regulation of parking and other traffic activities incident to parking meters. No statement of the reasons for my opinion would appear unnecessary; for under existing procedure the City Auditor annually obtains from the Chairman of the Boston Traffic Commission and the Police Commissioner a statement of the amounts which these officials respectively estimate will be expended from budget appropriations for, in the first instance, the maintenance and operation of parking meters and, in the second instance, the regulation of parking and other traffic activities incident to parking meters. The amounts so estimated are thereupon reported to the Assessors in the City Auditor's annual estimate of anticipated departmental receipts and disbursements for the determination of the annual tax rate.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS ON BAKER STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 2, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of February 16, 1933, concerning the request for the installation of signal lights on Baker street at the junction of Chesbrough road and Varick road, West Roxbury.

Respectfully,
FRANCIS X. AHEARN,
Acting Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission.

February 20, 1933.

Hon. John B. Hyman,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
With reference to Council order of February 16, 1933, requesting the installation of signal lights on Baker street, at the junction of Chesbrough road and Varick road, West Roxbury, I wish to report that we find no records of any accidents involving personal injuries at this intersection during the past two years.

Observations indicate that action on this request should be deferred due to the fact that the usual warrants for such light installations are not present in the form of heavy vehicular and pedestrian traffic; sight distance considerations, or accident records.

Any spending problem may more properly be handled by the Police Department. The large number of intersections in the West Roxbury area which require such light installations and the limited appropriation which is available requires me to recommend that action on this proposal be deferred.

It is expected that a signal light installation will be completed in Baker and Spring streets by the end of the year.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY,
Commissioner.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS AT READVILLE STREET AND NEPONSET VALLEY PARKWAY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 2, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of February 16, 1933, concerning a request for the installation of a traffic signal at Readville street and Neponset Valley Parkway in Readville.

Respectfully,
FRANCIS X. AHEARN,
Acting Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission.

February 20, 1933.

Hon. John B. Hyman,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
With reference to a Council order dated February 16, 1933, requesting the installation of a traffic signal light at Neponset Valley Parkway and Readville street, our engineering report reveals that, during the past two years, there has been only one accident reported to us involving personal injury and that was in 1932.

It appears that traffic conditions at this intersection do not warrant installation of traffic signals at this time in view of the long list of intersections which carry more vehicular and pedestrian traffic and which are listed for traffic light installations when appropriations are available. At Neponset Valley Parkway and Readville street sight distance is not an objection; there are no obstructions of any kind within one hundred feet of the intersection and both vehicular and pedestrian volumes are comparatively light.

According to the usual warrants for traffic light installations based upon accident records, traffic volumes, and which are listed, I regret to be obliged to recommend that this proposed signal light installation be deferred.

Respectfully yours,
WM. ARTHUR REILLY,
Commissioner.

Placed on file.

PROVISIONS FOR ADVERTISING FOR BIDS ON OFF-STREET PARKING CONSTRUCTION.

MAYOR HYNES JOINS WITH CHARITABLE IRISH SOCIETY IN OBSERVANCE OF ST. PATRICK'S AND EVACUATION DAY—POINTS TO FACT BOSTON STILL HOLDS TO SPIRITUAL AND PATRIOTIC VALUES TO MAINTAIN HER GREATNESS.

The following is the address of Mayor John B. Hynes at the gathering of the Charitable Irish Society on March 17, 1953:

By a singular and happy coincidence Boston today celebrates a dual holiday.

With patriotic fervor we relive that auspicious hour, over a century and three-quarters ago, when the British fleet pulled up anchor, marking the end of the long and bitter siege of Boston. We relive that happy hour and we pay grateful tribute to the memories of the early Bostonians who fashioned out of their indomitable courage, their burning love for freedom, and their faith in the right a new city we call Boston—a new nation we call the United States of America.

With spiritual fervor we recall the godly patron saint of the little green isle,

FAITH OF NATION IS IN ITS PEOPLE, MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES TELLS CITIZENS IN ADDRESS DURING HISTORICAL EXERCISES IN SOUTH BOSTON HIGH SCHOOL INAUGURATING CELEBRATION OF EVACUATION OF BRITISH FROM BOSTON 177 YEARS AGO AND COMMEMORATING ST. PATRICK'S DAY—FAITH IN RIGHT MAN'S GREATEST WEAPON AND DEFENSE, HE TELLS AUDIENCE.

At the historical exercises in South Boston High School on Sunday, March 15, 1953, Mayor John B. Hynes delivered the following address:

One of the great moments of history occurred 177 years ago—the invincible British fleet sailed out of Boston Harbor. The long, tiresome, bitter siege of Boston was over.

Many changes have taken place since that first Evacuation Day. Nations have been born, have flourished, and have died. Despots and dictators have come, have ruled for a while, and have returned to the ashes of eternity.

Nations Have Declined.

Looking back over the vista of the years, we are amazed at the decline of the nations which were world powers when our own country was in its infancy—and we wonder what were the causes of the fall from power and prominence of these nations.

When the forefathers were keeping their lonely vigil on Washington Heights, Spain, with its mighty armada, France, with its huge armies and rich possessions, Great Britain, with its wealth and world-circling empire upon which the sun never set, were formidable and powerful nations.

Today they stand in pale imitation of their former greatness.

Out of the whirlpool of the years that marked the growth of our own country, two tremendous world powers have emerged—our own nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal, and the Soviet Empire, dedicated to the proposition that man is a mere chattel, a subordinate creature to the state. It is the largest empire ever put together—comprising one quarter of the world's surface and one third of its people.

We in confidence have placed our faith and our trust in Almighty God. The Soviet Empire denies the existence of a Supreme Being.

MAYOR HYNES CALLS TRANSFER OF BRAVES TO MILWAUKEE A BODY BLOW TO BOSTON.

On the news of the transfer of the Braves to Milwaukee, Mayor Hynes issued the following statement:

The vote to transfer the Braves to Milwaukee is a body blow to Boston.

I do not believe that Milwaukee can or will be able to support the Braves as well as did Boston. I furthermore believe that this transfer will be regretted by the owners of the Braves and by the entire National League.

I deeply regret that the Braves management, which gave assurances on several recent occasions that the club would stay in Boston, did not inform the city officials, and others, that the transfer was imminent. Had this information been given to me before the commitment to transfer was made, it might have been possible to retain the franchise in Boston.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen
From thy hills looking down on the ship-
teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam
with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters'
unselfish devotion."

MAYOR ADDRESSES CHARITABLE IRISH SOCIETY IN OBSERVANCE OF ST. PATRICK'S DAY AND EVACUATION OF BOSTON.

good St. Patrick, who, 1,500 years ago, christianized a wild, pagan race, and planted in the soil of Ireland a love of God and hatred for evil which is carried in the heart of every son of Erin, no matter to what corner of the globe he may go.

It is good, it is most appropriate, that patriotism and spirituality should be foremost in our emotions tonight, for that city is a good city which gives to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's.

LAMP OF LIBERTY BURNS BRIGHTLY.

In no city in America does the lamp of liberty, of freedom, of justice burn more brightly than it does here in Boston. In no other city in America is the omnipotence, the supremacy, the indestructibility of God, the Creator, acknowledged more than it is here in the City of Boston.

Yes, of all the cities in America, Boston is unique, distinctive, unexcelled. Materialism, the bane of modern-day civilization, plays second fiddle in our city to spiritual and patriotic values.

Through the long years Boston has given America more than its share of great men, heroic men, good men, who dedicated their lives to the cause of freedom. Through the long years our city has given to our land more than its share of inspired men, holy men, good men, who dedicated their lives to the service of God.

May Boston, our city, always be the fountain spring from which will flow the spiritual graces of St. Patrick and the patriotic zeal which swelled in the hearts of the men of Dorchester Heights 177 years ago.

MAYOR'S ADDRESS AT HISTORICAL EXERCISES AT SOUTH BOSTON HIGH SCHOOL MARCH 15.

By the very fundamental laws of survival, it seems inevitable that, sooner or later, there must be a clash between these two diametrically opposite philosophies of government.

GOODLESS NATION CANNOT SURVIVE.

We have, however, the comforting knowledge that no nation which denies God can long survive—for unless God is part of the warp and woof of a nation, they labor in vain who build it.

It might well be that the recent passing of the most ruthless dictator the world has ever known will be the beginning of the decay and downfall of the Soviet Empire—for history tells us that the powerful nations of other years rotted and crumbled from within when the Great Ruler and the Great Judge of mankind was refused a place at the conference table.

From the pages of modern and ancient history we can learn valuable lessons, the most important of which is this—if ungodly materialism gets the upper hand in our country, then, as sure as the sun rises and sets, our nation will go down the road to oblivion, just as have other ungodly nations in the past.

The forefathers of our nation believed in the eternal laws. They believed that to Caesar belonged the things that were Caesar's but to God belonged the things that were God's.

It was not the strength of arms, or of numbers, or of wealth that made it possible for the War of Independence to be won. It was the indomitable strength which comes from faith—faith in the justice and wisdom of the Omnipotent God.

When faith in the right is strong and unwavering, all the legions of the devil himself cannot puncture or defeat that faith.

AMERICA STRONGEST NATION.

America today is strong—stronger and more powerful than any nation since the creation of man. It will remain strong and powerful, it will continue to grow, it will continue to help the weak and needy of the world, just as long as it acknowledges that God—the Creator of man and of all things—is our greatest strength, our greatest refuge, no matter what the future may bring.

The faith of a nation is in its people. The men of 1776 had faith. Let us, in this generation, have, in abundance, the same faith, for faith in the right is man's greatest weapon and his greatest defense.

CLEAN-UP, PAINT-UP CAMPAIGN UNDERWAY.

in the campaign. With all of the metropolitan communities cooperating in the movement, a momentum will develop that is certain to produce important and gratifying results.

"The history of Spring Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up, Plant-Up Campaigns shows that they are productive of much community good. They not only lead to the elimination of vast accumulations of winter dirt and debris from the area, thereby improving sanitary conditions, but they wipe out thousands of fire hazards. They also stimulate the sale of a wide variety of household and business plant necessities and provide a tremendous amount of work and wages.

"The committee this year, in addition to attempting to stimulate the cleaning, painting, and fixing of all residential and business properties, will endeavor to push a window-box and backyard garden program. We find that if we can get the children interested in backyard gardens the areas around their homes will be rapidly tidied up."

Representatives of the City of Boston named by the Mayor to serve on the committee are George G. Hyland, Commissioner of Public Works; Dr. John H. Cauley, Health Commissioner; Frank R. Kelley, Park Commissioner; Michael T. Kelleher, Fire Commissioner; Thomas F. Sullivan, Police Commissioner; Dennis C. Haley, Superintendent of Schools; Herman Carp, Real Estate Commissioner; George P. Donovan, Superintendent of Public Buildings; and William Arthur Reilly, Traffic Commissioner.

BRAVES LEAVING BOSTON.

It is obvious, however, that the Braves management had reached a final decision before anyone in Boston knew anything about it.

The efforts on the part of public officials and the Chamber of Commerce, and others, in the past several days made no impression on the Braves management.

It seems to me that our city was deserving of better treatment.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 13, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

We respectfully request your permission to award a contract without advertising, to Roxbury Mattress Corporation, 121 Lamartine street, Jamaica Plain, Mass., for remaking mattresses, pillows, and chair cushions, Boston City Hospital, for the period beginning April 1, 1953, and ending March 31, 1954, at the following unit prices:

Regular hair mattresses, 36 inches by 78 inches by 4½ inches, boxed, $5.90 each.

Cot hair mattresses, tufted, 2 feet 6 inches wide by 6 feet 2 inches long, $8.20 each.

Chair cushions (hair), 15 inches by 20 inches by 18 inches deep, rounded corners, 33 inches, boxed, $2.15 each.

Feather pillows, 18 inches by 29 inches, $1.15 each.

The total contract price for the twelve-month period not to exceed the sum of $7,887.50.

The present contract with this company for the above-mentioned type of services, awarded to it as the lowest bidder following public advertising, will expire on March 31, 1953, and inasmuch as this firm's operations have been performed in a highly satisfactory manner, and since there will be no increase in prices for its work, the Board of Trustees is of the opinion that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for bids for this work, the interests of the city being best served by awarding the new contract, without advertising, to Roxbury Mattress Corporation, 121 Lamartine street, Jamaica Plain.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

Boston, March 13, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

We respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to O'Hearn's Storage Warehouse Company, 1444 Dorchester avenue, Dorchester, Mass., for the storage of a considerable amount of medical records for the period beginning April 1, 1953, and ending March 31, 1954, at a monthly cost of $148.44 or $1,781.28 for the entire twelve-month period.

The proposed contract will be executed without an appropriation available as relates to the period January 1, 1954, to March 31, 1954, under the authority of section 16A of chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909.

In view of the fact that the records have been in this storage warehouse for the past three or four years, and in view of the fact that there has been no change in price, the Trustees are of the opinion that no advantage would be gained by transferring these records out and publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES,
RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

Boston, March 13, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The present contract with this company for the above-mentioned services will expire on March 31, 1953, and inasmuch as its operations have been carried on in a highly skillful, efficient and satisfactory manner due to their extensive experience and intimate knowledge of these particular facilities, and since there has been no change in its price for these services, it is the opinion of the Board of Trustees that the interests of the city will best be served by awarding the new contract, without advertising, to Otis Elevator Company, and the Board is further of the view that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for proposals for this work.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES,
RICHARD J. CONDON,

The present contract with this company for the above-mentioned services will expire on March 31, 1953, and inasmuch as their work has been most satisfactory, and they are willing to continue their services at the current yearly charge of $2,040, it is the opinion of the Board of Trustees that nothing could be gained by publicly advertising for bids for this work, and the Board is further of the view that the interests of the city would best be served by awarding the contract, without advertising, to Portland Elevator Company, Inc.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES,
RICHARD J. CONDON,

The present contract with this company for the above-mentioned services will expire on March 31, 1953, and inasmuch as this firm's operations have been performed in a highly satisfactory manner, and since there will be no increase in price for its work, the Board of Trustees is of the opinion that the interests of the city will best be served by awarding the new contract, without advertising, to Westinghouse Electric Corporation, and the Board is further of the view that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for bids for the servicing of the subject elevators.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Boston, March 12, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At the present time, the American Service Company of 253 Adams street, Dorchester, has the contract for the servicing and maintaining of the street gas lamps that are located in this city. The above-referenced contract went into effect on May 1 of 1952, and will terminate on March 31, 1953.

Under the terms of the present contract, the contractor is paid $14.85 per lamp for service and maintenance, and is also paid at specified prices for the furnishing and installing of plastic or glass globes, mantles, domes, ventilators, etc. It is most difficult to keep an accurate record of all of the latter-referenced parts installed by the contractor, and, in view of this, I have negotiated a contract with a representative of the present contracting firm whereby the servicing, maintaining, and also the furnishing of parts will be done at a flat rate of $20.87 per lamp per year. The flat-rate method of payment was in effect up to five or six years ago and was changed for reasons unknown to me. The payment of a fixed price for the servicing, maintaining, and equipping of the lamps is, in my opinion, far more satisfactory and more equitable both to the city and, in my opinion, to the contractor. For this reason, as stated, I have negotiated a new contract price of $20.87 per lamp. The latter-referenced price is substantially less than the price paid on a similar contract by the Town of Brookline, and I am satisfied that no lower price could be obtained if the department publicly advertised for proposals.

While I am strongly in favor of publicly advertising for proposals on contract work, this is one type of contract where, in my opinion, it would definitely be contrary to the best interests of the city to take such action, because it is my unqualified opinion that the above-referenced contracting firm is the only one in this area capable of carrying out the provisions of the contract at the above-referenced agreed price of $20.87.

Under the circumstances, therefore, I respectfully request that you authorize the undersigned to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to the American Service Company of 253 Adams street, Dorchester, for the servicing, maintaining, and equipping of the gas lamps located in the streets of this city, for the period from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954. The contract period from January 1, 1954, to March 31, 1954, comes within the scope of the provisions of chapter 182 of the Acts of 1951, which permit, in substance, the awarding of a contract for the first three months of the succeeding year upon like or more favorable terms and conditions than the contract in effect during a current year.

It is estimated that the cost of the above-referenced contract will not exceed $63,000 for the period from April 1 to December 31 of the current year, and it is further estimated that it will not exceed the sum of $21,000 for the first three months of 1954.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Boston, February 26, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Works Department has submitted a requisition for one new submarine cable 250 feet in length, as per specifications, to be delivered to the Chelsea South Bridge.

Informal requests for prices were solicited among several dealers. Identical quotations, which are attached, were received from four companies. Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Westinghouse Electric Supply Company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $1,202.22, including charge for reel.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

February 26, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Water Division of the Public Works Department has submitted several requisitions for meter parts for Hersey meters.

Hersey Manufacturing Company, the manufacturer of the meter parts requested, has submitted prices for same. Inasmuch as this company is not only the manufacturer of the above equipment but is also the only source of supply, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Hersey Manufacturing Company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $3,819.71, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

March 3, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

From time to time, the Sanitary Service of the Public Works Department requires replacement parts for Elgin sweepers being operated by their division.

E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company, the distributor for Elgin sweepers parts, is the only source of supply for these parts. Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company for furnishing replacement parts to the Sanitary Service of the Public Works Department from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, inclusive. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Prices to be quoted by E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company will be list prices subject to a 93 per cent discount. Approximate total amount of contract will be $6,000.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

ADDITIONS TO CONTRACT.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

M. Solimando, contractor for alterations and repairs to Dowling Building Tunnel, overhanging door on Receiving Room and elevator door installations for the Boston City Hospital, has been instructed to add to the contract the sum of $1,760; for omitting removal of plastercoat waterproofing on walls of tunnel and omitting new plastercoat work, deduct, $410; removal of existing floor slab to a depth of 3 inches and installation of new reinforced 5-inch concrete slab, add, $940; extending contract work 12 linear feet at Dowling Building end of tunnel, add, $1,230; total addition, $1,760, all in accordance with letter from M. Solimando dated February 13, 1953.

Original contract, $29,476; now added, $1,760; corrected contract, $31,236; total added, $1,760.

M. SOLIMANDO,

584 COLUMBIA ROAD,

DORCHESTER, February 13, 1953.

JAMES H. RITCHIE & ASSOCIATES, 35
Clarendon Street, Boston, Mass.

Re: Alterations and Repairs to Dowling Building Tunnel, Overhanging Door in Receiving Room, and for New Elevator Door Installations in Various Locations, Boston City Hospital, 818 Harrison Avenue, Boston, Mass.

GENTLEMEN:

My revised prices concerning my letter of February 9, 1953, are as follows:

1. When the existing glazed tile facing on the walls of the tunnel was removed, it was found that the existing plastercoat waterproofing was in good condition, with the exception of those portions where through-wall cracks occur. I propose to omit the removal of this plastercoat waterproofing except for a strip approximately 12 inches wide at each crack, which must be removed to properly chip out and repair the concrete wall. These patches, on completion of the repair work on the wall, are to be recoated with plastercoat waterproofing as specified and the entire surface made watertight. This will obviate the necessity of new plastercoat work on the entire wall and I am prepared to offer a credit of $410, for the work so omitted.

2. Removal of the existing 1-inch plastercoat waterproofing, from the floor areas so designated, uncovered a badly disintegrated and cracked slab which is of an extremely poor grade of concrete and which, to my observations, will never withstand the evident hydrostatic pressure existing in this location. I propose to remove this slab to a depth of 3 inches and install a new reinforced 5-inch concrete slab using 3,000 pounds concrete and a mixture of Kenelly's liquid waterproofing in proportions as recommended by the manufacturer. Over this slab, will be installed the 1-inch plastercoat waterproofing surface specified. For this additional work the sum of $940 is offered for your consideration.

3. There is evidence of additional leakage of a serious nature occurring in the floor and base and, in all probability, in wall cracks occurring in the concrete back of the wall tile. This condition exists between the west end of my contract limits and the tunnel terminus at the Dowling Building, a distance of approximately 12 linear feet. I propose to extend my work this additional 12 linear feet in accordance with the contract specifications except as altered or extended under the conditions set forth in Items 1 and 2 above. For the additional work in this 12 linear feet section of tunnel, I propose to add the sum of $1,230.

Summarization of the above Proposals 1, 2, and 3 indicates a net addition of $1,760 to my contract.

Your prompt decision on the above will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

M. SOLIMANDO.

VI. HOUSE JOURNALS.

Company commanders shall submit to Headquarters on Form 5A on or before March 20, 1953, the quantity of House Journals that will be required for use at the patrol desks in their respective quarters for the period of one year from June 1, 1953.

VII. HIGH COMMENDATION.

At 9.15 P.M., March 1, 1953, the department responded to an alarm from Box 2524 for a fire in the dwelling house at 41 Everett street, Jamaica Plain.

Upon arrival at the scene, it was found that a portable oil burner had overturned in a second floor bedroom causing a fire and trapping two small children. Lieut. Raymond E. Favret of Ladder Company 10 and Hoseman Edward H. Hanbury of Engine Company 28 proceeded to the second floor, forced their way through a burning paper wallboard partition which blocked entrance to the bedroom, entered the room, which was then fully involved with fire, heat, and smoke, where they found the two children and carried them to the street.

Because of the fact that Lieutenant Favret and Hoseman Hanbury performed the rescue work under very difficult conditions and exposed themselves to great personal risk (both men being partially overcome), the Acting Fire Commissioner is pleased to commend them highly, and their cases are referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

VIII. COMMENDATIONS.

Hoseman Frank A. Qualls and James J. Loftus of Engine Company 23 are hereby commended for attempting to recover the body of a six-year-old boy who had fallen into a water-filled trench in the rear of 930 Massachusetts avenue on January 22, 1953. Both men ran from the nearby quarters of Engine Company 23 when informed of the accident and jumped into the water, which was 6 to 7 feet deep, in an endeavor to locate the body of the child. Because of the temperature of the air and water, these men exposed themselves to possible physical disability.

Hoseman James W. Hounsell of Engine Company 37 is hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 2516, on February 26, 1953, while off duty.

Engineer Francis G. Mearn of the Motor Squad is hereby commended for responding to and working at fire, Box 7137, two alarms, on March 9, 1953, while off duty.

By order of Acting Fire Commissioner
JOHN V. STAPLETON.

JAMES J. KANE,
Acting Chief of Department.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-
teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam
with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons', and thy daughters'
unselfish devotion."

MAYOR HYNES ANNOUNCES GIFT OF CHIMES FOR FANEUIL HALL.

the chimes, it will be as well equipped for music events as any hall in New England.

Harry Blake's thoughtfulness and generosity toward his native city is not only gratifying, but inspiring. His contributions to the city in money and services as chairman of the Christmas Festival Committee and his service to it when he was president of the Chamber of Commerce mark him as a man of rare altruism and civic pride. He never misses an opportunity to aid Boston.

"Even now at a sacrifice of time and money he is in Florida with President Paul Rothwell of the Chamber of Commerce to call on Lou Perini to see if there is anything that can be done to keep the Braves in Boston. He is the one who also donated the organ to the city for use at the Parkman Bandstand.

"I shall see to it that the chimes are properly installed at Faneuil Hall and if there are no mechanical prohibitions I shall have amplifiers placed in the tower of the building so that whenever the organ is played to chimes accompany them they will be heard outside the building. I shall also endeavor to have a clock installed with the chimes so that when they are not being used for musical affairs they will strike out the hour, with joyous sound. Such musical notes coming from Faneuil Hall can't but impress passersby with the history and significance of the 'Cradle of Liberty.'"

CLEAN-UP, PAINT-UP, FIX-UP, AND PLANT-UP CAMPAIGN.

Up and Plant-Up Campaign.' If he does there will be no doubt about the committee in charge attaining its goal of making Boston the neatest and cleanest city of its size in the nation.

"All of the city departments charged with the responsibility of keeping the city clean and healthy will extend themselves to the utmost to make the campaign a success. The Public Works Department, under the direction of Commissioner George G. Hyland, will sweep and flush every street in the city; the Health Department, under the leadership of Dr. John H. Cauley, M.D., Commissioner of Health, will inspect sanitary conditions throughout the area, and the Park Department, headed by Commissioner Frank R. Kelley, will give the entire park system its annual spring cleaning.

"All of the city's 38 public buildings under the jurisdiction of the Public Buildings Department, headed by Superintendent George P. Donovan, will be cleaned and repaired and painted wherever needed; the street markings and traffic signs controlled by the Traffic Commission, headed by Commissioner William Arthur Kelly, will be repainted, and all of the more than 3,000 vacant lots owned by the city will be cleaned by the Real Estate Department, headed by Herman Carp.

"The Fire Department, under the direction of Commissioner Michael Keleher, will also step up its fire hazard inspections during the period of the campaign, and Superintendent Dennis C. Haley, of the School Department, has reported that the school children will be requested to do their bit to make the campaign a complete success.

"The cooperation of our citizenry in the 'Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up, and Plant-Up Campaign,' the Mayor further stated, 'will not only help to keep the city healthy and safe, but will help to protect our physical assets. I urge all residents to clean out their cellars and attics and tidy up their yards and lawns during the campaign. The elimination of even a single potential fire hazard or garbage heap may save homes and lives from flames or disease.'"

KOREAN ARMY IS APPEALING FOR SOAP—MAYOR HYNES RECEIVES LETTER OF APPEAL.

Soap is sorely needed among both the civilians and the Republic of Korea Army, says Capt. Rocco J. Barbato, 49 Bayard street, Allston, now on duty as a liaison officer with the R.O.K. troops, in a letter to Mayor John B. Hynes, thanking the people of Boston for his Christmas box.

"Only yesterday," he writes, (the letter was dated March 10) "I was the most surprised soldier in all Korea. The reason was because I received from you, and the generous people of my grand city a beautiful Christmas box containing many tasty foods.

"True, it took the box several months to catch up with me because of troop operations at the front, but any day that a soldier receives such a package makes it sort of a special holiday.

"At present I am in an area where there are no civilians and no one but troops. However, I'll carry the Christmas stocking for a Korean child with me until I get to the rear area, at which time I shall pass it on to one of the most worthy Korean children.

"In this sector are a number of other Boston men including Lieut. Col. A. Basile, Capt. J. Maguire of Brighton; Capt. C. Whalen, Allston; Capt. Salucci, Brighton and Lieut. Col. W. Clement formerly of Allston. We often get together and discuss our city of Boston and the fact that people back home are taking steps in the right direction in our beloved city."

The Mayor has received 200 other letters of thanks from Boston men who received the Christmas packages from the "Grateful People of Boston."

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMISSION RE SALE OF CERTAIN LANDS AND BUILDINGS IN EAST BOSTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston, Finance Commission, March 9, 1953.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

The Finance Commission desires to place on record the particulars in relation to the sale of certain parcels of certain parcels of land, with buildings thereon, in East Boston, which were acquired by the City of Boston in connection with the extension of Rapid Transit facilities.

Notices of intention to sell to all eight of these parcels have come to the Finance Commission in accordance with the requirement of chapter 26 of the Acts of 1952 which states:

"No private sale shall be made under this act, unless the terms of the proposed sale, together with all pertinent facts, shall have been submitted to the Boston Finance Commission at least ten days before such sale."

A recital of the preliminaries to the sale follows:

By chapter 692 of the Acts of 1945, the Transit Department of the City of Boston was authorized to extend the East Boston Tunnel Rapid Transit route from its then terminus near Maverick square to a point at or near Day square. The authority given included the right to make, by eminent domain proceedings, such takings of private property as would be necessary.

The Transit Department had in fact made a number of takings of properties which contained certain routes when the negotiations were made to the city authorities and to the Legislature that, because of an acute housing shortage, the occupants of these houses had difficulty in finding suitable accommodations elsewhere. A solution to this dilemma was found when the 1945 Legislature adopted an act permitting the City of Boston to acquire land to which these houses might be removed. (Authority in this situation vested by chapter 692 of the Acts of 1945, to the Transit Department of the City of Boston became the responsibility of the Metropolitan Transit Authority by chapter 572 of the Acts of 1949.)

Chapter 191, Acts of 1949, reads as follows:

"SECTION 1. For the purpose of avoiding, so far as practicable, during the period of public emergency, emergency and distress now existing on account of the acute shortage of housing in Boston and many other cities and towns of the Commonwealth, the demolition of dwelling units on land hereafter or herebefore acquired in the Boston district of the City of Boston for the purposes of Chapter 692 of the Acts of 1945, as amended, and the Transit Department of the City of Boston, acting in the name and behalf of said city, may acquire by eminent domain . . . one or more parcels of land, wholly or almost wholly unoccupied by buildings and . . . remove thereo any or all buildings with dwelling units standing on land hereafter or herebefore acquired for the purposes of said Chapter 692, as amended. Upon completion of the removal of a building under this act, said Transit Department shall proceed to dispose of the building and the lot upon which it has been relocated."

The City Treasurer was authorized to borrow $250,000 in the name of the City of Boston for the expenditure of the project.

Under the authority thus given, new sites were purchased, contracts were let to engineer buildings, and the City of Boston acquired by purchase and eventually 21 of the houses originally acquired under chapter 692 of the Acts of 1945 were relocated. The total cost shown in the books of the City Auditor has amounted to $244,939.73.

The 1949 Act provided a manner in which after relocation the houses should be sold to the original owners or tenants, but the terms as fixed were unacceptable to the original owners. As a result of new representations made to the Legislature, another act was adopted in 1952 (chapter 26), which reads as follows:

"SECTION 1. Any provision or provisions of general or special law to the contrary notwithstanding, the City of Boston, acting by its treasurer, . . . is hereby authorized and directed to dispose of every building relocated by it under the provisions of Chapter 191 of the Acts of 1949 and of the lot upon which such building has been relocated either by (a) by public sale to the persons who owned the building at the time of its acquisition for the purposes of Chapter 692 of the Acts of 1945, as amended, or any of them, or to any person or persons of any such person, or to a person residing in the building at such time, for such sum as said treasurer, after consulting the Just and equitable, or (b) by sale to the highest bidder at a public auction. . . . No private sale shall be made under this act, unless the terms of the proposed sale, together with all pertinent facts, shall have been submitted to the Boston Finance Commission at least ten days before such sale. A certificate of compliance with the provisions of the preceding sentence made by the secretary or chairman of the Boston Finance Commission and annexed to any deed executed under this act shall be conclusive evidence of such compliance."

This act, in effect, imposed no duty, in terms, upon the City of Boston to make any certification that the Commission had been notified of the proposed sale. The Commission has assembled in tabular form the data contained in the letters of notification to the City Treasurer. That data which follows indicates that the project was a costly one for the City of Boston, never having been taken by the various agencies of government involved was in accord with the statutes already referred to.

Review of the above figures establishes that in the eight instances of proposed sale of houses relocated on new sites after having been taken by the Transit Authority, the damages paid for the takings totaled $65,100; the cost of relocation (including cost of land), was $90,671.41, and the houses on new sites have been sold to the owners before takings for $46,900.

Mr. Carr: Isn't it a prerogative of the Chairman to appoint her own committee? Is it necessary that we vote on that? I think that is a prerogative extended to the Chair. It is in almost all bodies. You appoint your own committees.

Mr. Muchnick: If that is so and if the Chairman has the prerogative tive, then naturally I withdraw the motion. I was just trying to complete the action taken in executive. That was all.

Dr. Foley: I would say, Madam Chairman, you are empowered to choose your own committee.

Mr. Muchnick: I think the number of the people on the committee is the same prerogative. Mr. Carr, and that the Chairman can appoint one or more depending on how she feels about it.

On roll call the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—5.

NAYS—0.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I would like to move that the Administration Building here be closed at the same time, and my reason for that is that they are just as interested in the Inauguration exercises historically as those in the schools—and, in fact, everybody in the city.

So I would like to have the Administration Building here closed at 11:15 a. m. in order to extend the same privilege to the people here.

Secretary: You mean the Administration Building and Annex and Supply Room?

Dr. Foley: I would say yes.

Mrs. Lyons: Is that what they are doing in all the other city offices?

Dr. Foley: That I don't know, Madam Chairman.

Miss Fitzgerald: They are not doing it on the State level, Madam Chairman.

Dr. Foley: They are not? Then I think they would like to see the inaugural. I don't think their minds will be on their work.

I still move that the administrative offices be closed.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like to have spread on the record my commendation for the Chairman in having thought of the idea and having taken the initiative in making the arrangements so that school children could see this inaugural.

Mrs. Lyons: Thank you, Mr. Muchnick.

Dr. Foley: I think it was a magnificent thought, and I am sorry it really got by me because, after all, I tried to think of many, many things, but how we could get television into the schools was quite a problem.

However, I understand our Chairman did a very nice job of it and saw to it that the school children of Boston will probably see the Inaugural. I think it was a very fine thing to do.

Mrs. Lyons: May I make a suggestion there, Dr. Foley? I wonder if it would be possible to have television in here. Otherwise we will certainly have to maintain a skeleton crew. Do you think that is what will have to be done?

Mr. Muchnick: Most adults will be able to see retranscasts of this in the evening hours.

Mrs. Lyons: Why don't we ask Miss Reynolds to find out what they are doing in the city offices and in the State offices and conform with them. Is that all right, Dr. Foley?

Dr. Foley: Yes.

AGNES E. REYNOLDS

Secretary

The following are extracts from the Conference notes of Jan. 19, 1953:

REPORT ON TRUANCY AND DROP-OUTS

Mr. Muehnick: I would like to have a report if we can get it, although I don't imagine it's immediately available, on the number of drop-outs that we have had in schools since the beginning of this school year and what was done about those drop-outs in as many specific cases as we can get the information.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muehnick, a study of drop-outs, numbers and the various problems encountered in the various schools, will have to be made by another study, and I will be glad to ask Mr. Daley to make that study for this Committee again.

Mr. Muehnick: Madam Chairman, all I mean is that if the Boston Latin School started in its organization chart as of September 30th or October 1st with 1500 pupils and it has added 40 pupils and at the same time has had 200 others leave the school, I'd like to know—and I think the Committee would like to know—what happened to those 200 that may have left, I use the Latin School and these figures with no reference to Latin School or any other—just by way of example.

I don't know how many they started with, and I don't know how many additions they have had since September 30th, and I don't know how many, if any, drop-outs they have had; but I think that assuming that figure of 200 we ought to know what happened to each of those 200 boys as closely as we can find out, and that shouldn't be anything that would take any long study.

I'd like to have that for the next meeting because if we don't know what happened to the 200 boys by now, then I don't know how we can study it from now on in if they are not connected with the school system and find out anything about it.

I would also like to know for the year 1952 the number of truants we had in all grade levels, whether that was proportionately higher, per number of truants and per number of days truant for each truant concerned, than in previous years; and how many, if any, cases were referred to the courts for court action, and how many, if any, cases were brought against parents as a result of court action.

I have done some checking in the courts myself, and there has been a very small number of cases during the year 1952 concerning truancy, either formal or informal cases.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, we gave to this Committee back in June the report on the number of truants. We also, if you recall, submitted to the School Committee a long, detailed report on drop-outs for the previous year, and then that report was taken off of the agenda and filed.

In regard to Mr. Muehnick's first request concerning the drop-outs, Mr. Daley is getting a report monthly from the masters. I think, Mr. Corcoran, you are getting a report monthly from the masters in the junior high schools. Is that true?

Mr. Corcoran: That is true.

Mr. Muehnick: What do we do with it?

Superintendent: We will give you the data, Madame Chairman and Mr. Muehnick, just as you asked for it. These masters of schools are attempting by every possible method to keep these boys and girls in school.

Now I think perhaps that you are familiar with the Career Day which was carried on in the fall, the American Opportunity Week that was carried on in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce, and the Stay in School Program that has been established and is functioning. Those are some of the things that we are doing to try to retain our boys and girls in school.

Now the report which Mr. Daley has—and I think which Mr. Corcoran has—will attempt to show you the reasons why these boys and girls leave school according to the reports of the principals.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, what I would like is not general principles of Career Day programs or Opportunity programs or anything of that nature. The general principle applies to the general run of our pupils, but I would like to know what, if any, effort is directed towards that specific boy or specific girl who leaves school either before or after the age of sixteen, what effort is made to get that specific child back into school—if any effort is made—or do we just say, "We have sent a circular out telling boys and girls that school is the best place for them," and then we do nothing about it.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, may I ask the member who just finished speaking if these figures are furnished your School Committee on the member of drop-outs what does he propose that we do about it that isn't being done now?

Mr. Muchnick: May I answer that?

Mr. Carr: Other than general principles.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like very much to find out exactly what is being done now, as Mr. Carr puts it; and if, for example, it should turn out that John Jones in the 10th grade has just dropped out of school and that the Opportunity Day didn't keep him in school and the circular about why it's important to stay in school had no effect on him, and if this, that, or the other thing didn't work and John Jones just stopped coming to school and is considered a drop-out after a certain number of days or weeks or months, what effort was made to see John Jones and find out what makes him click, if anything does, and what effort was made to see whether we can get him back into school.

I am referring to the specific John Joneses who may have dropped out of school and who weren't in any way affected or infected with the general rules and the general propositions that have been laid down for all pupils.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, as far as I can see from the campaign that has been carried on by the administration on the value of staying in school and continuing in school, as is evidenced by those pamphlets, and since we have the numbers here and we have the attendance officers and we have the vocational guidance counsellors, I don't know what more we can do.

I have personally put two kids back in school, to find out a short time later that they weren't serious about it and they dropped out again.

Now I don't know what the member of your Committee expects the personnel in the School Department to do. You chase them around individually. I think it's up to the families; and if the families can't point out to the kids the value of attending school, or the kids can't appreciate it, I don't think there is anything we can do about it. Mr. Lyons: Mr. Carr, we do have a Division of Juvenile Adjustment, and that is exactly what they job is.

Mr. Carr: I think they are probably trying to carry it out. Superintendent: That is true, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I haven't in any way inferred or implied that the people connected with school personnel aren't doing everything that can be done or should be done.

I would merely like to know specifically and in detail exactly what is being done other than the general policies, if anything is being done other than general policies, when applied to a specific case.

If it isn't being done, maybe it can't be done. Maybe it shouldn't be done. Maybe it is being done. I know of one completely unofficial agency that stands ready, willing, and able to help in any situation, and maybe we are using it, I don't know. That is the Big Brother organization that is a state-wide nonsectarian organization with its headquarters here in Boston.

Now, maybe we are officially or unofficially making use of the facilities of that agency. I know a little bit about the workings of that agency, having had something to do with its birth.

Now I don't know as of my own knowledge at this stage of the game whether they are in any way being consulted concerning some boys—or girls—why by contact with people who are not professionals in the educational or social service field might have a good influence on them.

That is just one of the items that I think ought to be borne in mind. That is the kind of a report I'd like to have us get to see what we can do to implement what is being done by the personnel of the department.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, if we ask and require the administration to spend hours on compiling these reports we will be doing the same as was done just this previous year when one of our administrators spent hours compiling a detailed report on drop-outs in the system. It took days to compile that, and when he submitted it to the Committee, on the agenda, it was promptly filed and there was nothing done about it.

I hope that if you put them to this work and they bring in these reports we will make some use of them. This is the first time, Madam Chairman, that that report has been called for since it was filed, and that is months ago.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, perhaps I didn't make myself clear. I am calling for an addition to that report which we got back several months ago. I made a complete study of that report in my spare time after receiving it; and in part my request for this new report is based on my study and analysis of the prior report. As far as I am concerned, that prior report served a very useful purpose.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, it would appear to me that if this Committee wants the type of report that Mr. Muchnick is asking for for every individual case and every individual pupil who has dropped out of school in our school system since September 1952, the only way that we can get that exact specific report about every individual is for me to send a circular to the principals of schools and districts which will read something like this: "At the request of the School Committee, you are asked to submit detailed evidence in regard to the reasons why every pupil in your school who dropped out did so."

Mr. Muchnick: And what you did about it.

Superintendent: And a complete, detailed report on every pupil of all the steps that you took to retain that individual.

Now, Madam Chairman and Members, if the Committee wants that kind of a report, it is going to be a very time-consuming report for every junior high school principal and every high school headmaster to put a secretary or a man on every case of every drop-out and trace that down through the home-room teacher, through the attendance department, through the Division of Juvenile Adjustment. For some of these individuals, Madam Chairman and Members, you perhaps would have a report that would be one typewritten page long.

If this Committee wants that kind of report, the only way it can be done is by the method which I have stipulated.

We can give you the number of drop-outs. We can give you the general causes from our monthly reports as to why these pupils have left school, and we can give you the general procedure that we have used to retain them, that general procedure being first of all the home-room teacher trying in every way to keep the boy or girl in school, the principal making every effort that he can, the Attendance Department being called in where it was needed, Juvenile Adjustment being called in certain cases, and all of the other agencies like Family Welfare and so on. We can give you general statements.

If you want specific statements, simply take a vote now that you want detailed information for every single drop-out according to that method, and tomorrow morning, Madame Chairman and Members, I will be very glad to prepare a suitable circular and send it to the principals and set a deadline for returning that data.

I think in fairness to those principals you should give them at least two weeks.

Mr. Muchnick: Madame Chairman, I am greatly disturbed by what the Superintendent has just said. If this is going to be such a terrific project for all the head masters and all the junior high school principals, then during the months of October, November, December, and half of January, with quite a considerable period out for vacation around New Year's time, we must have had a great number of drop-outs—either that, or it can't be such a terrific project. So that it seems to me all the more reason, if it is such a large number or such a big project, that we ought to get all this detailed information.

If it isn't, and I hope it isn't, a great number of boys and girls, then it shouldn't take any one principal or head master all the time that the Superintendent infers it will take.

Furthermore, I can't understand how the home-room teacher could have done anything with the boy, or the head master or anybody else concerned, other than the Attendance Department and the Division of Juvenile Adjustment, if they don't follow the cases up after the boy or girl has dropped out.

They don't know in advance that John Jones is going to drop out and then sit down and have a talk with him. If they do it after Johnny Jones has dropped out, then that is just the kind of information that I was looking for in that kind of detailed report.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madame Chairman: Mr. Superintendent, wouldn't you say that in a great percentage of cases of drop-outs the reason they drop out is because they can legally drop out at a certain legal age? That would be it, isn't it?

Superintendent: That is true.

Miss Fitzgerald: In many cases, parents would encourage them to drop out to supplement the family income. I think just from talking to the people I know who have dropped out of school that that has been the reason advanced in many, many cases; and I think that that would be a great percentage of the cases and the reasons why the various pupils have dropped out of school.

Dr. Foley: Madame Chairman, then all the principal would have to do is notify the Committee to that effect and put it in his notation on whatever pamphlet he has. At sixteen years of age if they drop out they are entitled to drop out, I suppose.

Superintendent: That is not, as I take it, what Mr. Muchnick wanted. He wanted the details on the boy who was sixteen years old and could drop out legally because that is where our drop-outs occur.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Superintendent: Johnny Jones drops out of school, and he is at the Latin School in the third class and he is seventeen years old. Now, Mr. Muchnick wants his name, and all the details of the procedure that the home-room teacher followed and the influence he tried to exert on him in talking with him, the conference perhaps he had with the guidance counsellor, and the conference he may have had with the head master.

It may be the case of a boy who was troublesome and he was over sixteen and the Division of Juvenile Adjustment was called and asked to help. His name is John Smith. Mr. Muchnick wants all the details of the report on John Smith merged from every source—from the Attendance Department, Juvenile Adjustment, from the home-room teacher, the guidance counsellor, and the principal.

Mr. Muchnick: Correct. Madame Chairman, we have the teacher, the guidance counsellor, the principal, the head master, Division of Juvenile Adjustment, the attendance supervisor—all these people whom we employ as experts to keep the over sixteen years of age Johnny Jones in school even though we don't have the legal compulsion to keep him in school.

Now, if we have these people trying to do these things, we ought to find out what percentage of cases they have in which they are successful, what percentage they have in which they are unsuccessful, what they do in order to attain success in keeping the boy or girl in, and I think everybody is agreed that at least until that boy or girl gets his or her high school diploma, the best place for him is in the school and not dropping out in Class 3 of the Latin School from financial earning power possibilities as well as hundreds of other reasons that could be advanced.

Now, if we are making all this effort towards keeping Johnny Jones in school, let's find out how successful we are and whether, with possibly a little more effort in each specific case, we could attain more success and have fewer drop-outs and thus fewer potential delinquents or more people who could get better adjusted to the community's adult life from every point of view, including their earning power point of view.

Superintendent: Madame Chairman, it is my considered feeling that the principals of high and junior high schools—and that includes the 7th and 8th grade schools because we have drop-outs there over sixteen—the counsellors, the Department of Attendance, the Division of Juvenile Adjustment, and the teachers of the school system are exercising every possible effort to keep these boys and girls in school.

They are doing their level best; and now to ask the principals of schools to turn around and give a detailed report tracing the history of every drop-out down through all of the various sources of departments or individuals who have tried to keep that boy or girl in school—to impose that upon the school system—to me is a terrific burden.

Certainly, if we had a group of principals and teachers and Departments of Attendance and Juvenile Adjustment that were not doing their work there would be reason to do it; but why add a terrific burden to the administrators when it isn't going to do this Committee any good if the master of Boston Technical, let's say—and I choose him because I think he is following the same procedure that Mr. Daley used—is put to the task of writing a complete report of his guidance counsellor's understanding of why that boy left school, the principal's talk with that boy if he has anything written on it, and all the other factors that entered into the life of that boy at the time that he was dropping out of school.

Few children just drop out and are unheard of from that time on. Usually they come to the home-room teacher and say, "I am leaving school." And the home-room teacher proceeds from there in through these various avenues.

Now, if we ask the administrators and the teachers to compile that report for every individual, in my opinion it is going to be of no avail to read what each principal did or said to a boy in his school, and in making this request you are going to impose a great deal of work upon the principals.

We are aiming in every way, shape, and manner, by every device that we know, to keep these boys and girls in school; and to put the administration—and I mean principals and teachers now—to the tremendous problem of compiling that information case by case, is, I think, unfair to the system.

Mr. Muchnick: Madame Chairman, I am surprised to hear the Superintendent, of all people, talk that way. His field before becoming an administrator was in science. As a scientist he knows better than probably any of us here that the people in that field—people in medicine, people in all related fields—collect all the data they can and perform what in their field they call experiments until they finally work out a solution. Now that is all I ask here.

What Mr. Durnan may be doing over at the Technical High School may work in a greater percentage of cases than Mr. X in some other school; and from applying his method and passing it along through the Committee or through any other means to all the other head masters or teachers or guidance counselors and by comparing notes and by taking the results of what scientists would call experiments, going through all this detailed information, it is possible, even though it may not be probable, that we will come up with three or four more good methods that teachers and administrators should use in combating this problem.

There is absolutely nothing to be lost in compiling this information; and if we save one more boy or girl from dropping out this year or next year as a result of its compilation, then I am sure nobody will complain of the extra work load that they have been given.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I am awfully surprised, Mr. Muchnick, at you that at the end of going on five years of service as a School Committee member you feel that we have to put principals to this tremendous task to try to syphon out through this Committee ways and means of saving boys and girls.

You certainly, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, must know that the head masters meet once a month, the junior high school principals meet once a month, and the elementary principals also meet monthly. The vocational guidance counselors meet; and there, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, are thrashed out all the various devices, whether it be to keep drop-outs in school or to develop academic standing within a school—all of those things, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, are discussed and worked over on a very high educational plane. If you think, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, that having those reports come in here to this Committee is going to help those principals because you are going to see two or three things that you think will help the other principals, you are greatly mistaken because they are in constant contact one with the other.

Certainly there isn't a principal in this school system who is not anxious to learn from his neighboring principal, and he talks with them on the telephone and he meets with them officially and unofficially, and he makes every effort to swap every idea, get every idea from every principal that he can and give every idea. If you think compiling these reports, at tremendous labor to the principal, is going to save boys and girls, to me it's the most ridiculous statement that you could make.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I am at a complete loss to see how any harm can come from this. I can't see how it's a tremendous task. I know that the compilation of data of this kind, when hashed over and studied, must lead to some additional methods of combating the problem; and if an attempt to combat even further than is now being done the problem of drop-outs is ridiculous to the Superintendent, then frankly I have nothing further to say.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, may I ask if there is any general information as to any particular school in which there is a higher percentage of drop-outs than in any other? Do we have any information along those lines where, in any particular district—any economic, social, or other district—within our system there are more drop-outs than in any other school?

Superintendent: Miss Fitzgerald, from our monthly reports we can easily give you the drop-outs by schools. Is that not true, Mr. Corcoran?

Mr. Corcoran: That's right.

Superintendent: In other words, you could tomorrow, Mr. Corcoran, compile the number of the drop-outs for a Junior High School?

Mr. Corcoran: I would say, Mr. Superintendent, offhand that if I were to make a hazard here you would get more drop-outs from the Latin School than any place, but that doesn't mean that they have left our system. They have found they couldn't get along at Latin School and we have probably sent them to their home district or another district where they will have another chance.

Those boys and girls, while they were drop-outs at Latin School, are not in the meaning of that term at all.

Superintendent: Mr. Corcoran, you could, without much difficulty, compile the figures for every junior high school in the city, could you not, month by month?

Mr. Corcoran: Yes, and they are supposed to have all those figures ready.

Superintendent: And give us a total for a school from September to December 31st?

Mr. Corcoran: By orders of the Committee we asked them for that this fall.

Superintendent: So that type of information we certainly have on hand immediately, and we can tell you the number who dropped out of every junior high school and every senior high school from September up to the present.

Mr. Muchnick: How many have in junior high school?

Superintendent: Could I finish, Mr. Muchnick? We can give you the general reasons why these boys and girls have dropped out. Isn't that true, Mr. Corcoran?

Mr. Corcoran: Yes.

Superintendent: Under various headings.

Mr. Corcoran: And the reasons. Superintendent: The reasons in general headings—so many for this particular reason and so many for that; but when you come down to an individual case and want a case history of every single thing that everyone did to keep him in school and failed—to me, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, it's —

Dr. Foley: Have you a report on any month, Mr. Corcoran, in your file there? Was any given?

Mr. Corcoran: No, sir.

Dr. Foley: Have you been compiling them?

Mr. Corcoran: They have all been compiling them.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I really think we are making a mountain out of a molehill. The Committee is as good as the information it gets in order to exercise what given thought they have to run a good School Committee. I can't see why every bit of information that was asked for should not be received by the School Board because after all we are lay people. We like to know just about what is going on in order, if it is possible, to take care of juvenile delinquency that is rampant now throughout our city.

Now, we want to check it. We want to do everything possible. We don't have to get specific information right down to every little detail, but I think it is necessary for this Committee to receive everything that the principal or the head master in the respective high school has at hand to give us. I heartily agree with Mr. Muchnick there to get every detail—get it in here so that at least we can look it over at our convenience and feel that we are doing something.

If we can save one individual so that that child can go back to school, at least we are doing something. I don't think it is going to do any harm, and it's probably, as we would say in education, information, and that's all education is. If we can get suitable information, then at least we can operate and do a fairly good job. I am heartily in favor of it.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I hope that on this matter you will call for a vote soon. I have listened now for over a half hour. However, I would like to say that I have listened to this discussion, and I feel that everything is done before it reaches the School Committee. We have the figures there of the drop-outs.

I don't think we have to know every minute reason or effort that has been put into it to keep this child in school. I think they do that automatically, and it has been brought out by the Superintendent that they attend these weekly discussions or biweekly discussions, and the methods are thrashed out there on how to keep these kids in school.

I have not heard one member of this Committee put forth one definite use that this report could be put to by the members of this School Committee. I don't think we have any magic touch over the teachers or the administrators that we could prevail upon these kids to stay in school, so I hope that you don't put this imposition on these men.

Their time is taken up now in running their schools. I think it will act as a detriment to the school system to have them chasing these details that I don't think will influence the kids one way or the other, and I don't think we can do anything about it.

Mrs. Lyons: I think you are wrong there, Mr. Carr, because I think if any members of this Committee are willing to put forth every effort through organizations of which they are members to try and save any of these children in light of the fact that everybody is so keenly concerned about juvenile delinquency, they are entitled to every single bit of information that they can get, and I would ask for a vote on that now.

Would you call the roll on that, Miss Reynolds?

Mr. Carr: I think I am as interested in juvenile delinquency as any member on this Board, but I don't think we have a cure-all for it in a lot of figures and reasons why children drop out of school.

Mrs. Lyons: It is no great effort, anyway. Would you call the roll, Miss Reynolds?

Secretary: On Mr. Muchnick's motion that a report come in on drop-outs.

Mr. Muchnick: Drop-outs and truants.

Secretary: And truants.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, just to be sure that I know the information you want, my understanding is that Mr. Muchnick wanted to know the specific detail.

Mr. Muchnick: On each drop-out since September 30, 1952.

Superintendent: Each drop-out.

Mr. Muchnick: And in addition to that, specific information on each truancy case that didn't result in drop-out and whether any of those cases—and that is for the entire calendar year of 1952 or truancy.

Superintendent: 1951-52?

Mr. Muchnick: No, the 1952 calendar year on the truancy and drop-outs from October 1st of 1952 to date.

Superintendent: Do you want to make it October 1st or the opening of school?

Mr. Muchnick: We don't know particularly until September 30th when the organization chart is made.

Superintendent: Some of them drop out between the opening of school and October 1st.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like to know that, too. I didn't think we had it.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, do you want that by name?

Mr. Muchnick: I don't care if the particular name of the pupil is used. That wouldn't be helpful, but I'd like the age of the pupil.

Superintendent: The individual pupil by number?

Mr. Muchnick: Numbers or letters or anything.

Superintendent: The individual pupil, Miss Reynolds, to be indicated by a number starting with number one and carrying through.

Mr. Muchnick: Don't use the number with relation to drop-outs. It doesn't have a good connotation.

Superintendent: But you have to number them, Mr. Muchnick, if you are going to have the age.

Dr. Foley: No harm, Mr. Superintendent, to have the name and number.

Superintendent: Have the name and the age.

Dr. Foley: They are out of school, so —

Mrs. Lyons: I think it would be of very great advantage, too: if you wanted to take organizations to act as big brothers to some of these people, I think you would have to have the names, wouldn't you?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, on that would you want that of all the persons or of just the junior high and high schools?

Superintendent: All drop-outs.

Mr. Muchnick: The truancy problem is the non drop-outs for the calendar year of 1952 regardless of age or grade.

Miss Fitzgerald: In other words, you would want those for the whole school year?

Mr. Muchnick: The whole truancy problem.

Miss Fitzgerald: Elementary schools.

Mr. Muchnick: Elementary as well, and how many children and how many parents were brought to court for it.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, if the vote is passed favorably, in keeping with your wishes I will prepare a circular for the system tomorrow based upon what Miss Reynolds has taken down and also the public stenographer has recorded.

Mrs. Lyons: Thank you, Mr. Superintendent.

Mr. Carr: I see no practical use to which this information could be put by this Committee, so I will vote no.

Miss Fitzgerald: Yes.

Dr. Foley: I should think this would be very valuable information for the Superintendent's file. I vote Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Mrs. Lyons: Yes.

APPROPRIATION OF FUNDS TO COMBAT JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

Mr. Muchnick: Madam, Chairman, there was one other very important item that was called to my attention, and I imagine everybody's attention, this past week. I imagine it was just a conference. I don't know if it was an official proceeding or not between the District Attorney of Suffolk County and the Superintendent as reported in the press.

The Superintendent is reputed to have said that if he had $50,000 in the budget he could make a great dent in juvenile delinquency or words to that effect; and in another newspaper the Superintendent was reported as having said that if he had the Arena or that we should buy the Arena or make some arrangement to have the use of it.

Now if either or both of those newspaper reports are accurate, primarily with reference to the first report, I'd like to know if there has been a request by the Superintendent in the preliminary budget estimates for $50,000; and if there hasn't been such a request, what would be done with $50,000 and what program does he have that we can put into immediate practice if it's going to either cure or alleviate the juvenile delinquency program.

It seems to me that that would be the most important order of business; and if there is such a plan, then we ought to get it at once. We should have known it sooner, but I'd like to know it now; and if it is something that can be acted on, I think all of us would be just as happy to stay here till midnight if necessary and put something into practice.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I think that in the history of the School Department or in the history of any public service, programs usually work out only as good as the architects of the programs. We have a situation right here in our School Department where our program is criticized. It is not properly patronized. It has fallen off.

The Mayor went out of his way just a week ago, to lament the fact that it fell off here. I think if you people are really sincere in establishing a program of extended use, first of all you should appoint a competent director. Your Committee saw fit to leave that department without a director this past half year.

I think the first step would be to select someone whom you thought was capable of instigating a program and expanding it, especially the extended use of schools, and I hope that your Committee will see fit to select a Director of Extended Use of Schools in the near future.

I think that is one measure. We would be on the right road to combating this juvenile delinquency that is so prevalent in the city of Boston.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I don't want to engage at the moment in a discussion of Mr. Carr's suggestion, although my thought is that an assistant superintendent is a pretty qualified person to handle that particular piece of our school program, I don't know that our extended use has suffered any this year because Mr. Gillis is in charge of it rather than somebody else; but that is only one item, one detail, in a program of combating juvenile delinquency or combating anything.

I would like to know what program the Superintendent has in mind or had in mind, or what use he would have in the effort to combat juvenile delinquency in the expenditure of another $50,000, assuming that he was quoted correctly and that Mr. Byrne was quoted correctly. I think that that is something that is of immediate importance and something that we should have a report on forthwith, and I would like to have such a report from the Superintendent.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, I was called to the District Attorney's office for a confidential conference. I had no conferences with any members of the press following my conference with the District Attorney. What went on in the District Attorney's office from my standpoint was of a confidential nature.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, Madam Chairman, I don't quite understand it. If it were of a confidential nature, in the first place, I have known Garret Byrne for many years in the practice of law. He wouldn't break a confidence. Secondly, if the Superintendent has a plan and if that plan involves the expenditure of $50,000 or $100,000 or $1,000,000, it seems to me that the plan isn't going to do anything towards combating or eliminating juvenile delinquency if it is going to be kept confidential from the School Committee. Surely the School Committee has a right to know what the Superintendent's plan is, whether $50,000 is necessary and what should be done in general.

Now there either is or isn't a plan. There either was or wasn't a statement concerning $50,000; and it seems to me that in the exercise of his official duties concerning the appropriation of money and the adoptions of programs for the School Department and for the school children, the Superintendent has no legal or moral right to keep things confidential from the School Committee.

That is the sphere in which the School Committee must operate—the appropriation of money and the approval of general policies; and if there is such a plan, and if there was a request for $50,000 or any statement concerning $50,000, it seems to me that we must get the information so that we can act. I don't believe that the Superintendent has any right to keep confidences with himself concerning this problem when the whole city is pretty much alarmed over what is going on.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I have no confidences as far as my interest in juvenile delinquency is concerned. I think the record of the past ten years, long before I became Superintendent, speaks for itself.

I organized under a previous committee the youth centers that are operated in this city, beginning in September and October, 1943. I organized under a previous School Committee as an assistant superintendent club activities for the wives of GIs who were overseas.

I have promoted the use of school buildings for recreational activities since I was an assistant superintendent in charge of the Department of Extended Use of Schools.

I already have a committee working on the problem of vandalism. I reported that to this committee, and this was long before the sad episode happened in Roxbury.

I have been working with the Mayor's Committee for the past two years or since it was established. I have assigned Mr. Daley to that problem. He has selected boys for the Good Will Dinner, which is to be held some time late in January, I believe.

The Committee on Vandalism is active. It is made up of wonderful men and women representing several walks of life. That Committee is interviewing—at least the Chairman is—radio managers. I told you this before. I think that tomorrow a circular will go to the service asking the Art Department throughout the school system to become active in the making of posters.

There are all kinds of things, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, that I have established, promoted, and increased in connection with the whole problem of juvenile delinquency.

I think perhaps if you go back to one of the newspapers in 1942 or 1943 you will find what I think is a very substantial article in one of the daily newspapers in connection with this whole problem of juvenile delinquency.

I have spoken on the subject before civic groups. The whole problem of juvenile delinquency, Mr. Chairman and Members, is one that is close to my heart, and I have worked very hard on it, and I shall continue to work hard on it.

I think, Madame Chairman and Members, that Mr. Carr hit upon a very good point. We should have a Director of the Extended Use of Public Schools. We should have a Director of Adult Education.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I like to think that I am a pretty direct sort of person, but evidently I am not. I know of many of the things that the Superintendent has spoken about, but I am trying to be direct, and I am trying to find out what plan the Superintendent has that is concerned with the expenditure of the $50,000 that was discussed between himself and the District Attorney.

If there is a plan, I can see no reason why the Superintendent doesn't want to disclose it. If there was a discussion of $50,000, I can see no reason why the Superintendent doesn't want to disclose that. If there was a discussion concerning a plan involving the expenditure of $50,000, I can see no reason why that should be hidden from us or from anybody in the City of Boston.

If $50,000 and a plan are going to solve this problem that has already cost lives and is costing in dollars and cents much more than $50,000, then let's have the plan; and, as the paper quoted Mr. Byrne, I believe, the money will be forthcoming with the snap of a finger.

This School Committee is as interested as anybody else in eliminating juvenile delinquency; and if $50,000 is going to solve the problem for Boston, it will be the best $50,000 that this city ever has spent and probably ever will spend.

Now, if there is a plan, let's have it. If there isn't a plan, let's say so, but let's not talk about what happened in 1943 with substantial newspaper articles or in organizing the wives of people in service. We are concerned with what is going on in 1953; and if we can make an expenditure of $50,000 or $100,000 or $500,000, if there is a worthwhile plan or a semi-worthy plan, let's get it now and let's do something about the problem that in most people's opinion is the major problem confronting the city today.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, in this discussion going on under Item No. 14, which is setting the date of the meeting? May we get on with the agenda item, please?

Mr. Muchnick: This discussion is very germane to the date of that meeting because if there is a plan, then it seems to me it ought to be publicized as much as possible so that the people who are going to be invited to this meeting will have a chance to think it over and correlate it with their own plans.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I could very easily see how any plan could be contingent on the appropriation of $50,000. As the members of your Committee know, everything today costs money, and usually the lack in different services is because of a lack of money.

I could easily see where the Superintendent would take $50,000 and promote and subsidize the Little Leaguers or take in those of the older age group and subsidize Little Leaguers' baseball, football, and track. I think the problem is money, and there is no question in my mind that he could come up with a wonderful plan to spend $50,000 and probably make some inroads in this juvenile delinquency.

I suggest we appropriate the $50,000 and let him work it out.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, we haven't been asked to appropriate the $50,000, for one thing. We have just read about it in the newspapers, and secondly I don't know why Mr. Carr, you or I or anybody else should imagine the Superintendent has a plan. If he has one, there is no reason for any imagination. Let's know what it is, and you won't have to guess, Bill, and I won't have to guess and nobody else will have to guess; and maybe the city will feel more at ease if we are told that there is a plan and what the plan happens to be.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, may I suggest, since we are tying this up with the date of the meeting for the juvenile delinquency committee, that the Superintendent present at the time that we have the meeting on juvenile delinquency the plan that he mentioned to Mr. Byrne and the reasons for the expenditure of the $50,000 or why he thinks $50,000 would be necessary to carry out such a program.

Superintendent: Miss Fitzgerald, anything that transpired between the District Attorney and myself is strictly confidential from my point of view.

Dr. Foley: I would agree it is confidential between Mr. Byrne and the Superintendent.

Mrs. Lyons: Could we establish February 2nd as the date for that meeting?

Mr. Muchnick: I have no objection to whatever date is established, Madam Chairman, but I am a little bit concerned by the Superintendent's statement that the plan, or whatever else transpired between Mr. Byrne and himself, is confidential.

Frankly, I am now inclined to doubt that there is such a plan, but if he has a plan and if that plan, plus $50,000 might be a wedge in eliminating or at least in some way combating juvenile delinquency, ne for one won't feel very comfortable if there is another situation like the one that took place New Year's Eve or any of the other muggings and vicious attacks that took place that possibly might have been stopped if this plan or any plan were presented to us tonight so that we could appropriate money for immediate action.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I can see where this plan might be in the formative stage, and any premature announcement until all details are worked out might destroy the effectiveness of the plan. That could very easily be, and there should be no announcement of it until he is assured of putting it in force, and I think that is continuing on the $50,000.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr, I want to tell you that if I am going to vote for $50,000 to be appropriated, I certainly am going to know what it is voted for.

Mr. Carr: I think at the time you are asked for the $50,000, I feel sure the Superintendent will let you know where it is going.

Mr. Lyons: I hope so, because, after all, with all this, where is all the money coming from?

Dr. Foley: It might be like the atomic bomb.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, may I ask one further question on this? Mr. Superintendent, do you presently contemplate asking the School Committee for an additional appropriation of $50,000 with which to attempt to combat juvenile delinquency; and, if you do, when do you anticipate making a request?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I would like to answer Mr. Muchnick this way: That if and when I decide that $50,000 is necessary, I shall suggest it to the School Committee at the proper time.

Mr. Muchnick: That is about as definite an answer as I anticipated, Madam Chairman. It would be my guess that the plan is about as definite as the answer.

Miss Fitzgerald: What about the time?

Mrs. Lyons: I think that is something to be discussed by the Committee.

Dr. Foley: It was a good attempt, anyway.

Mrs. Lyons: It would have to be in the evening about seven o'clock. Does anyone have any other suggestions about a date of that meeting? Is February 2nd at 7 o'clock all right?

Dr. Foley: That seems to be satisfactory, Madam Chairman.

RECENT FEDERAL ACTIONS AFFECTING CITIES.

The Housing Act of 1949, approved on July 15, authorized a uniform 10 per cent payment to cities in lieu of taxes on housing projects, but the independent offices appropriation bill passed on August 15 contains a provision that for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, only payments provided for in the original contract between the housing authority and the city are authorized for federal reimbursement.

Federal aid for hospital construction has been approved for nearly 800 projects; more than 600 are general hospitals and the great majority are in towns of under 10,000 population.

REFUSE AND GARBAGE COLLECTION UNDER NEW CONTRACTS AS SUBMITTED TO MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES BY COMMISSIONER HYLAND UNDER CONDITIONS MOST FAVORABLE TO CITY AND CITIZENS—COVERED TRUCKS TO BE USED AND CONTRACTS TO RUN FOR ONE- AND TWO-YEAR PERIODS—FIVE NEW CONTRACTORS AMONG THOSE SELECTED TO DO THE WORK.

PARK DEPARTMENT CONCLUDES SUCCESSFUL BASKETBALL SEASON IN THE RECREATIONAL DEPARTMENT—REPORT OF CHAIRMAN KELLEY SHOWS 694 GAMES PLAYED REQUIRING 108 OFFICIALS AT COST OF $5,138 FOR BOTH JUNIOR AND SENIOR LEAGUES.

The Chairman of the Park Department has submitted to Mayor Hynes a report on the basketball games played during the 1953 season. The schedule required 108 basketball officials with a total of 694 games played. The full report from Chairman Kelley reads as follows:

PARK DEPARTMENT.

Boston, March 20, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

The following is a report of the basketball games played during the 1953 Boston Park Department Association of Basketball Leagues' season, together with a list of the officials who participated at these events.

SHORTELL X-RAY UNIT AT CITY HOSPITAL NOW ON 24-HOUR BASIS THEREBY ADDING TO THE EFFICIENCY OF UNIT FOR PUBLIC'S BENEFIT.

With the approval of Mayor John B. Hynes and the Trustees of the City Hospital the Shortell X-ray unit has been placed on a full 24-hour operational basis. This unit is now on a "round-the-clock" schedule instead of the part-time operation under which it has been working. Under this plan, the working staff will rotate their work on an 8-hour basis.

The letter approving this action, as received from Dr. James W. Manary, says as follows:

Refuse and garbage collection for the City of Boston presents some new phases, according to the contracts submitted by Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland to Mayor John B. Hynes for approval. The contracts call for one-year and two-year terms and also the use of trucks with enclosed bodies to insure sanitation and prevent the littering of streets and the escaping of obnoxious odors. Also among the contractors to do the work are five new firms. In his letter to the Mayor giving reasons for his selections and the awards, Commissioner Hyland writes as follows:

I have carefully analyzed all bids, and my recommendations are submitted without qualification and with confidence that the contractors selected will continue to render the high standard of service now in effect in connection with garbage and refuse collection work. My prime consideration has been to select those contractors who can render this important service in a sanitary and satisfactory manner at the lowest possible cost to the taxpayer. While I recognize the importance of economy, I also recognize the necessity of selecting contractors who have the ability and resources to perform the quality of service required under the provisions of the contract specifications. Under the circumstances, therefore, I have not selected the low bidder in all cases. I have, however, selected those contractors who, in my opinion, can be considered to be the lowest eligible and responsible bidders. The last time that publicly advertised bids for this service were opened was on November 17, 1950. At that time I selected two new contractors who have carried out their contracts in a most satisfactory manner. Prior to 1950 the same group had been selected year after year and had a virtual monopoly of the rubbish contracts.

Five New Bidders.

At this time I am recommending the award of contracts to five new firms, and I am confident that they also will render satisfactory service in keeping with our standards. It can now be said that no group of contractors holds any monopoly on these contracts. I feel that we have been successful in bringing home to one and all that all eligible and responsible bidders will be considered for contract awards, if they submit low bids that are sufficiently high to guarantee performance. This policy has been most effective in reducing contract costs, and I am pleased to report at this time that the new contracts for periods ranging from one to three years will be at an annual cost of $84,414.60 less than the cost of similar contracts awarded by the previous administration in December of 1949 for the year of 1950, despite the fact that contracts in eight out of the seventeen districts will require the contractor to furnish the modern, sanitary, enclosed-type of truck body.

The adoption of enclosed bodies for refuse collection is one of the most forward steps that the department has taken in years to insure sanitation and prevent the littering of streets and the escaping of obnoxious odors, which objectionable conditions are inherent in the outmoded open-top type of truck. Next year I plan to complete the truck modernization program by advertising for contracts in the remaining nine districts on the basis of furnishing enclosed trucks only.

REFUSE AND GARBAGE CONTRACTS AWARDED.

It is too expensive a program for the city to adopt in one year, and for that reason I am extending it over a two-year period. The initial cost of furnishing enclosed steel bodies is more expensive than the furnishing of open-top bodies, but I am hopeful that the contract costs involving closed bodies will be less than those involving open bodies as soon as the contractors have amortized their initial cost over a two- or a three-year period. There is a saving in manpower on the enclosed body, and this saving will be reflected in the bids as soon as the initial costs of the modern trucks have been absorbed over the first few years.

It is my unqualified opinion, therefore, that Boston should follow the pattern established by the modern, progressive cities of this country and require the contractors to furnish the sanitary and up-to-date enclosed bodies, and for this reason I am recommending the award in eight districts, on the basis of the contractor furnishing all-steel bodies, with the understanding that the remaining nine districts will be so quoted in another year.

CONTRACTS AT LESS COST.

While the cost of the new contracts will be $84,114.60 less than the cost of similar contracts awarded by the previous administration in 1949, the saving is all the more striking when you consider that the rates paid to chauffeurs and helpers engaged on the contracts have been increased from $1.38 per hour in the 1949 contracts to $1.725 in the new contracts. We estimate that an increase of 10 cents per hour increases the contract costs by $80,000. Therefore, there is an increased cost of labor of approximately $275,000 in the new contracts, as compared with the 1949 contracts. Despite this substantial increase, we have been able to lower the contract costs and at the same time provide for the modernization of the refuse collection equipment.

In view of the circumstances, I feel that the proposed new contracts are most advantageous for the city and should serve to establish a standard of service comparable to any in the country. All we need to complete the modernization program is a system of incinerators to dispose of our garbage and refuse in a sanitary and economical manner.

While the cost of the new contracts is some $84,000 less than the above-referenced 1949 contracts, they are $57,146.40 in excess of our annual current costs. This additional cost is occasioned by the use of the modern enclosed trucks, and also by the increase in wage rates. The current contracts provide a wage rate of $1.50 per hour, but the contractors are actually paying $1.60. However, the new contracts require a minimum wage rate of $1.725 to be paid to the contractors' labor. Estimating an $80,000 annual cost for every 10 cents, the increase in wages on the new contracts would approximate $100,000. Therefore, it is obvious that the increase of $57,146.40 is modest and reasonable, in view of the wage increases and the adoption in eight of the seventeen districts of the costly all-steel enclosed refuse bodies.

I submit herewith, by districts, my reasons for selecting the contractors recommended:

DISTRICT 1, SOUTH BOSTON.

This district produced an unusual situation. It was my intention to recommend the award of a contract to M. DeMatteo Construction Company, at the bid price of $9,790 per month, for the furnishing of closed bodies for a two-year period. I felt that the bid was too low, and I so informed the contractor, but he appeared very willing to accept the contract. (Incidentally, the present contract is held by the Ward General Contracting Company, and the contract price is $11,700 per month for open trucks.) However, I know that the DeMatteo firm is reputable, is financially sound, and has adequate resources, and, therefore, I intended to award the contract to this contractor, taking into consideration the substantial annual saving that would result to the city.

However, Mr. DeMatteo reviewed his costs more carefully, as he informed me on Monday of this week that he felt that he had made a mistake and asked to be released from the contract award. On contracts of this type I feel that the contractor's bid should be high enough to carry out this important service in strict accordance with the specifications and still allow himself a reasonable profit, and I never, therefore, would recommend the award of a contract where the contractor felt that he would lose money. A losing contractor tends to cut corners and render poor service. Under the circumstances, I informed the DeMatteo firm that I would not hold them to their bid, particularly in view of the fact that I am awarding two other districts to them.

The Sanitary Engineering Company is the second low bidder, but said company has had no previous experience of any kind on related contracting work, and I do not feel, after deep consideration, that we should award the contract to it, even though there is an annual saving of $19,080 involved.

The latter-referenced sum represents the difference between the bid of the Sanitary Engineering Company and the third low bidder, James A. Freaney, Inc.

The latter firm has had the contract in the North End area for the past 27 months and, in my opinion, did an outstanding job in that difficult district and established itself as tops in the refuse collection field. I am very reluctant to pass up such a contractor for a new organization that has had no previous experience in the collection field, even though their bid is very attractive from a financial point of view.

I am, therefore, recommending the award of the contract to James A. Freaney, Inc., on the basis of the bid price of $12,240, for a one-year contract for open-top trucks.

DISTRICT 2, EAST BOSTON.

Only one bid was received. The current contractor, Edward J. McHugh & Son, Inc., controls the only dump in the area and, therefore, controls the contract.

It is not a good setup from the city's point of view, but it is to this contractor's credit that he has kept his bid within reason, over the years. His service is good, and I have no alternative but to recommend the contract to the McHugh Company, at the bid price of $10,393. An incinerator would solve this problem and encourage competition, which would undoubtedly result in lower costs to the city. The present contract provides for a monthly payment of $9,453 to the McHugh Company.

DISTRICT 3, CHARLESTOWN.

I am recommending the award to the lowest bidder, Milano Brothers, Inc., at the bid price of $3,953 per month, for a three-year contract requiring closed trucks. This company has been engaged in extensive trucking operations involving the hauling of sand and gravel, and there is no reason why it cannot do a satisfactory job in Charlestown. The present contract is held by Edward J. McHugh & Son, Inc., and provides for a monthly payment of $4,132.

DISTRICT 4, BRIGHTON.

I am recommending the award of the contract in this district to Frank James Cavaliere, on the basis of a one-year contract for the furnishing of closed trucks, at the bid price of $16,000 per month. The present contract is held by Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., and provides for a monthly payment of $17,582 for open trucks. Mr. Cavaliere is financially responsible and has been engaged in contracting work over the years, although restricted—in the main—to building construction. His father and brothers have had past experience on refuse collection work, and I am confident that the work can be done by this new firm as efficiently as heretofore, and we have the added advantage of furnishing closed trucks to the Brighton district, at a cost substantially less than the present contract. The refuse material in Brighton is hauled through Brookline to the Calf Pasture area and, in my opinion, closed trucks are a necessity. Besides being sanitary, they have the advantage of carrying about 50 per cent more refuse material than the open-truck type, due to the compacting device included in the closed unit.

DISTRICT 5A, WEST ROXBURY.

I am recommending the award of a contract to the Peerless Contracting Company, on the basis of a one-year contract for the furnishing of closed trucks, at the bid price of $10,900 per month. The present contract is held by J. J. Moore Company, Inc., and the monthly contract price is $9,697 for the furnishing of open-top trucks. The Peerless Contracting Company and its officials have had a great deal of experience in general contracting work, and I see no reason why they cannot do the work in West Roxbury in a satisfactory manner. The award of the contract to the Peerless Company also has the decided advantage of providing closed trucks in the West Roxbury district.

DISTRICT 5B, JAMAICA PLAIN.

I am recommending the award of a contract to the present contractor, J. J. Moore Company, Inc., at the bid price of $9,340 per month, for a one-year contract involving open-top trucks. The latter-referenced company is the second low bidder, but I feel that the low bidder, Peerless Contracting Company, should be awarded only one district at this time. In general, I do not believe that a new contractor should be given too large a district or more than one unless the districts involved are small ones. It is my unqualified opinion, therefore, that the Peerless Contracting Company should be awarded only the West Roxbury district and the present contractor the Jamaica Plain district. At the present time, the Moore Company is paid $8,893 per month for the refuse collection work in this area.

DISTRICT 6A, DORCHESTER NORTH.

I am recommending the award of the contract in this area to the present contractor, Coleman Brothers Corporation, at the low bid price of $22,912, for the furnishing of open-top trucks for a one-year period. While the McCabe Company and the DeMatteo Company have submitted lower bids for the hauling of the material to a dump furnished by the city, I do not believe that they should be considered, as I have awarded other districts to them, and I do not believe in overloading a new contractor until he has proved that he can do the work capably in the smaller areas and, thereafter, be entitled to consideration in the larger districts. On all bids furnished for a city-controlled dump, the sum of $1,000 per month would have to be added, as this is the amount that the city would pay the DeMatteo Construction Company under its disposal contract if the successful bidder used a city-controlled dump. The Coleman Company has had the contract in the large Dorchester North area for some years, and has always done its work in a very efficient manner, and I am certain that it is to the best interests of the city to award this company the new contract for the one-year term.

DISTRICT 6B, DORCHESTER SOUTH.

As in the Dorchester North district, it is my unqualified opinion that the contract should be awarded to Coleman Brothers Corporation, at its low bid price of $25,430, for a one-year contract involving open-top trucks. The DeMatteo Company, as in the case of District No. 6A, is the low bidder for hauling the material to a city-owned dump, but I feel that the latter-referenced company will have its hands full during its first year in doing the refuse collection work in the two Roxbury districts that I am awarding to it, and I do not feel, therefore, that they should be considered for the award of the contract in this district. Aside from this point, it is my unqualified opinion that the DeMatteo bid is too low to insure satisfactory service.

DISTRICT 7A, ELM HILL.

I am recommending that this contract be awarded to the second low bidder, Charles Callahan Company, for a one-year period involving the use of open-top trucks, and also involving the use of a city-owned dump. As stated hereinbefore, the low bidder, the DeMatteo Company, has been awarded contracts in two districts, and I feel that it has enough refuse collection work for the next year.

The Callahan Company was first awarded a contract in January of 1951 in District 7B, Dudley. Their work was satisfactory, and the firm has established itself as a qualified contractor in the refuse collection field. I feel, therefore, that the interests of the city would be best served by awarding said company the contract in the Elm Hill area.

DISTRICT 7B, DUDLEY.

I recommend that the contract in this area be awarded to the M. DeMatteo Construction Company, at its bid price of $6,729, for a two-year period involving closed bodies. While the DeMatteo Company has had no previous experience in refuse collection work, it has had a wide and varied experience on general contract work, and has the necessary financial resources and background to carry out the provisions of our refuse collection contracts in detail. At the present time the contract work in this area is being done by the Callahan Company, at the monthly bid price of $6,119, for the furnishing of open trucks.

DISTRICT 7C, MISSION HILL.

I am recommending that this contract be awarded to Joseph P. McCabe, Inc., at the low bid price of $5,850, for the two-year term involving the use of closed bodies. This firm has a long background of general construction work, and has also, in years past, done refuse collection work. I have no hesitancy, therefore, in recommending this firm for the contract, as I feel certain that it will do the work in a capable and efficient manner, and in keeping with our standards. At the present time the contract work in this area is being done by Marinucci Brothers & Co., Inc., at a monthly bid price of $6,210.

DISTRICT 7D, ROXBURY.

I am also recommending that this contract be awarded to the low bidder, M. DeMatteo Construction Company, at its bid price of $9,980 per month, for a two-year term involving closed trucks. The present contract is being done by the Marinucci Company at the monthly cost of $11,100.

DISTRICT 9, SOUTH END.

I am recommending that this contract be awarded to the present contractor, Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., at the bid price of $9,806, for a one-year contract involving open trucks. At the present time the Ryan Company is being paid $9,826 for the work. While the Ryan Company is the third low bidder, I feel that the other bidders, namely, Milano Brothers, Inc., and Joseph P. McCabe, Inc., will have sufficient work to do in the areas that have been awarded to them, and it is my unqualified opinion that we should retain the services of the Ryan Company, because it has done its work well in the years past, and its price is reasonable and will insure satisfactory collection service.

Incidentally, Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., was awarded a contract in this district by the previous administration in 1949.

The following tabulation summarizes my recommendations:

* Council approval required.

I am recommending that contracts in six districts be awarded for periods in excess of one year. Under the circumstances, the approval of the City Council is necessary to validate such contracts. The Council will not have time to act on this matter prior to the contract-starting date of April 1, and, therefore, it will be necessary to award short-term contracts pending Council approval to those involving the longer terms. I am recommending, therefore, that two-month contracts be awarded in the six districts affected. The monthly prices in the two-month contracts will be the same as the bid prices for the longer-term contracts. Incidentally, if contracts were awarded in these six districts on the basis of the low bid prices submitted for one-year contracts, the at the monthly price of $14,200. Therefore, you will note that the latter-referenced price has been substantially cut in the past three years.

DISTRICT 9A, BACK BAY.

I am recommending that the contract be awarded to the present contractor, Dooley Brothers, Inc., at their bid price of $4,572, for the furnishing of closed trucks for a two-year period. Incidentally, this company is now being paid $4,672 per month for the furnishing of open trucks. The work of this contractor has been most satisfactory, and we now have the decided advantage of providing closed trucks in the Back Bay area at a lower price than the current contract, which, as stated, provides open trucks.

DISTRICT 9B, STUART.

I recommend that the award in this district be made to the Capitol Contracting Company, Inc., at its low bid price of $5,190 per month, for the furnishing of open trucks for a one-year period. This contractor is now being paid $5,412 under the present contract.

DISTRICT 10, NORTH AND WEST ENDS.

I am recommending that the award of this contract be given to the Ward General Contracting Company, on the basis of the bid price of $14,300 per month, for the furnishing of closed bodies for a three-year contract period. The current contract is held by James A. Freaney, Inc., for the furnishing of open trucks for a one-year period, at a monthly price of $14,380.

DISTRICT 11, HYDE PARK.

I am recommending the award of this contract to the present contractor, Mary C. Bryan, at the bid price of $5,325 per month, for a one-year term involving open trucks. At the present time the Ryan firm is doing this work for $4,889 per month.

annual cost would be $30,612 in excess of the annual cost of the two- and three-year contracts. For this reason it is advantageous to award the contracts for the longer periods and to obtain the necessary Council approval thereto.

Pending Council approval to the awarding of contracts in excess of one-year periods, I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with advertising and to award so-called short-term contracts to the following-named contractors in the districts designated and at the monthly prices appearing below, with the understanding that the contracts are to commence on April 1, 1953, and are to terminate on May 31, 1953:

District.	Name.	Monthly Bid.
3-Charlestown.....	Milano Brothers, Inc.....	$3,953
7B-Dudley.....	M. DeMatteo Construction Co....	6,729
7C-Mission Hill.....	Joseph P. McCabe, Inc.....	5,850

9A-Back Bay.....	Dooley Brothers, Inc.....	4,572
10-North and West Ends.....	Ward General Contracting Co....	14,300

I also respectfully request your approval to the awarding of contracts—on the basis of bid prices that were submitted as the result of publicly advertising for proposals—to the following-named contractors in the districts designated and at the monthly prices appearing below, with the understanding that the contracts are to commence on April 1, 1953, and are to terminate on March 31, 1954:

District.	Name.	Monthly Bid.
1-South Boston.....	James A. Freaney, Inc.....	$12,240
2-East Boston.....	Edward J. McHugh & Son, Inc....	10,393
4 Brighton.....	Frank James Cavaliere.....	16,000
5A-West Roxbury.....	Peercless Contracting Co.....	10,900

7A-Elm Hill.....	Charles Callahan Co.....	5,147
9-South End.....	Anthony J. Ryan, Inc.....	9,806
9B-Stuart.....	Capitol Contracting Co., Inc.....	5,190
11-Hyde Park.....	Mary C. Bryan.....	5,525

The contract period from January 1, 1954, to March 31, 1954, comes within the scope of the provisions of chapter 182 of the Acts of 1951, which permit, in substance, the awarding of a contract for the first three months of the succeeding year upon like or more favorable terms or conditions than the contract in effect during the current year.

I also respectfully request, in accordance with the provisions of the City Charter as included in section 6 of chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909, as amended, that the approval of the City Council be requested to the awarding of contracts to the following-listed contractors for the contract periods and bid prices designated below:

District.	Name.	Basin of Award.	Contract Period.	Monthly Bid.

I therefore request your Honor's permission to permit the Bay View Window Cleaning Company to withdraw its bid for the reason as explained above, and further request permission to award the contract for doing the foregoing work to the second lowest bidder, State Window Cleaning Company, 170 Summer street, Boston, in the amount of $1,330.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with commercial houses, contractors, etc., for furnishing labor and supplies. Communications from heads of the departments interested were as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, February 19, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

For the past seventeen years the American District Telegraph Company has furnished burglar alarm service for this department, covering our Administration Building, which includes office and warehouse, 26 Norman street, Boston.

The service rendered by this company has been of an exceptionally fine degree.

As all the facilities for the proper operation of this system are now incorporated within this building and as I feel that the annual charge of $1,407, the same as last year, is most equitable, I respectfully request your Honor's approval to dispense with advertising and to award a contract without advertising to the American District Telegraph Company, 60 State street, Boston, for this burglar alarm service for the period beginning on April 1, 1953, and terminating March 31, 1954, both dates being inclusive.

In making this request, I feel that there would be no advantage gained by advertising and that the best interests of the city will be served.

Very truly yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

BOSTON, March 4, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

Subject: 45 Myrtle Street—Administration Building Annex.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

A structural failure of the roof construction at 45 Myrtle street caused the ceiling of the Statistics and Publicity Room on the upper floor of the building to suddenly drop 6 inches or 7 inches, and to avoid total collapse I immediately authorized Michael Barr to install the shoring necessary to stabilize the structure.

The shoring is now in place and space above the ceiling has been made workable. However, to correct the condition in accordance with designs made by the Engineering Division of this department, the cost for repairs, including the work already performed, will exceed $1,000, but will not, in my opinion, exceed $1,400. The nature of the work is such that it will be very difficult—if at all possible—to specify the amount of work necessary to make the roof-framing structure sufficiently sound to accommodate the loads imposed for the purpose of competitive bidding. Therefore I ask your approval of my procedure to dispense with public bidding and authorize Michael Barr, 7 Everett street, Dorchester, to continue the work as directed and shown on drawing by the Engineering Division of this department, with the understanding that the total cost will not exceed $1,400, and that inspectors of our department will keep a record of the expenditures for the purpose of certification of payment.

Very truly yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

ELECTION DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 19, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

The Board of Election Commissioners respectfully requests permission to award the contract for the transportation of voting machines within the City of Boston to P. A. Milan, Inc., of 202 State street, Boston, who has submitted a bid for such moving at the rate of $15 per machine.

May we point out that the lowest bidder, the Rodgers Motor Lines of Boston, Inc., 57 Wadsworth street, Jamaica Plain, submitted a bid for $14.50 per machine. However, representative for said company informed members of this Board at meeting held at this office on March 3, 1953, that they did not have the equipment to do such moving and would have to depend on renting the same. Furthermore, they failed to submit evidence of experience in handling this type of heavy machinery.

We were further informed by Mr. Camille J. LeBlanc, investigator, Commercial Motor Vehicle Division, Department of Public Utilities, that said Rodgers Motor Lines of Boston, Inc., was not eligible to bid on February 24, 1953, as they had only filed with the Department of Public Utilities on February 16th.

Inasmuch as P. A. Milan, Inc., has performed this work satisfactorily for three years, has the necessary equipment to do such moving at once when any emergency arises, and inasmuch as the saving would be but $150, if the award were given to the Rodgers Motor Lines of Boston (we anticipate the moving of 300 voting machines this year), we respectfully request permission to award the contract to P. A. Milan, Inc., for the year 1953.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS,
JOSEPH RUSSO, Chairman.

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 20, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your authorization is respectfully requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and to award a contract to the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company, a local corporation with branch offices at 945 Hancock street, Quincy, providing for the furnishing of daily bus service from the Fields Corner Rapid Transit Station to Long Island Hospital, Long Island, to cover the period April 1, 1953, to December 31, 1953, at a cost not in excess of $40,000.

This contractor has the franchise over the route, and, almost without interruption, has been regularly engaged in providing this bus service to patients, employees, and visitors to Long Island Hospital since this bus service was initiated in August of 1951.

The Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company has carried on the subject transportation services in an efficient and commendable manner and has cooperated in every way possible with this department.

In the light of what appears above, and since this company proposes to maintain the bus service to Long Island Hospital at its existing charges and to perform their operations under the same terms and conditions as heretofore, it is my opinion that nothing would be gained by public advertising for proposals for the subject transportation services.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN R. MCGILLIVRAY,
Commissioner.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 4, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your approval is respectfully requested to the award of a contract to the Library Service Division of Bro-Dart Industries, 59 East Alpine street, Newark, New Jersey, for furnishing certain Plasti-Kleer book jacket covers, in accordance with the following action of the Trustees:

"Voted, That there be awarded without public advertising to the Library Service Division of Bro-Dart Industries, 59 East Alpine street, Newark, New Jersey, a contract for the purchase of certain Plasti-Kleer book jacket covers, in an amount not to exceed $3,500."

The permission of your Honor is therefore requested to award this contract without public advertising to the Library Service Division of Bro-Dart Industries in the amount indicated above. Inasmuch as these Plasti-Kleer book jacket covers are patented items and can be obtained only from the Library Service Division of Bro-Dart Industries, no useful purpose would be served in advertising for bids.

Respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,
MILTON E. LORD,
Director.

The total cost for the year 1953 will not exceed $18,990.

This equipment can be obtained only from the International Business Machines Corporation. No advantage would be gained by a public advertisement for bids.

Respectfully yours,

JOSEPH K. COLLINS,
Chairman.

PRINTING DEPARTMENT.

Boston, March 23, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your Honor's permission is respectfully requested to permit the Printing Department to award a contract without advertising to the Moore Business Forms, Inc., 285 Columbus avenue, Boston, for furnishing 612,000 continuous carbon interleaved tax bills and 47,500 continuous carbon interleaved tax lists for the 1953 tax requirements for the Collecting and Assessing Departments. Total costs of these forms will be approximately $15,387.03.

These forms are to be lithographed and are designed for use with automatic pinfeed devices and form detaching and decollating machinery now in use at the Assessing Department. This equipment was purchased from the Moore Business Forms, Inc.

The above-named company has furnished the city with tax bill forms and tax bill lists since the tabulating machines were installed at the Assessing Department, and its product has always been highly satisfactory.

In view of the satisfactory performance continually rendered on the part of this contractor during so many years and because of the special type of device purchased by the Assessing Department applicable for use on these forms, in my opinion nothing is to be gained by publicly advertising, and therefore I respectfully request your permission for the awarding of a contract without advertising to the Moore Business Forms, Inc., for furnishing these tax bills and tax lists to the city at an estimated cost of $15,387.03.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN J. TWOMEY,
Superintendent.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Boston, March 11, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

For the past several years contracts have been awarded to Thompson and Lichtner Company, Inc., for testing, inspecting, designing, and controlling bituminous and cement concrete mixes used by the department and by contractors working for the department on street construction and reconstruction work.

The work done by the above-referenced firm of testing and consulting engineers has been very satisfactory, and it is my opinion that it would be in the best interests of the city to award a contract to said firm providing for the testing and inspection of the above-referenced types of roadway material used during the current year on our street construction and reconstruction program.

The amount of money spent for services of this nature represents only a small percentage of the cost of the materials used on our street work, and a contract of this type unquestionably is a good investment and may be considered as insurance. The testing and consulting engineer provides a control engineer at each asphalt plant to supervise operations and to control and design the asphaltic pavement mixes. The inspection service assures not only the quality of the material, but also the quantity. The latter-referenced item is very important, because we now pay street construction contractors for roadway materials furnished on a tonnage basis rather than on a square-yard basis, which was the policy up to three years ago. The change in policy from square yards to tonnage has been beneficial to the city and, in my opinion, is the fairest method of payment from a contractor's point of view. The firm of Thompson and Lichtner also makes field tests, when necessary, and—in general—is in complete charge of the design and control of the asphaltic and cement concrete materials from the time that they are mixed at the plant to their delivery at the site of the particular highway project.

In 1952 we required the testing engineer to furnish a so-called engineer-inspector to supervise the actual laying of the material in the street. This system, however, in my opinion, did not work out satisfactorily, and, therefore, it is my intention to require the testing engineer to provide the inspector at the plant only, which was the policy in effect in 1950 and 1951.

Under the circumstances, therefore, the testing engineer has agreed to accept the same unit prices that were in effect in the 1951 contract. I believe that a contract of this type should be awarded at a price at which we are certain that the quality of service rendered by the contractor will not be detrimentally affected. The 1951 contract provided for fair and reasonable payments that assured adequate and competent supervision and control of the pavement mixes. This type of contract is one that does not land itself to publicly advertising for proposals, because the service rendered and the integrity of the firm are of more importance than the price factor, although the cost is a consideration. In this particular case, the price for which the above-referenced firm has agreed to perform the services required under the contract provisions is fair and reasonable, and it is my unqualified opinion that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for proposals.

I respectfully request, therefore, that you approve—without publicly advertising for bids—the award of a contract to Thompson and Lichtner Company, Inc., for testing, inspecting, designing, and controlling bituminous and cement concrete mixes used by or under the direction of the department during the current year on street construction and reconstruction work on the basis of agreed prices and with the understanding that the contract will not exceed the total amount of $40,000. The so-called agreed prices will be basically the same as those included in the 1951 contract.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Boston, March 19, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In accordance with the provisions of the letter approved by your Honor on January 20, 1953, authority is requested at this time to award two additional contracts, without public advertisement, to the following companies for furnishing perishable foods, etc., to the various city departments from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, inclusive:

Samuel M. Gortman Company, Inc.,
52 North street—terms, net.

Jacob Prober Company, Inc., 38 South Market street—terms, 1 per cent discount for payment in ten days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

Boston, March 20, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Traffic Commission has submitted a requisition to this office for 1,000 gallons Berrylac No. 4 White Traffic Lacquer. Berrylac is a special traffic lacquer which has been tested by the Traffic Commission and has been used as a standard product by this department for the past several years. It has been most satisfactory to the Traffic Commission.

Berry Brothers, Inc., is the manufacturer of Berrylac White Traffic Lacquer. Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Berry Brothers, Inc. Inasmuch as this company is the manufacturer, it is my opinion that no advantage could be gained by publicly advertising for prices.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $3,350, less 1 per cent discount for payment within ten days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

Boston, March 25, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 16, 1953, your Honor approved a letter granting me permission to award a contract to New England Bolt Company, Inc., for furnishing manhole steps to the Sewer Division of the Public Works Department.

The letter incorrectly read that the bids on these manhole steps were publicly opened in this office February 4, 1953. It is therefore requested that the date be changed to read February 24, 1953, which is the correct opening date.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Feb. 2, 1953.

A meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 1:45 P.M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick.

PRELIMINARY ESTIMATES

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I have gone over this whole School Buildings budget over the weekend and I have talked with Dr. Foley and yourself. I understand that both of you did, and I would like to move that the alterations and repairs, the C item, include $150,000—which I think is equal to the amount that was asked by the Superintendent.

Dr. Foley—Madam Chairman, can you give us the breakdown of the $150,000—just what it is? The press was not here.

Chairman: As the Superintendent explained last week, $50,000 was to be used for moving the machines from The Teachers College to Boston Trade High School.

Those are quite modern machines, and they are to replace some of the very old ones we have there which date back to 1917 and probably longer than that, but there are some there of that vintage.

It will cost about $50,000—not only to move the machines but to have foundations installed in the building there to take care of the heavy machinery. That is $50,000 of the $150,000.

Then the other $100,000 is for a reserve fund for educational purposes?

Superintendent: That is right.

Dr. Foley: In Item C?

Superintendent: Yes. Madam Chairman, there is one thing that I want to call to your attention Mr. Mooney used the figure, in speaking to the committee, of $50,000 for the purpose of transferring the machinery at the Teachers College to the Trade School. I think he was speaking from memory because officially he has given us an estimate of $67,000 for that particular purpose.

Dr. Foley: It won't make too much of a difference anyhow. That would be $17,000 more?

Superintendent: $17,000 more, Doctor.

Chairman: Couldn't that $17,000 come out of the other $100,000 reserve?

Superintendent: Well, Madam Chairman, it can, although strictly speaking the $100,000 is not reserve. I mean it is to be spread across the board. I really would like to ask your consideration of this point, and this is in connection with the C item, and that is the problem of furniture.

We really ought to have at least $25,000 for new furniture exclusive of educational items. I just want to call it to your attention if you say to get the $17,000 out of the $100,000, then we certainly will do it; but in addition to both of those, I would like to call to your attention the great need for new furniture. We have not been able to buy it for several years. Isn't that true, Mr. McMackin?

Mr. McMackin: Until 1952, and we did buy some in 1952.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, in 1952 there was appropriated for furniture, new and replacement, $50,000 exclusive of the C item; and for 1953 the School Buildings Department asks us to appropriate $25,000 for furniture, new and replacement. I assume, although it may be an unwise assumption, that before the Department of School Buildings put this figure in, they talked it over with the administration to see if that was the amount.

Now, that is in addition to the $150,000, so I don't know what the point is of having another $25,000 if School Buildings does not feel they need more and if they currently are the ones who are supposed to be in charge.

I would like to know, Madam Chairman, what the $100,000 of special educational needs, furniture and equipment, will be other than the moving of the different items to the Trade School.

Chairman: Mr. Superintendent, would you explain that item?

Superintendent: Yes, Madam Chairman. Would you take, please, your 'C' account? You have copies of that, have you not?

Dr. Foley: Yes.

Superintendent: Starting in at Boston Technical High School:

1. $3500 for the working lathes.
- Boston Trade High School.
3. $600.
4. $750.
5. $1200.
6. $4500.
7. $2,000.
8. $300.
9. $300.

Turning to Page 2: Electrical, Brandeis Vocational High School, $600.

4. $2500.

Turning to Page 4: High School of Practical Arts: 2. $200.

3. $1600.

4. $300.

Mr. Muchnick: Excuse me one minute, Mr. Superintendent. Is that in addition to the items listed on Page 93 of the General School Purposes Budget under supplies and incidentals that has Boston Technical High School, books and supplies, $14,500; Boston Trade High School, books and supplies, $35,900; Brandeis Vocational High School, books and supplies, $7500; and High School of Practical Arts, $4500; and Trade High School for Girls, books and supplies, $7500?

Superintendent: This, Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, under C has nothing to do with the general school budget.

Mr. Muchnick: But what happens under C is going to be in addition to the $75,000 mentioned for those schools in the General School Purposes Budget?

Superintendent: Yes. This has nothing to do with that budget. This is in alterations and repairs.

Dr. Foley: But the end-all is that it is practically the same.

Superintendent: Yes.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, inasmuch as these are preliminary estimates that we are working on now and subject to change, I think we should go along with what we intend to do with regard to cutting, if necessary, or to submit a figure for the School Building Department and the business manager.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, in line with that, and staying on the alterations and repairs budget, I move that Item E-3-A be reduced by $20,000. They want $50,000 more than they appropriated last year, and I think that if we give them $30,000 it will be ample.

On Item E-3-B, replacement of broken glass, cut it from $75,000 to $70,000.

In Item E-4, fire escapes—and they have been putting hundreds and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of those over the last few years—cut it from $115,400 to $105,400.

Mr. McMackin: Mr. Muchnick, may I speak on that, please, for a moment? You asked me at a meeting about two or three months ago to look into the advisability of installing sprinklers in chemistry classrooms. I have been in touch with the Fire Department on it and other authorities, and they do not believe in sprinklers—using water in chemistry rooms.

The advisable thing would be to install in each chemistry classroom a foamite extinguisher, and in each laboratory workshop another foamite extinguisher. That job will only run around $1,000, but it should be included here in Fire Prevention.

Mr. Muchnick: All right. Then we ought to cut it $9,000 instead of $10,000 to make sure.

Mr. McMackin: There is one other item, Mr. Muchnick, and that is whether we are going to have emergency lighting in our elementary school buildings. That would come out of this account, too.

Mr. Muchnick: Out of this account?

Mr. McMackin: Yes, sir.

Mr. Muchnick: Then I am willing to withdraw that request for a $10,000 cut.

Chairman: Leave that as $15,400?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes. Care of school grounds, No. E-5. I move that we cut $50,000 off that. Last year they appropriated $55,000. This year they want us to appropriate $125,000. If we cut $50,000, there will still be $75,000 in there, or $20,000 more than the 1952 appropriation.

And I move further that we instruct the Department of School Buildings to erect no fences out of this money; and if you remember, that was what Mr. Mooney said a good portion of this money would be for. That motion is that no fences be erected out of this money, no new fences or complete replacement of old fences, until such time as there has been prior discussion with the School Committee and agreement.

In Item 6-B, repair and refinishing furniture, I move that we cut $15,000 and reduce the item from $90,000 to $75,000. Last year it was $80,000.

Item 15: I move we cut it from $10,000 to $5,000.

Item 16, $20,000 to $15,000—trucking and expressage; and portable buildings, moving, from $7500 to $2500, which will make a total reduction, I believe, of $110,000.

Dr. Foley: What is the last item, please?

Mr. Muchnick: Portable buildings, from $7500 to $2500.

Dr. Foley: I make it $105,000. Mr. Muchnick: $105,000.

Business Manager: That makes it $2,475,205.

Superintendent: That is putting $150,000 in the C item?

Chairman: It is adding $150,000 and deducting $105,000. Are we ready for a vote on that?

On roll call, Mr. Muchnick's several motions passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—3.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr and Miss Fitzgerald—2.

Mr. Muchnick: I move, Madam Chairman, that we adopt the Preliminary Estimates for Land and Buildings as amended.

On roll call the motion passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—3.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr and Miss Fitzgerald—2.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, on General School Purposes, I move that we make the following cuts. On Page 14, top line, the item for temporary clerks, in the sum of $6,000, I move that be eliminated. The third line under Supplies and Incidentals.

I further move that the item on the same page under supplies and incidentals, supplies for tests, be reduced from $25,000 by $10,000 to $15,000.

Business Manager: Mr. Muchnick, I have recommended—and it is in these new figures—a cut of $2500 so the figure now stands at $22,500.

Mr. Muchnick: Let it be reduced down to $15,000; and I move that those tests that are used by individual teachers or schools in junior high school and in high school be listed on an approved list and be purchased by the schools the same as they purchase books.

Instead of having a bunch of tests come in to Miss Cummings' department, some of which may or may not be used because they may or may not be called for by any individual teacher—and I am not talking of the city-wide tests but of the individual tests that classrooms use by themselves—those will be ordered the same as we order textbooks from an approved list and charged to the per capita cost, and we save storage, Supply Room space, delivery service and everything else, and the teacher gets the test usually much more quickly than if it is done under the present system.

There is a direct relationship. It would be sent to the schools directly from the publisher the same as books are sent. We would not have to have all the in-between clerical work, red tape and everything else, and we would also save $7500.

Chairman: On these temporary clerks, my thought was that we ought to have a machine, as they have in many other communities, to correct those tests. I think it would be advisable to look into the cost of one of those machines.

Business Manager: We did, Mrs. Lyons. As I understand it, these machines that they have are doing the work not of anybody at Myrtle Street but the work that the teachers do in schools.

Mr. Muchnick: No, they have them in some school systems where they do everything from correcting to grading and percenting, I think they call it.

Business Manager: Then I misunderstood. I thought that Miss Cummings said that the only work that the machine would do would be to eliminate the work done by the teachers—whatever they compile before it gets to Myrtle Street at all.

Chairman: I cannot believe that that is quite the only function of the machine. Mr. Smith, because in other places it seems to me they correct these tests and they have the results in record time and it does not drag on for months and months the way this does.

Mr. Muchnick: On Page 114, from the total salary figure of $582,000, there can clearly be a saving of at least $15,000, and I move that that be cut.

Business Manager: This is now Physical Education, playgrounds and military science. Is that right?

Mr. Muchnick: The whole budget of the Physical Education Department.

On Page 114, cut $15,000 from the total salaries of $582,000.

From the total supplies and incidentals on that same page, cut $7,000 out of the $107,780.

On Page 115, for the same department again, supplies and incidentals, at the top of the page, cut supplies by $2500, making the item $7500.

Business Manager: Right at the top of the page?

Mr. Muchnick: Right at the top, supplies and incidentals and other items.

At the bottom of the page, four lines from the bottom, where it has again supplies and incidentals and other expenses, cut $3000 from the $12,000.

Business Manager: I had already cut $2000, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Then just cut another $1000.

Dr. Foley: Was it cut since this was printed?

Business Manager: Yes. We talked to the directors last week.

Mr. Muchnick: On page 118, cut from the supplies the sum of $2500, evening and summer schools. There is enough on page 93 for the different trade schools, particularly, to take care of all the supplies they will need in the trade schools, both day and night.

Business Manager: There again, Mr. Muchnick, that figure was increased from $153,000 to $167,000—not by me but due to back orders since this was printed.

Mr. Muchnick: If they get the back orders, then they will have the supplies this year so they can still cut—

Business Manager: On some of the supplies that were ordered last year we had difficulty in getting early delivery; for example, shop supplies, steels, and things like that.

Mr. Muchnick: So they are getting it this year.

Business Manager: So they had back orders to the extent of about $1400 among the various schools.

Mr. Muchnick: Then, you can take it out of this year's. They won't have to order the stuff this year, then.

Business Manager: I just wanted to tell you that it had been up by that amount.

Dr. Foley: Have all these principals ordered their supplies—that is, have you O. K'd supplies for this year?

Business Manager: On a lot of these things, Doctor, we plan a year in advance.

Dr. Foley: I mean since September have you had orders from principals of schools for supplies? Have you honored requisitions that have come in, in other words?

Business Manager: Yes, but of course we ask principals not to send requisitions after a certain date in October, although we do handle emergency requisitions. For instance in the fall we will be buying for the school year 1953-54.

Dr. Foley: But since school started in September have they sent in requisitions for supplies, and have you honored them?

Business Manager: To the best of our ability, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, on Page 140, regular salaries of custodians out of $1,938,000 I move we cut that figure by $36,000.

Business Manager: May I make a statement, Mr. Muchnick, because I have cut there, too.

Mr. Muchnick: Go ahead. If you beat us, good luck to you!

Business Manager: Here is what I have done. Figuring that the School Committee is going to maintain the same policy, and that is not hiring a man to replace a custodian who may be out sick for a day or two days or a week, I have taken off of this custodian figure a saving of $75,000.

Mr. Muchnick: The $1,938,000 is going to be $1,860,000.

Business Manager: Yes, but I have taken it off down at the bottom just before supplies and not at the top of the page.

Mr. Muchnick: It doesn't make any difference. On the overtime, that should be cut by a minimum of $35,000 as well.

Business Manager: I have cut that by $30,000. I took $75,000 off the permanent custodians' salaries. I took it at the bottom and you took it at the top of the page. It works out the same.

I reduced the $154,000 overtime for custodians to $134,700, which actually is $29,500.

Dr. Foley: I would just as soon you would go along with this; and then if we have any figures from Mr. Smith, we will have another opportunity on this preliminary estimate so that at least we can fluctuate as we go along. We do not want to be too hasty because these are only preliminary estimates.

Business Manager: I have taken from custodians $75,000 plus $29,500.

Mr. Muchnick: Then let's make it $1,900,000 for the salaries of permanent custodians, cutting off $36,000, as the Doctor suggests, and take $35,000 off the overtime, which will leave $119,000 there; and out of salaries for leaves of absence, cut the $40,000 to $35,000.

Dr. Foley: What is that item, now, $1,936,000?

Mr. Muchnick: $1,900,000.

Business Manager: You are going to add up to less than I have taken off, aren't you?

Mr. Muchnick: Possibly, and that is what the Doctor suggested we do.

Business Manager: I would rather do it this way. Do you see that $1,936,000?

Mr. Muchnick: Henry, we understand that you would rather do it that way, but the Doctor has suggested that we do it this way and play safe.

Business Manager: I would rather have you take it off as a saving. That $1,936,000 is the basic payroll requirement all added up, and therefore I would rather leave that figure alone and then to have a saving of whatever amount you want.

Mr. Muchnick: Take the saving off the $1,936,000. Let there be the saving under that, and you have a saving put in there three times and you do it the way the Doctor wants it done, which is just as good as your way, and it also earmarks it a little better.

Business Manager: Wait a minute. I have to get this straight now. You want me to take savings off of the $1,936,000 in the sum of $36,000?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, and savings on the overtime of $35,000 and savings on leaves of absence of $5,000, and supplies of $5,000; and with those changes, I move that we present the estimated figures.

Superintendent: May we have the figure, to be sure?

Business Manager: I have made many other changes since I have talked with these people. For instance, the changes down were more than the changes upward. I did add to fuel.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I must break in. I do not think there is any point in having a budget estimate given to us and have us work on it and then be told at the last minute that there have been a lot of changes by the Business Manager or by anybody else.

We could have been told about that sooner. Fortunately, this is only a budget estimate, so that it does not make much difference. It does not make any difference, as a practical matter, one way or the other.

Business Manager: It is through no fault of mine that you have not had these sooner. At the request of the School Committee I interviewed these directors, and you asked me to reduce the budget as much as I could.

Mr. Muchnick: You didn't do anything over Saturday and Sunday. That was Friday.

Business Manager: I had this on Friday. I gave figures to Mrs. Lyons Friday with these changes.

Dr. Foley: We can add here to your changes later on, Mr. Smith.

Business Manager: What I am getting at now is that these certain changes should come on top of my changes. I put in that figure of $184,000 Friday night, so that my figures showed Friday night, after that, $25,211-282.33.

Chairman: What is that figure again?

Business Manager: $25,211-282.33. That is including the $184,000 that we spoke about Friday night.

Mr. Muchnick: I have no objection to Mr. Smith refiguring the budget every day and saving money where it can be saved and adding to it where it can be added, but if you had given us the rest of the figures—

Business Manager: I asked you to remain Friday night for a few minutes, and you all walked away. That is what I wanted to tell you Friday night. Mrs. Lyons was here, and I told her the whole story.

Mr. Muchnick: You can reach us on the telephone whenever you want to.

Business Manager: I had this story for you Friday night, and you were in a hurry to get out. It wasn't my fault that you didn't get it.

Dr. Foley: I move, Madam Chairman, that we accept the figures as outlined by the School Committee; and if there are any changes on the budget when it comes to us, we can make any further changes suggested by Mr. Smith.

Chairman: Miss O'Brien, do you have the amount now?

Mr. Muchnick: I would suggest, however, adding this $184,000 construction figure.

Business Manager: That is in there. What we will have to do now is take these changes and deduct them from these. We will have this figure on General School Purposes for the meeting this afternoon.

Chairman: I would suggest that we go along with Dr. Foley's motion that we accept the Preliminary Estimates. Miss O'Brien is going to give us the figure. Can you give it to us now?

Miss O'Brien: It all depends upon what the net reduction for custodians is to be. The Business Manager already has made a reduction.

Business Manager: It would be simple until we get into custodians. I have taken certain savings, and I have already figured them in here. As I understand it, you are not putting these savings on top of what I have already taken because I have taken savings from practically $105,000. I have to do a little juggling of figures here.

Superintendent: Mr. Smith, I think that Mr. Muchnick's figures on custodians total $81,000; a $36,000, a $35,000, and two $5,000.

Business Manager: That is right. I agree with you.

Superintendent: Now can you make an adjustment—

Business Manager: I have already taken $75,000 plus $29,500, a total of $104,500. I don't think Mr. Muchnick or the Committee want to take $81,000 over and above what I have already taken.

Dr. Foley: I would just as soon get the $81,000 and then later on it would be nice to make another saving if we can because we are going to be confronted with this budget again.

Business Manager: Do you want me to take my figures out and take yours?

Mr. Muchnick: That has been suggested about ten times.

Superintendent: Instead of the $104,500 which you took out, take out $81,000, and that will increase your figures by $23,500.

Business Manager: That increases the figures.

Superintendent: Yes.

Dr. Foley: I think it is the other way around, isn't it?

Superintendent: No, Mr. Smith took out a greater amount.

Dr. Foley: Can you give an estimated total now?

Business Manager: $25,183.-282.33.

Dr. Foley: And the figure before was $25,211,000, is that right?

Chairman: That's right—$25.-211,282.33.

This includes the deduction suggested by Mr. Muchnick and also Dr. Foley's motion to make it $81,000 on custodians instead of $104,000 that you had suggested.

Business Manager: That is right.

Dr. Foley: I move that we accept the estimated figure as submitted.

Chairman: Dr. Foley's motion is that we accept the estimated figure on General School Purposes—$25,183,282.33.

PRINTING OF CONFERENCE NOTES OF HEARING ON DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS

Mr. Carr: Madam, Chairman, this morning, as your members are aware, there was a hearing held before the Legislative Committee on Cities pertaining to a bill being considered by them relative to the school system.

Mr. Carr offered the following: ORDERED, That the conference notes of the hearing on Jan. 28, 1953, between the School Committee and the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings, be printed in the record of the public meeting and that a copy thereof be forwarded to each member of the Legislative Committee on Cities.

Mr. Carr: I hope that this motion carries.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I have no objection. I was just wondering. I believe the purpose of the motion was in answer to the request made by the Chairman of the Committee on Cities for copies; and from what I can imagine, there were about three and one-half or four hours of discussion back and forth.

While I have no objection to its being printed as a matter of public record, it is going to be a rather costly job, and the purpose of it is merely to get some copies to the members of the Committee up there. I think we would do just as well if we had ten or fifteen copies stricken off by some of the secretarial staff in here.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I think because of the public interest in the Department of School Buildings, it might be a worthwhile thing to do within our own public minutes. We have had it done on other occasions for items that were of public interest.

Chairman: I'd be delighted to have it.

Dr. Foley: Madam C. chairman. I feel there are no objections as far as I am concerned. I think it is perfectly all right.

Mr. Muchnick: I withdraw my objection.

On roll call the order passed by the following vote.

YEAS—Mr. Carr, Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—5.

NAYS—0.

The following are the Conference Notes referred to by Mr. Carr:

Chairman: The meeting will come to order, please.

Mr. O'Connell: For the purpose of the record, there is now a quorum of the School Committee, and there are present here in response to an invitation to come here, the Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners,—namely, myself, Joseph F. O'Connell, Jr., Chairman; Richard V. Barry, and Thomas A. Cronin, the other two members of the board, and James H. Mooney, the superintendent of construction.

This is a joint meeting, and inasmuch as the invitation which you have sent has been most vague, we feel that you should proceed to ask any appropriate questions that you might want, and we will answer that, following which we have questions which we will also propound.

Chairman: Thank you, Mr. O'Connell. I guess you gentlemen know everyone here now.

Mr. Mooney: Yes, we do.

Chairman: Mr. O'Connell, the purpose of this meeting is to find out why we are spending so much money on our schools, and still we have had so many complaints from parents and from the Home and School Associations that the schools are not in condition. We spent last year in the vicinity of $2,800,000, and for that amount of money we should have gotten more value.

As a result, last October—I think it was the 6th of October—I questioned Mr. McMackin and I asked him then what percentage of the work was completed, and at that time he said 30 or 35 per cent; and since it was the 10th month of the year and only 36 per cent of the work was completed, I felt that if this work was spread amongst a number of capable and able contractors, the work would have been completed and we would have a great deal more satisfaction amongst the parents of our children.

After that I believe one of the other members asked for a copy of your order book, and we received a photostatic copy of that book.

I do not propose, as I have said before, to be a one-man auditing concern, but I did proceed to find out how many contractors received these invitation bids or did work.

After I had made the remark, there was a piece in the paper—it was directed at me from your department—which said:

"Their reply was directed particularly at School Committee-woman Alice Lyons who declared that the same little group gets all the work from the School Department."

"Mr. Mooney denied the claim by Mrs. Lyons, and also contradicted the charge that a handful of contractors are getting more than $500,000 in non-competitive school maintenance contracts."

Then he went on a bit more and practically said, "Prove what you say," so I generally like to be sure when I make a remark that I have at least some means of proving it, so I did take your book and go through it.

Do you want to start first with the electrical work? I find that approximately—

Mr. O'Connell: I think it will shorten things, Mrs. Lyons, if you would ask a direct question rather than going on to conclusions. I think if you ask about a certain school and a certain incident and so forth, we will get a full and complete answer.

Chairman: I am not going on to a certain school now, Mr. O'Connell.

Mr. O'Connell: But come down to specific instances. We have asked for that right straight along. Now I want specific questions on specific instances.

Chairman: I didn't mention any schools. I mentioned the contractors, and a handful of contractors getting it. We will talk about the electrical work and the number of men who have gotten the jobs.

There are 305 jobs up to the time we received the first installment on this book, and that was some time in November. I think this goes up to August 15th. There were 305 electrical jobs.

Out of that, 98 jobs went to the Ralph Dixon or the Dixon Electrical Company.

Mr. O'Connell: For the purpose of the record, Mrs. Lyons, let me say there are no such jobs that are over $1000 on which no published bid was made.

Chairman: This is all work under $1000.

Mr. O'Connell: All right.

Chairman: Everything that I am going to talk about now is work under $1000. This is the gift work.

On the electrical work there were 305 jobs. 98 of the 305 went to Dixon Electric to the tune of $23,475.

Mr. O'Connell: What was that?

Chairman: There were 98 jobs. The Electrical Maintenance Company received 87 jobs, and those 87 jobs must have been very small ones because that amounted to $6903. That is a big drop, to the next man, or almost the next man there. The Emerson Electric, 74 jobs, $6060. The Stanton Electric, 33 jobs, $7563, and the William Wheeler Company, 13 jobs, for $945, or a total of $44,946.

I don't even find the Dixon Electric Company. Then I proceeded to look in the classified telephone directory, to find out the number of electrical contractors we have in Boston, and I certainly feel that, looking it over, the names are most familiar to anyone who has been handling a telephone book for several years, the classified section, and there are some men who certainly must be very, very fine men and are doing very good business and are trustworthy and capable of doing a good job or they wouldn't stay in business that long.

There I found approximately 290 electrical contractors listed, and they received no work from the Commission. I don't find the Dixon Electric listed that way. It may be listed some other way.

Mr. O'Connell: It is. It is listed in the other phone book in three different places.

Mrs. Lyons: Well, I don't find it in the classified section.

Dr. Foley: It is.

Mrs. Lyons: It is? Not in the classified—Not under that name, anyway.

Therefore, we have five men receiving almost $45,000 worth of work.

The first one, the Dixon Electric, received 52 per cent of all the electrical work allotted. That was almost $23,475, and the rest of them together received maybe $20,000 approximately.

It certainly seems to me that out of 290 electrical contractors more than five people should have an opportunity to do some of the work in our schools; and if they did, the work would be done.

Mr. O'Connell: Very well. I shall ask Mr. Mooney to explain the situation with respect to electrical contracts as mentioned by you. Would you explain first of all the Dixon situation, about this phone book setup?

Mr. Mooney: Well, I never knew until the other day that the Dixon Electric Company wasn't listed as an electrical contractor, so I consulted the head of my electrical division, Mr. Bernard Cullen, and found out that to the contrary they were listed as electricians.

Chairman: How are they listed, Mr. Mooney? Not as the Dixon Electric?

Mr. Mooney: I did not look it up myself. I can ask the man who handled it, though.

Chairman: I would like to know.

Mr. Mooney: Mr. Cullen, would you tell me how the Dixon Electric Company is listed in the phone book?

Mr. Cullen: He is an electric maintenance company.

Mr. Mooney: How is he listed as we do business with him?

Mr. Cullen: We send the orders to Ralph V. Dixon.

Mr. Mooney: To what address?

Mr. Cullen: 127 Broad Street.

Mr. Mooney: Is that the Dixon Electric Company?

Mr. Cullen: That is correct.
Mrs. Lyons: Is that the way it is listed in the phone book?
Mr. Cullen: Ralph E. Dixon. That is 127 Broad Street.

Mr. Mooney: I might say that the list not only of electrical contractors but contractors involving all types of work that we have recorded now in our department total approximately 87 in number. Those contractors, to my knowledge, have been doing work with one or two, well, probably, say, four exceptions, for the Department of School Buildings in varying periods, from 10, 12 to 35 years.

The so-called list has seldom been changed unless it was requested by somebody to have him placed on the list. I personally never refused to put a contractor on the list.

However, I have eliminated some—or, better said, they have eliminated themselves over a period of time that he have done business; but I think it is reasonable to say to you that most were doing business long before I ever knew there was a School Buildings Department.

For your information, I would like to cite the period of time. If you desire, I will give the name of the general contractors:

Those are taken from the records, and I think everyone can be substantiated. I got them from my secretary. In that group of 87 contractors you can see very readily that there are very few contractors that have been added to the list, so-called, since I have been Superintendent of Construction, which has been a period of about six years.

Mr. O'Connell: Now for the purpose of the record will you explain how you obtain the men to do the work for the unbid work—in other words, the $1000 or less contracts? Explain to the Committee the method by which the contracts are awarded?

Mr. Mooney: Of course, I think the members of the School Committee are familiar with it.

Mr. O'Connell: Well, it is for the purpose of the record and for the general public out here.

Mr. Mooney: Requisitions for the work originate in the schools, generally speaking.

Mr. O'Connell: Explain to them the method—the machinery by which it is done.

Mr. Mooney: Well, the Justifications and principals or persons in charge of the various school buildings discover something through either attempting to open a window themselves, or a child will open a window, or through other sources, that a certain part of the building is in need of repair; and they write a requisition which is sent to 15 Beacon Street, and those requisitions at Beacon Street are given a number, and recently, within the last few months they have been initiated by the Chairman of the School Committee.

Those are in turn either mailed or delivered to the Department of School Buildings by messenger, and then they are given to the Deputy Superintendents of my department who are two in number, who call them through and read them to see whether or not the language is understandable.

They in turn pass them on to the inspection groups of the various divisions of the department, and the inspectors visit the site and determine whether the work is necessary, whether it is feasible to do it, whether it is required, and whether the language on the requisition is understandable enough to formulate an order.

If it is not, they rewrite it, so to speak, and they place an estimate of the work on the requisition, with the estimate attached.

Those requisitions, with the estimate attached, are then delivered to my Executive Secretary, Mr. Noonan, who brings them in to me, and we assign the work.

The inspector has no knowledge when he makes out the estimate on the requisition to whom the work will be assigned. I assign to the best of my ability to the people on this list—who, I think, are the most capable of doing it.

Mr. O'Connell: But how do you do it?

Mr. Mooney: How do I do it?

Mr. O'Connell: Yes.

Mr. Mooney: Just what do you mean by that?

Mr. O'Connell: You call for four or five bids, do you?

Mr. Mooney: On a certain amount of it, if the work is of the nature so that it can wait for a reasonable period of time, it has been my policy, and my division heads are so instructed, to say that every job over $400 to $500 should be sent out for invitation competitive bid.

Mr. O'Connell: By that you mean four or five people that you feel are qualified?

Mr. Mooney: We have a regular form for that purpose. It is mailed out in a special envelope with my name printed on the outside. We give them a reasonable time to go to the building, determine what their estimate of the cost would be, and they are sent to my office and deposited in a special locked box which is on Mr. Noonan's desk or in his office.

Incidentally, there is a date set for the opening of them, and those are opened; and in every instance without exception the job is given to the low bidder. The only exception would be where two might have exactly the same estimate, and then it has been my policy to toss a coin.

Mr. O'Connell: But you are not required to call for those invitation bids in the statute?

Mr. Mooney: No, all of those invitation bids, and there were approximately 245 this year, totaling almost $140,000 worth of work, could have, if I desired, been handed to any one of the contractors on this list, and I considered it better business to do it that way.

Mr. O'Connell: Is it safe for me now to say that the only time read them to call for bids would be on work of pressing emergency nature?

Mr. Mooney: Generally speaking, yes. Incidentally, I want you also to appreciate that although we spend a large amount of money over a twelve-month period, actually I think it reasonable to say that the period is limited to eight months because we do not get our budget approved until the latter part of April, so we just go along on the bare necessities up until that time.

Under the law I cannot even negotiate a contract no matter how necessary it is without getting the Mayor's special permission, and then I have never attempted that because the Law Department informed me that unless there was an appropriation made, I could not negotiate a contract.

So, all contracts are subsequent to April. We never know in April just what is going to be authorized by the folks up here, so it is difficult to plan a program. However, we do make that attempt, and as you folks know, with our budget we submit suggested programs.

A delay is occasioned by not getting them up at that time. There is a certain type of work that just cannot be let go, and that is something we judge ourselves; and where it cannot wait for a so-called invitation bid, I take the responsibility of awarding it to a contractor.

I have delegated some of that authority to my divisions because it is impossible for one man to handle all the requisitions we get. If there were nothing else to do, that could be done; but with the tremendous amount of business during that eight-month period, I personally could not handle each individual requisition. They totaled in excess of 11,000 this year. Those which we felt could be honored were honored.

Dr. Foley: Mr. O'Connell, will you ask Mr. Mooney what procedure he adopts at the completion of the work? When the work is completed, what procedure then is followed?

Mr. Mooney: While the work is in progress, the inspectors visit the job and make a thorough inspection of it for the reason that they are obliged to certify to the amount of the order, and they are obligated to make an explanation to the Auditor and to me if their estimate is either ten per cent over or under as it relates to the actual cost of the order.

Those orders are put through the same process that all City orders are put through as it relates to payment through the Auditor's office, and the inspector, who is charged with the responsibility of making the inspection and certifying the expenditure, certifies under the penalty of perjury, and I endorse his signature for recognition by the City Auditor.

Mr. O'Connell: In addition to that, do I understand that there is a further party who inspects all work that is done?

Mr. Mooney: Well, we have had very pleasant relations with the Finance Commission of the City of Boston, and I think it is reasonable to say that normally during the course of the year three of their investigators are in our building practically all the time. They check our work both from the phase of performance, compliance with the order, and the financial phase of it.

Mr. O'Connell: Have they ever requested anything?

Mr. Mooney: Frequently I have found myself in the position where I felt it was very good business to consult them, and I think that could be substantiated—I have called up the secretary, I have talked with Mr. Lester Murphy and Mr. West, and on one or two occasions I think I spoke to a Mr. Smith.

Mr. O'Connell: And the Finance Commission gets a copy of all orders?

Mr. Mooney: They get them through the Auditor's office, I presume, but very frequently we send a letter directly to the Finance Commission notifying them as of a date that a certain job will start because we welcome their inspections. It is good business for everybody to have them in there in our department.

Mr. O'Connell: Does that answer your question, Doctor?

Dr. Foley: That answers it. I wanted to know whether the cycle was completed or whether the Finance Commission came in or this conclusion.

Mr. Mooney: Oh, very definitely so.

Mr. O'Connell: I would like to know if I have cleared up your question. Mrs. Lyons asked Mr. Mooney to comment on the fact that thirty per cent of the work only had been completed as of sometime on or about October 6th. Have you any explanation for that?

Mr. Mooney: Is that a question to me?

Mr. O'Connell: Yes.

Mr. Mooney: Yes, I have. Mrs. Lyons is wrongly informed. The work at that time was much nearer 85 per cent complete than it was 30 or 35 per cent.

Mrs. Lyons might be interested to know that the same jobs that she has reference to in October as being uncompleted—incidentally, they totaled $847,000 in value.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, I did not mention any jobs that were not completed.

Mr. Mooney: No, 30 per cent or 35 per cent.

Chairman: That was not my remark. That was from our own engineer. I asked the question, and that was in reply; and if I am wrong in that, Mr. McMackin can correct me.

Mr. Mooney: You were wrongly informed because I want you to know that out of 124 contracts—those that were referred to—as of December 31st, two months later, there was only one that was 80 per cent completed, one 98 per cent completed, one 95 per cent done, and that is now 85 per cent; one 95 per cent; one 80 per cent; one 98 per cent; one 85 per cent; one 90 per cent; one 75 per cent; one 50 per cent. That is now complete.

Chairman: May I break in here, Mr. Mooney? Well, I have in mind one, and that was the Greenwood School for which we appropriated the money, I think, the last week in May; and I think that school is just about completed now.

Mr. Mooney: It is now completed. That is correct.

Chairman: It is now nearing the end of January, and the people over there were very much concerned because we had asked at that time when that money was appropriated if the work could be done, I think it amounted to something like $22,000.

Mr. Mooney: Approximately $22,000.

Chairman: For $22,000 you don't get a major job in a school. You get a certain amount of cleaning up, painting, fixing lights, and fixing the plumbing to some extent, and modernizing it a bit.

However, it certainly seemed to me that for a small school and the small amount of money, it took six months to complete it, and that is a pretty long time.

Mr. Mooney: Well, I would say it is a very long time, Mrs. Lyons, but I think that the delay was caused by your committee. I was not authorized to proceed in May with the Elihu Greenwood School. You batted it back and forth because you would not allow me to spend more than $20,000. We had it figured twice. Finally it came to $1100, or approximately $1100, more than the estimated amount that I had given you of $20,000.

Finally you decided to let me go ahead. That was after the school had opened in September if my recollection is correct.

Mr. O'Connell: And your practice is to do that when the children are out of school during the summer?

Mr. Mooney: If they had told me in May when I gave them the estimate that I could proceed, the job would have been completed before the children occupied the building.

Chairman: Even at that, from the 1st of September to the end of January was a pretty long time to do that amount of work. I know that the plumbing in that school was delayed and delayed and delayed, and that the floor was pulled up for months, and it caused a great deal of inconvenience. Children had to be taken out of a classroom and the girls had to stand while the boys went down and the girls used the same basement, and a girl would have to be taken out to stand as a monitor.

Mr. Mooney: That is very true, Mrs. Lyons; to perform work of that nature when a building is occupied is much different than performing it when it is unoccupied.

Chairman: I still think, where the money was appropriated, you could have started out there.

Mr. Mooney: Because you folks delayed me. You did not give me permission to start. You held that up in your committee.

Chairman: What date did we give you permission to start?

Mr. Mooney: I would have to get the record.

Mr. O'Connell: If we met down at Norman Street, we could have those.

Mr. Mooney: I might ask the Superintendent of Schools if he has any recollection of that being debated back and forth right in this Committee. Is that true, Mr. Muchnick—and finally I got the say so. It was $1100 more than my estimate. My estimate was $20,000 approximately.

Mr. Muchnick: I think that the records will indicate, Mr. Mooney, that it was sometime in May that the work was authorized and that there was a definite statement that it would be done by the time the school opened.

Mr. Mooney: I think you are incorrect.

Mr. O'Connell: Have you got that record?

Mr. Muchnick: I said that I thought that the records would indicate that, Joe.

Mr. O'Connell: In the School Committee rooms right here?

Chairman: Yes, it is here somewhere. Could you find that, Miss Reynolds?

Mr. O'Connell: There is correspondence that went along with it, too.

Secretary: I will try.

Chairman: I think that was the last week in May, Miss Reynolds.

Mr. Mooney: to get back to the explanation of these few contractors—and I still hold I am right in saying this—for each type of work they are called each time and do it over and over again, and I don't care whether they are twenty-five years. It seems to me that if they are in there twenty-five years they certainly are entrenched in it, and no one else gets the opportunity to get any of this work. I think the work should be distributed, and I still feel that it's a pretty broad statement to say that the very best people are these people.

I cannot imagine what 290 other electrical contractors in Boston do and how they make a living if they are so lacking in responsibility that we cannot trust them to do some of the jobs on our schools.

Mr. O'Connell: Let me ask this homely question. Do you shop for your roast beef in every market? Have you tried all the markets in town for roast beef Saturday night? Have you tried all the markets?

Chairman: I haven't tried all of them.

Mr. O'Connell: As a matter of fact, the last four or five years haven't you been buying from one or two butchers?

Chairman: I don't think my personal affairs need to enter into this. This is public work.

Mr. O'Connell: The same analogy holds true.

Chairman: I think you are completely wrong on that, Mr. O'Connell. I think a housewife buying groceries is about the most ridiculous analogy.

Mr. O'Connell: It is pretty fundamental.

Chairman: It is the most ridiculous analogy.

Mr. O'Connell: If we did that, we would be tied up a long time.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I for one don't object to people who are getting pretty good salaries for doing these things being tied up during working hours checking at which places they can get the best bargains instead of buying all their hardware at one store; and I think, if I may paraphrase your analogy, Joe—

Mr. O'Connell: The same thing.

Mr. Muchnick: Am I right in understanding that there are no specific details to be discussed tonight? Is that correct?

Mr. O'Connell: That is the way your notice came out. How would you or I as a stockholder stack up if we got a simple vague notice like that and we went to a meeting?

Chairman: We simply asked you, and I am going back to it, Mr. O'Connell.

Mr. O'Connell: Let's read the letter.

Chairman: The question is why we have so few contractors when there are so many others in Boston.

Mr. O'Connell: Wait a minute, now. Let's get the purpose of the meeting.

Chairman: That is the purpose of the meeting.

Mr. O'Connell: Mr. Muchnick, you and I know as lawyers.

Mr. Muchnick: I usually don't practice law at night.

Mr. O'Connell: Isn't that a fact—you set forth the purpose of the meeting, the scope of it?

Mr. Muchnick: Which was, I believe, a full and frank discussion of what gives at 26 Norman Street. I said what gives and not who gives.

Mr. O'Connell: Who gave. Can you tell me a more purposeful purpose to be set forth than a frank and full discussion of alterations?

Chairman: What would you like us to say, Mr. O'Connell?

Mr. O'Connell: Discuss the cost of repairs, alterations, etc., of school buildings. I would have liked you to name the school buildings. I would like you to name the people that you say are favored.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, Madam Chairman, let me name one school building just so that we can get started.

Mr. O'Connell: We haven't got the records here because they are down at Norman Street.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, there was a question propounded by you to the Superintendent of Construction on why such a small number of contractors participated in this work where we have such large numbers within the City of Boston.

I would like to hear the answer to that. I have done some inquiring since this question has come before the School Committee, and those people who are doing the work inform me that large concerns are not interested in this work, and the only way that this work could be done and still make a profit is to have it done by companies where the owner or president participates in the work. That is the information I have received from several of these contractors.

Now I would like to hear the Superintendent of Construction explain that.

Mr. Mooney: Mr. Carr, what you say is very true. We could name any number of contractors who are not interested in our work for the reason that it does not warrant sufficient profit for them to carry on their business.

I think it is reasonable to say that the greater proportion of these contractors whom we do business with are men who actually perform labor with their hands on the job.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, may I break in here a minute? I happen to know a few of those contractors, and I know that they don't perform with their own hands.

Mr. Mooney: They may not use their hands, but they work in a supervisory capacity on the job.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, before we get to the specific school, we have all been talking in the last few minutes about profits. When our inspectors go out, or your inspectors go out and figure a job, do they figure profits also?

Mr. Mooney: No, they figure the cost to the department, which would involve the profit.

Mr. Muchnick: And what margin do they figure for profit?

Mr. Mooney: It is not broken down into any specific amount.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, do you have any pattern of figuring cost plus gross profit or net profit or overhead or taxes or anything else?

Mr. Mooney: That is broken down by an itemization of the bill into labor and material costs.

Mr. Muchnick: Who makes that itemization of the bill?

Mr. Mooney: The contractor.

Mr. Muchnick: The contractor does and he figures his cost to the penny, doesn't he, in order to get himself a profit?

Mr. Mooney: I presume he does.

Mr. Muchnick: Then if a contractor figured a job at $664.22 and billed the City for that, you would assume that he had figured the job down pretty close when he was down to 22 cents as part of a $664 job?

Mr. Mooney: Well, that would be the summation of this other one.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, and that would include how much profit?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know.

Mr. Muchnick: Will your inspector know?

Mr. Mooney: No, it would include what the O.P.A. allows.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, the thing that I cannot understand frankly, is this particular job I am mentioning. The contractor billed us for $664.22 and your inspector was so good that he estimated the job would cost $664. He was out twenty-two cents. When does he figure the job—before or after it is done?

Mr. Mooney: Before.

Mr. Muchnick: And he can come within twenty-two cents of a job?

Mr. Mooney: I think you would be amazed.

Mr. Muchnick: I am!

Mr. Mooney: Well, let me tell you, Mr. Muchnick—

Mr. O'Connell: What did you have in mind?

Mr. Muchnick: This is Requisition No. 557 to the Daniel Russell Boiler Works for removing defective boiler tubes. I have another one in the same category: Requisition No. 78. The inspector figures it at $80, and the bill, by some magic, comes out to $79.74; and in many of these bills both parties, the inspector and the contractor, figure them to the penny, and I don't mean to the dollar. I mean to the penny—on jobs that run $800 and $900. Frankly, I don't believe it.

Mr. O'Connell: Do we have the records of that here, Mr. Mooney?

Mr. Mooney: No, I don't happen to have those.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, I have some records here.

Mr. O'Connell: Tell me something, Izzy. Why didn't you ask us to bring those records up here?

Mr. Muchnick: I would assume, Joe, that you as a very able lawyer would know that if you are going to have a full and frank discussion—

Mr. O'Connell: —that we would be down at Norman Street.

Mr. Muchnick: —that you would bring the records pertaining to that discussion. The next time we meet, do you want a notice to produce them?

Mr. O'Connell: Why don't you send me one? Now, if you are going to be open and frank about it, why don't you come down to Norman Street where we have all these records?

Dr. Foley: Mr. Mooney, how do they come as close as that—the inspector and the contractor?

Mr. Mooney: Well, I think I can best explain that by saying to you ladies and gentlemen that all our business during the twelve-month period is on the basis of estimate. When the Auditor's books are checked with our estimated books, the error percentage on approximately $3,000,000 worth of work of every description was less than one-half of one per cent.

Now, I think that proves that our men can figure pretty darn close.

Mr. Muchnick: I think it very clearly does.

Mr. Mooney: That involves all these advertised contracts and everything else—any additions or deductions or anything else.

Mr. Muchnick: Frankly, I find it even more remarkable to be able to figure to the penny what a job is going to cost without any leeway for any unexpected items. Do any of these contractors have extras on any of these jobs?

Mr. Mooney: Very, very few, if any.

Mr. O'Connell: What is your procedure on that when they have extras?

Mr. Mooney: There is a regular procedure established by the Auditor's department.

Mr. Muchnick: Are those extras figured again by the inspectors?

Mr. Mooney: You mean prior to the time—

Mr. Muchnick: Prior to the time they become contracts.

Mr. Mooney: I would not know how to answer that.

Mr. Muchnick: Why don't you?

Mr. Mooney: Generally they are.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, what does the inspector do, then—change his figure on the requisition?

Mr. Mooney: Oh no. It is never changed. Now wait a minute. What are you getting at?

Mr. O'Connell: Give us an example of that.

Mr. Muchnick: I just gave an example of a job.

Mr. Mooney: What would give an indication of a change on the requisition?

Mr. Muchnick: I asked you whether it is changed.

Mr. Mooney: No, never.

Mr. Muchnick: So, where would the estimate for the extra appear?

Mr. Mooney: The question, again, please?

Mr. Muchnick: Where would the estimate for the extra appear?

Mr. Mooney: It would appear as an amendment to the original order.

Dr. Foley: You would have a new order, in other words?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: A new requisition?

Mr. Mooney: No, it would not be a new requisition. It would be an amendment to the original order.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, let's take some specific situations on the question of how the department operates. Before you give a boiler repair out to anybody, do you have an inspector inspect the boiler to see if the repair is necessary?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: And if somebody inspects the boiler who knows his business, he can tell what is right with it and what is wrong with it, can't he?

Mr. Mooney: He can tell what is wrong and right with it to the outer tubes, but he has no knowledge whatsoever of what will be found when the outer tubes are removed.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, if you had something like a leaky blowoff boiler, that is something that would have no connection with outer tubes?

Mr. Mooney: Oh, yes, it would.

Mr. Muchnick: It would have a connection with outer tubes?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. O'Connell: Explain to Mr. Muchnick the description that appears there and what it actually is.

Mr. Mooney: I don't know what he is reading there. You are trying to determine whether the inspector should know when he issues his order whether there should be an order. That is what I think you are talking about.

Mr. Muchnick: I just asked you a very simple question, Jim. When an inspector inspects an order to get repairs to leaky blowoff boilers, is that something that has to do with the outer tubes?

Mr. Mooney: It could, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: He could find that out?

Mr. Mooney: He might find it and he might not find it.

Mr. Muchnick: Now, is there such a thing as a sump pump?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: When you check the sump pump of a boiler, does that have anything to do with leaky boilers or leaky outer tubes?

Mr. Mooney: No, the sump pump is independent of the leaky boiler.

Mr. Muchnick: And when you repair a motor, does that have anything to do with either of the other items?

Mr. Mooney: No, that would be separate.

Mr. Muchnick: When you remove defective boiler tubes, does that have anything to do with the three other items?

Mr. Mooney: Well, it would if it were on the same order. It is not part of it. They are all separate phases.

Mr. Muchnick: This is the part I cannot understand, Jim. In the Dearborn, if I copied this information correctly, on January 17th of this year, one contractor got a job for $100.38 for repairing leaky blowoff boilers. On the same day another contractor got a $79 job for repairing the sump pump.

Mr. Mooney: Those are entirely different phases—those two.

Mr. Muchnick: They can be done by the same company, can't they?

Mr. Mooney: They cannot be done by the same contractor. They are two separate items.

Mr. Muchnick: Then on the next day, January 18th, another company got a $25 job for repairing the motor.

Mr. Mooney: That is another trade, sir.

Mr. Muchnick: Does the Supply Service Company handle boilers?

Mr. Mooney: No.

Mr. Muchnick: On January 25th, a week later, the Russell Boiler Works got a job of $664.22 to remove defective boiler tubes, and all the way down the line.

Mr. Mooney: All right. Now let me give you an explanation of that, will you? Will you cite the first instance and the date?

Mr. Muchnick: January 17th.

Mr. Mooney: And an order was issued?

Mr. Muchnick: Leaky blowoff boilers.

Mr. Mooney: All right, What is the next date?

Mr. Muchnick: January 17th, repair sump pump, January 18th—

Mr. Mooney: That is far enough. That was a day later or two, wasn't it?

Mr. Muchnick: No, the same day.

Mr. Mooney: Those are two specific jobs as different as day and night. One is a plumber's job and the other is a heating job.

Mr. Muchnick: Does McCusker do any repairs to boilers?

Mr. Mooney: No, not to my knowledge.

Mr. Muchnick: Then on the next day you have repairs to the motor.

Mr. Mooney: All right. Now what I want to inform you is that it is very easy for you or anybody else to take the records that I have sent to you like that blue book you have in front of you and after a period of time has passed go over those records and say just exactly what you saying. In other words, you are getting at: Why weren't they grouped together providing they were the work of one man?

However, as of January 17th, if that is the date, that one order was issued, and I personally, or any of my men, had no knowledge whatsoever that the day following there would be a requisition in the same school for a different type of work or something analogous to that.

Mr. Muchnick: Would he know anything about defective boiler tubes?

Mr. Mooney: No, he would not.

Mr. Muchnick: How do those go—they pop all of a sudden—they wear out, don't they?

Mr. Mooney: They become perforated, generally speaking.

Mr. Muchnick: And if they become perforated to the tune of a $865 job, then the chances are—

Mr. Mooney: That is a serious situation.

Mr. Muchnick: That is a serious situation.

Mr. Mooney: That is what I mean.

Mr. Muchnick: And an inspector who went out to look at a boiler on January 17th, if he were inspecting properly, ought to catch that, shouldn't he?

Mr. Mooney: Certainly not. My dear man, those boilers are internal. They can't be viewed from the outside.

Mr. Muchnick: How does he catch it a week later?

Mr. Mooney: Because the water goes into the firebox.

Mr. Muchnick: And that would happen all within a week?

Mr. Mooney: Why, certainly. It can happen right while we are sitting here tonight.

Mr. Muchnick: I thought you said it does not happen suddenly. It's things that start to wear out and leak as a result, and it would break after being worn out all of a sudden—happen in one day?

Mr. Mooney: Certainly.

Mr. O'Connell: Like your automobile breaks down all of a sudden.

Mr. Muchnick: It doesn't break down unless they tow it away!

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, you made a remark a short time ago when we were discussing some of these contractors, and Mr. Carr also made the same remark—that many of these contractors do small jobs and that big contractors would not be bothered with them.

We will go along to the painting work there. There are some of these people who are getting these gift bids—

Mr. O'Connell: I don't like that term "gift bids."

Chairman: That is just what it is.

Mr. O'Connell: It is not just what it is. It is an invitation bid.

Mr. Muchnick: When you get an invitation, you usually bring a gift!

Chairman: Mr. O'Connell, that is the term that is used for it, so you might as well get used to it.

Mr. O'Connell: I never heard it before, but go ahead.

Chairman: You may hear a lot of things that you never heard before.

Mr. O'Connell: Yes, that's right.

Chairman: Mr. Carr made the remark first, and I think you agreed with him, that some of these men are small contractors, and the big contractors would not be bothered with it.

There is one there, a Mr. Gazola, who gets any number of big contracts, one up to around $24,000, I believe it is, for the High School of Commerce.

Mr. Mooney: He does big work. Most of them don't.

Chairman: Well, I see others along there that I know get big contracts. I have seen them right in the City Record.

Mr. Mooney: Listen, my dear woman. I will welcome anybody bidding on the jobs. Now you are talking about my limited list. If you have somebody that you want to work, all you have to do—

Chairman: I don't know a contractor. I haven't one single soul who has come to me. I am not interested in it, but I am interested in getting the work done in the schools.

Mr. Mooney: You are interested in getting it done as economically as possible, aren't you—in the same way that I am?

Chairman: I don't believe I am, no. I think I will have to be shown that we are getting it done economically.

Mr. Mooney: I want you to know that I spend every penny of the city's money just as frugally as I spend my own money, and I make a supreme effort to do it.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, this is not the first time that that department has been investigated, is it?

Mr. Mooney: No, I guess not.

Chairman: Evidently we are not the only people who felt that we were not getting our money's worth.

Mr. Cronin: It hasn't been investigated since 1929.

Chairman: Well, what was that (indicating headlines in Boston Traveler)? In 1950 it was investigated, Mr. Cronin. That was the Traveler of May 17, 1950.

Mr. Cronin: That was water-proofing, one phase of the work, and they quit on that when we proved to them that they were wrong—and you quit, too.

Chairman: I wasn't on the committee. I wouldn't have quit that easily.

Mr. Cronin: Well, you did, and they all did.

Chairman: I wouldn't have quit that easily because I wasn't on the committee, and I still feel that that was a whitewash at the time.

Mr. Cronin: Well, it wasn't whitewash.

Mr. O'Connell: I would like to ask you why you think that?

Chairman: Because the buildings that were supposed to be water-proofed at that time were leaking just as badly afterward.

Mr. Mooney: Mrs. Lyons, you shouldn't make that statement, unless you know what you are saying because there isn't a single leak in a single school that was done under that program—and hasn't been since it was done, and I want that on the record.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would like to take issue with a statement that was made last year or two years ago I quit on something. That statement doesn't happen to be the truth, and I'd like it noted just that way.

Mr. Cronin: Well, somebody quit on it because there was nothing else done about it.

Chairman: You asked what the school was. It was the Patrick T. Campbell School on Lawrence Avenue, Dorchester. The city paid $15,750 to have the school building pointed and water-proofed last fall. That was the fall previous to May, 1950, so that was 1949, Coleman-Doyle was the bidder, and he got the job. That company got the job. Of course, somebody else came in and said the job was perfectly O. K.

Mr. O'Connell: Madam Chairman, as a concession to the shortness of life and to the letter which you sent out, let us restrict ourselves to 1952 and keep away from personalities. Let's get down to facts. Is there something else that is bothering you?

Chairman: We are getting down to the point where you people are objecting to some of the questions we are asking in the light of the fact that you feel there is no necessity. Well, evidently there have been—

Mr. O'Connell: During the course of my ordinary working day, I hear enough speeches. Now let's get some questions and answers.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would like, if I may, to get on to some specific situations, and I am afraid I am going to be met with some of these general speeches that objection has been raised about; but to come down to one specific situation—and I am not going to limit myself to 1952—

Mr. O'Connell: Well, do you want us to stay here all night?

Mr. Muchnick: We will stay here for weeks as far as I am concerned, gladly.

Mr. O'Connell: All right. Go ahead.

Mr. Muchnick: On the question of plastering how many different companies did plastering in schools in 1952?

Mr. Mooney: Two.

Mr. Muchnick: What companies were they?

Mr. Mooney: William L. Murray and P. Anastasia.

Mr. Muchnick: And how much work does P. Anastasia do?

Mr. Mooney: They do a very small amount of the total.

Mr. Muchnick: As much as $1,000?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know whether it was that much. I don't think it was much in excess of that.

Mr. Muchnick: And how much was done by Murray?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know. A sizable amount of work—say roughly $28,000 or $30,000 or something like that.

Mr. Muchnick: Wasn't it closer to $40,000 for the whole year?

Mr. Mooney: I doubt it.

Chairman: It was $38,000.

Mr. Muchnick: It was $38,000 as of the 1st of December, and there has been some done since.

Mr. Mooney: Is that on estimates, or is it actual? It does not matter. It will be approximately that.

Mr. Muchnick: It is $33,000 on the amount of the invoices through October 29.

Mr. Mooney: They run very consistently.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, they run exceptionally consistently. Estimate, $350; amount of invoice, $361; estimate, $980, invoice, $983; estimate, $155; invoice, $150; estimate, $235; invoice, $238; estimate, $590; invoice, $587; estimate, $980; invoice, $988.

Mr. O'Connell: Let's get back to the plastering.

Mr. Muchnick: That is the plastering. It is running pretty close together—either up or down one to five dollars.

Mr. Mooney: Still within about that same percentage of the whole, less than one-half of one per cent.

Mr. O'Connell: Yes, remarkably accurate.

I want to know why one person—and I think we can leave Anastasia his five or six or seven hundred dollars out of it—is the only one qualified to do the work; and as a corollary to that, why some of the jobs—and it is a great proportion—run $960, $980, and so forth down the line: $920, $880, $835, $965, $975, $980, $975, $790, $945, $790, $965—just under the $1,000 figure.

How come the rooms that we have to have plastered are just that square foot area that they come to $980 and $990 so frequently?

Mr. Mooney: That is about the cost of replacing a ceiling.

Mr. Muchnick: Of one ceiling?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. O'Connell: My bathroom cost me about $600.

Mr. Mooney: It involves re-nailing relathing.

Mr. Muchnick: And to replace one ceiling will cost just under a thousand dollars?

Mr. Mooney: That's right.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like an answer to the major part of the question—why one person?

Mr. Mooney: Why one person? Well, let me tell you that in my opinion that is the most serious type of business that we have to contend with. There is nothing as dangerous in a school as a sagging ceiling. It is something that cannot remain unattended. It is the dirtiest type of work that it is possible to conceive of in a school building.

To remove the plaster, it is necessary to barricade all openings in order to keep the dust from going through the building. Generally speaking, all this work is done during the school sessions over the period of the year.

We have tried over the years—my predecessor and his predecessor—to require the accomplishment of this work with the least possible annoyance and dirt to the occupants of the building, and it is my frank opinion that Mr. William L. Murray does the best job that is possible to do for the best price that is possible to get for that type of work, and I haven't seen any logical reason to change.

I realized just what you are saying, and on at least two and probably three occasions I did get another plasterer in to do the work; and the moment, or shortly after, that man started to work, the principal of the school is calling our department. They cannot tolerate that type of work while school is in session. It is a type of work that you could not let go.

Mr. Muchnick: All right, Mr. Murray is the only clean plasterer in Boston?

Mr. Mooney: There may be a hundred others. If you know of them, send them down to me. I don't go looking for them.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, Mr. Mooney, did you use only Mr. Murray in 1951?

Mr. Mooney: Well, the bulk of it in 1951.

Mr. Muchnick: The others were no good?

Mr. Mooney: No, the same thing.

Mr. Muchnick: How about 1950?

Mr. Mooney: Approximately the same thing, I would say.

Mr. Muchnick: Then you didn't inherit just the William L. Murray Company?

Mr. Mooney: No, I inherited those who were listed in those years.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, how many were there when you first came on the job?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know that I can remember those names.

Mr. Cronin: We haven't got the records. They are down at Norman st.

Mr. Mooney: I have called other plasterers in. I will give you an instance of one. Frankly I don't know the name.

Mr. Muchnick: Does Mr. Murray do work for other city departments?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know much about Mr. Murray. I presume he does. I don't know.

Mr. Muchnick: Does he do work throughout the city, or does he concentrate primarily on our work?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know that, frankly.

Mr. Muchnick: Where is his place of business?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know his business address without checking the records.

Mr. O'Connell: They are all down at Norman Street.

Mr. Muchnick: He operates from his house, does he?

Mr. Mooney: I am inclined to think he does, yes. I think that is his office.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, in his house. Now, do you want us to feel that of all the plastering companies in and around Boston, Murray is the only one who is qualified to do our work in the schools?

Mr. Mooney: I want you to believe that he is the best one.

Mr. Muchnick: And is that why—

Mr. Mooney: He has been working in the schools since 1926, and I think it is reasonable to say he has done the bulk of plastering work in the schools since 1926, and the reason he has done the work since 1926 is on account of his performance and satisfaction.

Mr. Muchnick: And he gets jobs of over a thousand dollars without bid as well, doesn't he?

Mr. Mooney: He got an emergency job of over a thousand dollars this year at the little school in the South End.

Mr. O'Connell: Is that the school that is all falling apart?

Mr. Mooney: I know that the ceiling was 138 years old, and it was the original ceiling.

Mr. Muchnick: Is that the Alcott?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, isn't that type of situation something that your inspectors should catch in their trips around—the sagging ceiling and the potential falling?

Mr. Mooney: I am glad you brought that question up, Mr. Muchnick. You grant that we do a vast amount of work every year—a tremendous amount of work?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Mr. Mooney: To inspect this work, you would be amazed. It is very interesting. I am glad you asked me that question.

Mr. Muchnick: You have ten or twenty people to do the inspecting?

Mr. Mooney: Wait a minute now. In our system, Mr. Muchnick, we have approximately 3800 classrooms, 23 libraries, 11½ assembly halls, 63 gymnasiums, 226 boiler rooms, for a total of 4278 rooms, exclusive of offices, shops, laboratories, storerooms, lobbies, corridors, coal storage rooms, tunnels, etc.

Mr. Muchnick: All right. We have areas that total maybe seven or eight thousand.

Mr. Mooney: More than that.

Mr. Muchnick: Ten thousand separated areas in 230 buildings.

Mr. Mooney: Now, to inspect these premises, which I call a tremendous plant which is probably the largest any place in New England, valued at approximately $75,000,000 or $78,000,000—and, as you know, occupied by 92,000 school children going in and out, subject to much wear and tear—

Mr. Muchnick: A tremendous project. Now, how many people?

Mr. Mooney: I have two deputy superintendents of construction, and they are part time in and part time out. I have three heating inspectors, and there are 226 boiler rooms and there are probably in excess of 400 boilers. I don't know.

I have three plumbing inspectors, nine electrical inspectors, eight school buildings inspectors, three civil engineers and two roofing inspectors; thirty inspectors including the two deputies.

Obviously, twenty-eight inspectors could not possibly make all the inspections necessary to process the 9278 orders.

Mr. O'Connell: These men keep daily logs, don't they?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: You have eight school building inspectors?

Mr. Mooney: I have eight school building inspectors.

Mr. Muchnick: That is for things like plastering and painting and so forth?

Mr. Mooney: Yes, and each of those men has approximately thirty to forty buildings to cover.

Mr. Muchnick: About thirty.

Mr. Mooney: Now, he has to inspect every phase of that building with the exception of the mechanical installation and the roofing.

Mr. Muchnick: He has thirty buildings to inspect?

Mr. Mooney: Thirty to forty, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: And when he goes into a building, he can tell without making tests whether the building needs paint or doesn't need paint?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: He just has to look at it?

Mr. Mooney: That is a superficial examination.

Mr. Muchnick: And he can tell by looking at it if the ceiling is sagging?

Mr. Mooney: Not in all instances.

Mr. Muchnick: Not in all, but in many?

Mr. Mooney: In some, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: And when something becomes saggy enough to be an emergency, you can tell by looking at it, can't you?

Mr. Mooney: When it becomes that way—yes, if it sags sufficiently. I would say generally speaking yes.

Mr. O'Connell: But superimposed on that is the custodian who is supposed to report that and the principal and the school teacher in the room?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, so that he has assistant inspectors working for him for all practical purposes.

Mr. O'Connell: I guess you would call them that, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: And still we let things run to the point where it becomes emergency?

Mr. Mooney: No.

Mr. Muchnick: And so that we have to give out contracts in excess of a thousand dollars without advertising?

Mr. Mooney: That happened once.

Mr. Muchnick: Had that school been reported to you at all?

Mr. Mooney: No, that happened very suddenly—so much so that I had to ask one of our deputies to go there, and he immediately ordered the room vacated. That was a serious proposition.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, let's leave plastering for a minute.

Mr. O'Connell: How many inspections were made last year by these inspectors of ours?

Mr. Mooney: From their daily logs, the total number of inspections made last year was 40,514, which means a pretty good coverage of our work.

Mr. Muchnick: Last year—a little less than a year ago—your department put some shelving in at Myrtle Street?

Mr. Mooney: Maybe.

Mr. O'Connell: What was the requisition number?

Mr. Muchnick: There wasn't any, so far as I have been able to find. There was some shelving put in the Department of Investigation and Measurement. Do you have any recollection of that at all?

Mr. Mooney: Yes. I think that was a C item.

Mr. Muchnick: What do you mean by a C item.

Mr. McMackin: Can I help on that, Mr. Muchnick? That was a 1951 job. Dr. Gillis and I went down to the Department of Investigation and Measurement in 1951. It was taken care of out of Item C in 1951.

Mr. Muchnick: It was paid for in 1952.

Mr. McMackin: I don't know about that.

Mr. Muchnick: And done in 1952—sometime in April, I think it was.

Mr. McMackin: We did send a requisition for it, but it was a 1951 job, as I recall it.

Mr. Muchnick: How many feet of lumber were there in there, do you know?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know.

Mr. Cronin: Those records are at Norman street.

Mr. O'Connell: By the way, I think that this is germane to your line of questioning. I want Mr. Mooney to expand on it. We have down there a collection of items which are taken out of stripped schools, and apparently the public does not know the conservation and the saving of money to the voters and the taxpayers, and I want Mr. Mooney to explain the system to you for the purpose of the record.

Will you explain that?

Mr. Muchnick: Would you object if we stayed for the moment on the problem we are discussing? Remember what you said before about speeches?

Have you any idea how much, roughly, was spent on putting those shelves in?

Mr. O'Connell: The records are at Norman st.

Mr. Muchnick: No, some of the records are here.

Mr. Cronin: No.

Mr. Muchnick: Do you recall whether any of that work had to be redone because it was improperly done, Jim?

Mr. Mooney: No, I have no knowledge of that. Wait a minute. Is that Miss Mary Cummings' office?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, that is. Does that strike a responsive chord?

Mr. Mooney: Yes, it does.

Mr. Muchnick: All right. Will you tell us what happened on that?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know what happened on it other than the initial installation was not changed because it was not properly done but it was such, if I get the story correctly, that she called me and they had to keep stooping over to place their records in the files or something, and they wanted them elevated.

As she explained, I don't know whether they are ledgers or what they are, but they are pretty heavy articles stored in a sort of cupboard that was built from the floor up; and it did not work out to her satisfaction, and she wanted them elevated to a height so that they could stand and put them in while in a standing position.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, wasn't that something that you would know about before it was built?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know what the requisition called for.

Mr. Muchnick: Don't you know what the shelves were?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know personally.

Mr. Cronin: There must have been a requisition for that. What did that requisition call for?

Mr. Muchnick: I have just learned that there was a requisition in 1951.

Mr. O'Connell: That is down at Norman Street.

Mr. Muchnick: Wasn't that ordinary shelving that was put in there, Jim?

Mr. Mooney: I did not see the job personally, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, is the inspector here who saw the job and had charge of that job?

Mr. Mooney: Well, yes—Mr. Delaney, the architect. I think, can throw some light on that.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, let's have some light thrown on it.

Mr. Mooney: Would you mind stepping over here? This is Mr. Raymond Delaney, Department of School Buildings. Ray, could you answer some questions, please, for Mr. Muchnick?

Mr. Delaney: Yes, sir.

Mr. Muchnick: Could you tell us the story about that job?

Mr. Delaney: Yes, I can. As was stated, it was in the C section of the budget.

Mr. O'Connell: I think for the purpose of the record you ought to tell what the C section is.

Mr. Delaney: The C section is major educational items.

Mr. Mooney: That are directed from this department.

Mr. Delaney: Yes, they are specific amounts that are given for specific jobs.

Mr. Muchnick: How much was the amount on this job?

Mr. Delaney: That is quite a long while ago. I can't say off-hand. I really cannot. I have the records, but I haven't them here, naturally.

However, I went over that with Mr. Muchnick. I think he will bear me out on this. It was during the summer vacation, and there was nobody there, but Charlie had talked it over with whoever was in charge, and she wanted certain shelving placed in this room to store various blanks that we're at that time all over the corridor.

Well, I went over it with him. Because of the structure of the building, we could not put a tremendous load, so we had to confine it to a certain area so that it would not overload the structure of the building.

Then we went down there, and we decided what we could put in there without overloading it, and we built the shelving accordingly.

Mr. Muchnick: How many feet of lumber?

Mr. Delaney: That I can't say. I can't even say whether it was an invitation bid or not. I really cannot at the present time.

Mr. Muchnick: It went over a thousand dollars, didn't it?

Mr. Delaney: Well, if it went over a thousand dollars, it was on an open public bid.

Mr. Muchnick: Was it the average length and width of an ordinary shelf?

Mr. Delaney: I would say so, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Couldn't you have gotten steel shelving for about twenty per cent. of the cost?

Mr. Delaney: I don't think so, no, sir.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. McMackin, do you remember how much the shelving went for?

Mr. McMackin: No, I don't, Mr. Muchnick, but I can find it out in three or four minutes.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, would you? And I think you can find out how many running feet of lumber there were, too. Now, how much did it cost to redo the job?

Mr. Delaney: I had nothing to do with that aspect of it at all. I know there was some fault found because of the fact that they did not want to stoop down to put records on the shelves that we had made.

Mr. Muchnick: So that, who had anything to do with redoing the job? Doesn't that have to come through your department?

Mr. Delaney: Not necessarily, no, sir.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, through whose department can it come other than yours?

Mr. Delaney: I might say this—that the major number of jobs that I do are the C item jobs. I have very little of the general run of repairs.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, when does this stop being a C item job?

Mr. Delaney: When? When the work that was originally called for on the pink slip that came down to us is finished.

Mr. Muchnick: And who would know about it then, Mr. Mooney, when it had to be fixed up?

Mr. Mooney: The district inspector.

Mr. Muchnick: Is that district inspector here? Would there be a second requisition?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Delaney: And two separate payments?

Mr. Delaney: You mean the second part of it?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Mr. Delaney: I don't know to what extent the amount of the bill ran, but I should not say that there would be two payments on a small job which I think was the additional amount that was done.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Mooney, would you remember whether that would call for a separate type of payment, in view of the fact that it is not any longer a C item.

Mr. Mooney: It would call for a separate payment.

Mr. Muchnick: So if it costs $1100 under a C item and then had to be fixed, it would cost an additional sum above and beyond the initial sum?

Mr. Mooney: They were two separate and distinct jobs.

Mr. Delaney: I would like to add one thing that it might be well for you to know. I do know that there was a second job done. I did not have anything to do with it.

I think, as I remember it, I was consulted about it, and I stated my views this way—that if they were going to raise that shelving, the shelving that was there then would of necessity have to be closed up, because if they used all of the shelving, both the bottom and the top, it would overload that floor to the extent that the floor and the ceiling could very well drop.

That was the only part that I had to do with it, but I did insist that they could not use both the upper part and the lower part for the storage of heavy paper stock, which is what it amounted to.

Mr. Muchnick: They could easily have eliminated the bottom shelf instead of boarding it up.

Mr. Delaney: They may have. I don't say that they did not. I didn't have anything to do with that, and it is quite possible that they did that.

Mr. Muchnick: We will have that figure there.

Mr. O'Connell: What is the amount of controversy here?

Mr. Muchnick: The amount of controversy is not as important, as I see, as the principle of controversy. Here is a job that was done, costing in excess of a thousand dollars, done in the absence of the people who wanted a special purpose job done for certain material's storage.

It had to be done over—or it had to be corrected—not done over; and the whole job could have been done for twenty per cent of the cost by just going out to the average equipment place and buying some steel shelves that would have lasted much longer, and would be usable again in any other area in the School Department if we wanted to do it.

Mr. O'Connell: Why weren't we asked to bring those records? Now we would have the whole answer for you instead of talk, talk, talk.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. O'Connell, we assumed this, being people of better-than-average intelligence, you would bring the records of the year's proceedings, so that we would be able to talk in specifics rather than in generalities.

Mr. O'Connell: And it would cost the City hundreds of dollars to truck those up here while you might have come down to our headquarters and have the records there easily obtainable with a saving of much time.

Mr. Muchnick: On the question of cost of several hundreds of dollars for trucking, judging by the way payments were made for other things, your estimate is probably correct. For what might have been a couple of briefcases carried over. I think you would have paid several hundred dollars for trucking!

Mr. O'Connell: Why don't you truck your stuff down there yourself?

Mr. Muchnick: While we are waiting for that figure, Mr. McMackin, let's go into the question of trucking. On the question of trucking, we have one truck company that does all our delivering and odd jobs. Now, Mr. Mooney, (can you tell me what was done—did you get that, Mr. McMackin?)

Mr. Delaney: I have it here. Mr. Muchnick: We will go on to the trucking later.

Mr. Delaney: Now, in the first place—

Mr. Muchnick: What is the date of that?

Mr. Delaney: The date of the slip that came down was October 23, 1951.

Mr. Muchnick: And what is the date the work was done?

Mr. Delaney: I can't say. I am not going to try to wrack my brain, but the bid came in on public bidding.

Mr. McMackin just informed me that there were fifty-two feet of shelving and one horizontal projection. There were two layers of shelves. Besides that, there were some other things that were done.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, how many linear feet of shelving were there?

Mr. Delaney: From what Mr. McMackin tells me, of this large counter size there were fifty-two feet.

Mr. Muchnick: A total of fifty-two feet?

Mr. Delaney: That is right.

Mr. Muchnick: I assume ordinary shelving wood was used?

Mr. Delaney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: What does it cost a linear foot for the lumber?

Mr. Delaney: Well, the average lumber that they use runs anywhere from 14 to 18 or 20 cents a square foot.

Mr. Muchnick: So let's call it 18 cents a square foot. How much would 52 feet cost us?

Mr. Delaney: Well, you have to figure more than 52 feet. You cannot figure just so much shelving. You have backing, you have partitions.

Mr. Muchnick: For the shelving and the partitions and anything else that went into that job, what is the material cost?

Mr. Cronin: And the material. Mr. Muchnick: The material cost. Let's take them one at a time.

Mr. Delaney: This is going to take some figuring to do that. In fairness to me, you cannot expect me to figure a job in five minutes that takes a man a week to figure.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, did you figure this job before it was put in?

Mr. Delaney: I estimated it before, yes, sir.

Mr. Muchnick: Did you estimate that it would take 52 feet?

Mr. Delaney: I don't know what I estimated. When I do a job, after thirty years I come pretty nearly knowing what most things cost; and when I figure shelving like this, I don't figure the shelving costs me eighteen cents a foot. I figure on the height and length. Some will cost you five cents a linear foot; some will cost you ten; some will cost you twenty.

Mr. Muchnick: Some what?

Mr. Delaney: Some shelving, depending on the height, the depth and everything else.

Mr. Muchnick: You have that in front of you?

Mr. Delaney: I have it in front of me now, yes. It is two feet wide to begin with.

Mr. Muchnick: All right, that is 100 linear feet.

Mr. Delaney: Times three shelves.

Mr. Muchnick: That is 300 linear feet.

Mr. Delaney: All right.

Mr. Muchnick: So you have a $60 material cost.

Mr. Delaney: There is fabricating. There are removals. There was a plywood partition put in a storeroom that was there. There was a private office that was enclosed from seven feet six inches up to the ceiling.

Mr. Mooney: It was competitive bidding, wasn't it?

Mr. Delaney: It was a competitive public bid. We put it out publicly to anybody in the city.

Mr. Muchnick: No question about it. How much does it cost to put that up? If you were in the business, how much would you put on the job?

Mr. Delaney: I would have sit down and figure it. I cannot figure it in five minutes. If you are asked to give your opinion on a court case, you don't say with a snap judgment like that: "You can do this." You have to look up the law.

Mr. Muchnick: I have to look at the retainers!

Mr. Delaney: Well, there is something in that, only you are fortunate. We don't get retainers.

Mr. Muchnick: You get one every week.

Mr. O'Connell: The Court tells you what case is going on trial. You have a trial list.

Mr. Delaney: Yes, and you can look up on the records and see a similar case.

Mr. Muchnick: There seems to be a little lack of desire to let us know what it would normally cost to put in the kind of shelving that they had there.

Mr. O'Connell: I think that is unfair. If your thirst for that knowledge was so great, the least you could have done was to call up and say, "Bring up the records of such-and-such."

Mr. Mooney: Might I interrupt and say that in this particular instance you should know the cost. The low cost to the City of Boston was the result of competitive bids. I don't know how many, but it doesn't make any difference. That is the lowest cost that any contractor in the City of Boston who saw fit to bid on that work presented.

Mr. Muchnick: Who drew those plans?

Mr. Delaney: One of my men under my jurisdiction.

Mr. Muchnick: Did he consult with Miss Cummings before he drew them?

Mr. Delaney: To the best of my knowledge he did.

Mr. Muchnick: And nobody got the point that you would have to bend over to put heavy bundles in and take heavy bundles out until after it was built?

Mr. Delaney: That I am not going to say. It is a little while back. I can remember the instance, but I cannot say that any specific mention of that fact was made.

Mr. Muchnick: How much of an office was built up?

Mr. Delaney: Approximately twenty linear feet.

Mr. Muchnick: And how many feet high?

Mr. Delaney: I would say about nine feet.

Mr. Muchnick: Plywood.

Mr. Delaney: I think it was Celotex.

Mr. Muchnick: Is that an expensive material—Celotex?

Mr. Delaney: No.

Mr. Muchnick: Is it difficult to put up once it is cut to size?

Mr. Delaney: No.

Mr. Muchnick: How much is that worth by itself, to you or a carpenter or builder, or whoever does that kind of work.

Mr. Delaney: Well, you have studding to put up.

Mr. Muchnick: The whole business from beginning to end—how tough a job is it? Does it take a man a day?

Mr. Delaney: I would say it would take probably two men a day, maybe more.

Mr. Muchnick: All right. What is it worth?

Mr. Delaney: A carpenter, to the best of my knowledge, gets $26 a day.

Mr. Muchnick: And $75 worth of labor cost?

Mr. O'Connell: These are the labor costs at that time.

Mr. Delaney: I can't say. I think it might be fair to say that it would take two men two days.

Mr. Muchnick: $100 labor cost?

Mr. Delaney: Making a $100 labor cost.

Mr. Muchnick: How much are the material costs?

Mr. Delaney: Maybe $50 or something in that neighborhood.

Mr. Muchnick: $50 all together for that job?

Mr. Delaney: In the vicinity of $200, I would say. I beg your pardon.

Mr. Muchnick: $150?

Mr. Delaney: $150.

Mr. Muchnick: Other than that you have the shelving job?

Mr. Delaney: We had some shelving, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: And the shelving job, you say, went for $1000?

Mr. Delaney: I don't know.

Mr. Muchnick: On the material, I mean.

Mr. Delaney: On the entire material it is $1488.

Mr. Muchnick: $1488.

Mr. Delaney: That is marked here. I don't know where the figure came here, or anything else.

Mr. Muchnick: It came from the Auditor's office.

Mr. Delaney: Well, the figure on here, from the specification that Mr. McMackin just gave me, the amount is $1488. Now, whether that is the sum of it, I can't say.

Mr. Muchnick: I think it is

Mr. Delaney: Well, it could be.

Mr. O'Connell: What are we looking up to?

Mr. Muchnick: The purpose is to find out how much the shelving itself costs, and I think you will find that the shelving, other than that room, stood the City better than $1200, and you could have bought new shelving for less than $300.

Mr. Delaney: I don't think so. You have a partition in here that would go twelve feet by six feet. You have the painting of that all. There are removals of cabinets.

Mr. Muchnick: All that, other than the partitions—

Mr. O'Connell: There is a transportation cost, too, isn't there?

Mr. Cronin: Yes, on competitive bid.

Mr. Muchnick: If there is, there shouldn't. Transported what?

Mr. O'Connell: You will find it there.

Mr. Muchnick: That is what carpenters do. The people who do the job bring the materials and the workmen, as a rule.

Mr. O'Connell: If we only had the records here, we could tell.

Mr. Mooney: We would not have a breakdown of that job, whether we had the records or not. That is a competitive bid, based on that drawing and a specification. We have no knowledge of how each individual bidder figured it.

Mr. Muchnick: Doesn't your inspector give you an idea as to how much it would cost?

Mr. Delaney: Yes, and that record is down there, and that record being because it would be in the budget.

Mr. O'Connell: If this meeting was only down at Norman Street, we could get it.

Mr. Muchnick: I think you have made that point already, Joe, several times.

Mr. O'Connell: I am going to keep on making it.

Mr. Delaney: We would also have down there the number of contractors who bid.

Mr. O'Connell: I don't want the people to think that we have left the stuff down there, and are trying to mislead fellows like you.

Mr. Muchnick: I think the people can form their own conclusions.

Mr. O'Connell: Well, I am going to help them to.

Mr. Muchnick: I think you already have, Joe.

Mr. O'Connell: Thank you, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Delaney: We would also have down there in the records the number of contractors who bid on this and the range in the price. I would say that the least that would have been bid on it would be six. That would be the least, probably, which all goes to show also that with all these contractors floating around, we get but seven to ten bids on public work.

Now, if all these fellows are looking so much for work, why is it they don't come in and bid this stuff?

Chairman: May I answer that?

Mr. Delaney: Yes, ma'm.

Chairman: Because some feel it is a terrific waste of time to figure these bids because they are not going to get it.

Mr. Mooney: That is absolutely not so.

Mr. O'Connell: Whoever told you that?

Mr. Mooney: Every single bid without exception has been awarded to the lowest bidder.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, there is such a thing in the law as the lowest qualified bidder.

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: It is not just the lowest bidder, Mr. Mooney.

Mr. Mooney: Well, all right—the lowest qualified bidder.

Mr. Muchnick: As far as I am concerned from what I know of the situation, Mrs. Lyons' observation is a very sensible one. There are many of these lowest bidders who somehow or other suddenly become unqualified, and therefore disqualified.

Mr. O'Connell: May we call for proof, names and the proof?

Mr. Muchnick: I think—

Mr. O'Connell: Just one or two names will be all right.

Mr. Cronin: Sure.

Mr. Mooney: I don't know.

Mr. Delaney: I don't remember one single incident where a public bid has come in that the contractor has been turned down.

Mr. Mooney: No, I don't know of a single one either. I don't know of a single invitation bid that was not awarded to the lowest bidder.

Mr. O'Connell: If you know who any of these contractors are, send them down and we will hold their hands for a while and give them a chance to bid.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, speaking of bids, is every job over $1000 bid?

Mr. Mooney: Practically every one.

Chairman: Well, there was an item here for replacement of corroded structural steel with the National Waterproofing Company in the Trade High School for Girls. It was $15,000. That was not bid.

Mr. Mooney: No, that was not bid. That is one reason that I would like to corroborate what Mr. O'Connell has said and ask you folks to please visit my office.

I have thirty-seven specimens of corroded steel such that if you were in my position as an engineer, you wouldn't sleep that night until you got it corrected.

I think that can be substantiated by a gentleman who is right here.

Mr. Muchnick: How come it went that long?

Mr. Mooney: A quarter-inch thick in its workable shape, it was 7/8ths-inch thick by lamination of corrosion. It couldn't support this inkwell in a foot span. That is as true as I sit here. That called for immediate action right away because it supported a chimney five stories high plus—

Mr. Muchnick: How did you find it out?

Mr. Mooney: My inspector found it out.

Mr. Muchnick: And is that something that happened overnight?

Mr. Mooney: Yes, it happened overnight?

Chairman: Does steel corrode overnight?

Mr. Mooney: No, the exposure of it. This is all encased in concrete. The action is concealed, and all of a sudden it goes.

Chairman: Why does the National Waterproofing take on a steel job? I thought that was their particular type of work.

Mr. Mooney: They have been steel contractors for years.

Chairman: Who are the National Waterproofing?

Mr. O'Connell: A Massachusetts corporation duly authorized under the statute to do business in Massachusetts.

Mr. Mooney: That is Henry Shields.

Chairman: That is Henry Shields. Did Henry Shields testify during this probe here?

Mr. Mooney: Yes, Henry Shields did very definitely.

Mr. Muchnick: Was he the one who said two years ago that the waterproofing jobs were all properly done?

Mr. Mooney: Yes, he is the man.

Mr. Muchnick: And had he done any of the waterproofing jobs back two years ago?

Mr. Mooney: No.

Mr. Muchnick: For pointing, and so forth?

Mr. Mooney: No. He has done work for the Department for twenty-five years but he did not do any of those, no.

Mr. Muchnick: If the work had been done so well a couple of years back and he had not been doing work for years but was merely called in as an expert to check the other, and had given them all a clean bill of health why didn't you call one of the other people to do the emergency work?

Mr. Mooney: I was on the spot, Mr. Muchnick. I was accused of doing something wrong, which I did not do, and I got the best men available by education and experience—a man who is a graduate of M.I.T. and Harvard Engineering Schools, not only with a Bachelor of Engineering degree but a Master of Engineering degree at both schools plus forty-five years' experience in the trade.

I had to do that to protect myself because people who did not know the circumstances or did not know construction were accusing me.

Mr. O'Connell: Just another case of loose talk without anything to back it up.

Mr. Mooney: Well, it wasn't all loose talk.

Chairman: Mr. O'Connell, I don't believe that remark is pertinent to this at all. I think a $15,000 job that is not advertised certainly needs an explanation.

Mr. O'Connell: Well, we have it right here. Ask the questions and we will give you answers.

Chairman: Well, I wish you would refrain from making remarks like that.

Mr. O'Connell: We haven't got the records. If you come down to Norman Street we have all the records and we will be glad to take it up at any time.

Chairman: I think Mr. Mooney is doing a pretty good job without records.

Mr. O'Connell: As Al Smith said, "You have to look at the record." It is impossible to bring these records up without great cost and inconvenience.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, on this idea of split contracts—

Mr. Mooney: That is another one I am glad you brought up.

Mr. O'Connell: Before we get talking about that, what is a split contract, Mrs. Lyons?

Mr. Mooney: Yes, what is a split contract, in your opinion?

Chairman: My opinion is that if a contract is over $1000 it should be advertised. If a job is to be done—a painting job, a plumbing job—and they are all to be given out on the same day, the cheapest way of getting that work done is by contract and by advertising—and not necessarily in the same building at all. Why the same building? What difference does it make, if it is painting, whether John Smith's trucks go to one school or another? If he is going to buy paint and buy supplies and use labor, what difference does it make what school he goes to?

Mr. Mooney: It probably doesn't make any difference, but I am just trying to get from you what you consider a split contract, because I want to tell you very frankly at this moment that I do not know personally of a single instance where we intentionally split a contract or we inadvertently split a contract.

Chairman: May I show you one?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Chairman: On the record here—Mr. Muchnick: Why don't you look at the safety hooks out here? Remember three years ago how that was split into three contracts?

Mr. Mooney: No, I don't.

Mr. Muchnick: The carpentry work, the painting work, and the drilling of the holes, and it was done over a week-end in three separate parts.

Mr. Mooney: No, the hooks were applied—

Mr. Muchnick: And the painting part of it and the carpentry part were separate contracts.

Mr. Mooney: No.

Mr. O'Connell: Who was the contractor?

Mr. Muchnick: I don't know who the contractor was.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, Carl Rumph is one of the five men, I think it is, or six men that we have refinishing furniture. On the very same day, on July 14th, he received three separate contracts—one of $410, one of $695, and one of $430, in three different schools, amounting to $1595 total.

The same day John Lill, who is one of the men who also does this, received work. There are only six. Doesn't someone in there have a brother working in your department, too—Hingston, someone who does that work?

Mr. Mooney: His son.

Chairman: His son works in the department and he received $19,000 worth of work last year.

Mr. O'Connell: We are talking about split contracts.

Chairman: We are talking about split contracts.

Mr. O'Connell: Is that $19,000 a split contract?

Mr. Mooney: No, that was his total for the year.

Chairman: On that same day this John Lill received three distinct contracts: $585, $435, and $625—all the same day, July 14th, to the tune of $1645.

Mr. O'Connell: Was he the low bidder?

Chairman: That one right there. Then there were two more for Hingston given on the same day for $1360—$860 for one and $500 for the other.

Now, if one man has a painting contract, it would seem to me that it could be drawn up and advertised. One man with three distinct contracts given to him in one day—if that isn't evading the law, I don't know what is.

Mr. Mooney: What you say may be so as it relates to furniture refinishing but in my opinion, Mrs. Lyons, I cannot conceive of furniture refinishing being advertised, and it never was in the history of the department, and I want to give you a reason why.

Our inspectors go out and determine what amount of furniture in a room or in a building should be done, and we issue an order to have it done. If we let a job hold for three or four days—well, we would have to give them more time to figure it. Say six days, that is a normal time to get a bid in.

The amount of work necessary at the expiration of the period of time taken to figure that work would be no more like what we recorded in our original specifications to figure than—well, it just wouldn't be the same, and I cite these instances.

I tried to do that two years ago, and I sent Mr. O'Flaherty, one of my deputies, up to English High School to list with an inspector all the furniture that needed to be done, and we sent it out.

We got the bid in. No—before the bids were to come in, I think we gave them six or eight days or something like that to formulate their bids—to go up to the job. In order to give an intelligent figure, they had to go around and make the inspection.

Now, I am just saying this from recollection, it is quite some time ago, but it does form a principle of the way we do it.

As I remember, the original amount of furniture that Mr. O'Flaherty and the inspector had in mind as necessary to do was about $1600 worth of work. By the time the bids were to be delivered to my office in the same building, in the same rooms the amount of furniture that then was required would cost about $1500 more to do.

Chairman: What happened?

Mr. Mooney: Well, frankly, they break it faster than we can supply it. I can honestly say that as of tonight if there were 600 pieces to be repaired and refurnished in a particular school—and I sent it out for bids and waited for ten days to get my bid in—that same 600 figure would probably be 1200 or 1400 or 1500.

Chairman: The inspectors must have gone out and looked at it. The estimate on one was $435, and the amount of the invoice was $430—$5 less.

Mr. Mooney: And the City saved a lot of money that way because that man is supposed to go out when he gets that order. It is probably the day following an inspection, and whether there has been any added to it or not, we hold him to that figure, and yet he has to do more work than originally expected.

Chairman: How much would it ordinarily cost to refinish the desks in one classroom—in a room that would hold thirty-five children?

Mr. Mooney: I think one of the men could answer that better than I can.

Mr. Delaney: A dollar to a dollar and a half a unit.

Chairman: A dollar to a dollar and a half?

Mr. Mooney: A dollar to a dollar and a half.

Dr. Foley: About $50.

Mr. Mooney: It is all according to the room.

Chairman: Well, that still does not seem to satisfy me, Mr. Mooney.

Mr. Mooney: I am sorry I cannot give you a better estimate.

Chairman: Not on that, but on the point that the same man on the same day receives $1500 and $1600 worth of work; and I think if we wanted to get a little less expensive—

Mr. Mooney: You heard me say before that the City is divided into districts and each man has so many schools under his jurisdiction.

Probably if you have analyzed those locations it might involve two in one inspector's district, three or four in another man's district, and five or six in another man's district. Now, mind you, one inspector is responsible under the penalty of perjury for the completion of the contract.

If I did as you have suggested or as you have in mind, I would probably involve three or four inspectors. In order to do that properly I would have to take an inspector off his district and say that I have bulked this all together. Probably he would get the figure. That would be the attempt or the effort—for the City of Boston; but I have to take the man off his district until that furniture work is all done. He would have to go out of his district, to so-and-so's district to acquire completion of this contract.

Chairman: Why wouldn't that be a better way of doing it?

Mr. Mooney: Well, it would be providing you give me a lot more inspectors. It might result that way. I doubt it. I don't think furniture can be done for much less than we do.

Chairman: Why do we have all these inspectors? Isn't a firm that is a reputable firm to be trusted if they are to be given a certain type of work?

Mr. Mooney: That is why I have this list that I don't like to increase or decrease.

Chairman: Oh, I know, Mr. Mooney, but there are over a hundred concerns that refinish furniture in Boston and we have the same ones — McCarthy, Hingsdon, Lill, Scallia, Rumpf, and Pearson, and one of them has a brother who works down there, and he is getting $20,000 worth of work.

Mr. Mooney: Mrs. Lyons, if you think there are some others, just give me a ring tomorrow. I will put them on.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, I don't know any others, but it would seem to me that these people, the other hundred in Boston, could never stay in business if they were so unreliable.

Mr. Mooney: I am not saying they are unreliable.

Chairman: I think that is quite a statement to make, regarding business people in Boston.

Mr. Mooney: They may be better than the ones we have. They may be better.

Chairman: I hope the newspaper men certainly will make an issue of this, so they may know that they are welcome to bid.

Mr. Mooney: Of course they are welcome to bid. Nobody has ever been denied the privilege of bidding.

Chairman: Let us go on to the roofing. We have 229 jobs—

Mr. Mooney: There has never been a person come to me and ask for work that I haven't allowed to bid.

Chairman: That is all right. Here is one here for the roofing.

The man who gets most of the work down there in this type of work under a thousand dollars is the John Hourihan Company and he has a brother who is an inspector down there.

Mr. Mooney: That is very true, very true.

Mr. Muchnick: On these desks, that are refinished, is that primarily the top of the desk?

Mr. Mooney: We have a regular specification for it, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: This job that costs a dollar or a dollar and a half?

Mr. Mooney: It is the washing of the box and so forth.

Mr. Muchnick: Is that where the wood has been gouged out by some youngster?

Mr. Mooney: Frequently, yes. Mr. Muchnick: Wouldn't it be better to replace those wooden tops with the plastic compound or mica, I think they call it?

Mr. Mooney: It has not worked out satisfactorily. We have tried it.

Mr. Muchnick: Has it necessitated as much repair work?

Mr. Mooney: No, it has not necessitated as much repair work.

Mr. Muchnick: Then what is unsatisfactory about it?

Mr. Mooney: Well, to start with, it costs about four or five times as much.

Mr. Muchnick: What is this four or five times—the original original cost?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know.

Mr. Muchnick: What is the original cost of the desk top?

Mr. Mooney: Of the desk top?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Mr. Delaney: A plastic top is worth about three or three and a half times more than a wood top in its original state.

Mr. Muchnick: Then two or three repair jobs would easily cover the cost.

Mr. Mooney: Oh, no, we would have to purchase new tops. It costs so much to resurface a top; but if you replace it with a plastic top that is another thing.

Mr. Muchnick: I mean on the new ones, what does the wooden top cost now?

Mr. Mooney: What does the wooden top cost?

Mr. Delaney: I don't know. I do know there is a variation of about three or three and a half between the wood and the plastic type.

Mr. Muchnick: What does a desk cost?

Mr. Mooney: About $22.

Mr. Muchnick: Chair and desk?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Then the wooden top by itself cannot be a major item in the cost.

Mr. Mooney: No. Well, in cost it isn't.

Mr. Muchnick: Let's go back from desks for a moment to the pointing. Why didn't you have the National Waterproofing do all those important jobs two years ago if they are the best in the field?

Mr. Mooney: They could not touch the prices. They figured them all, as far as I know.

Mr. Muchnick: The ones who did it were capable, competent people, weren't they?

Mr. Mooney: Generally speaking, they were, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: And you say they did a good job two years ago?

Mr. Mooney: I think they did an excellent job.

Mr. Muchnick: Then why didn't you call them in to this rush emergency job when they were capable and competent — any one of a number of them — and their prices were all below the National Company's?

Mr. Mooney: They are not in the same business.

Mr. Muchnick: Wasn't that a waterproofing job the same as the others?

Mr. Mooney: No, of course not—no. That was an engineering job, and a real one.

Mr. Muchnick: Do you remember getting a requisition last year to move some desks, furniture and equipment at 15 Beacon Street in various offices on the seventh and ninth floors? Do you remember that?

Mr. Mooney: No, I don't.

Mr. O'Connell: Those records would be down at Norman Street.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Superintendent, do you remember some work of moving furniture around on the seventh and eighth floors in this building last year?

Superintendent: No, I don't recall, Mr. Chairman. That operation takes place through Miss Reynolds and Miss May O'Brien.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, do you remember any like that being done, Miss Reynolds?

Secretary: No, I think it was longer than last year.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, when was it, do you remember?

Secretary: Mr. Halcy, you came up in 1948, didn't you?

Superintendent: Yes.

Secretary: It seems to me that it was shortly after that that we moved desks.

Mr. O'Connell: I move that go out as being in 1948 and not in 1952.

Mr. Muchnick: Supposing you move and it doesn't get seconded, and suppose we check from the records, Joe?

Mr. O'Connell: Down at Norman Street.

Mr. Muchnick: No, we will check from the records from the Auditor's office.

Mr. Mooney: What is your problem, Mr. Muchnick?

Mr. O'Connell: Why aren't they here now?

Mr. Muchnick: I don't have a problem at all, Mr. Mooney, but I do have a question. On January 16th and January 17th of 1952, there was paid to the P. A. Milan Company—or there wasn't paid on that date, but it was subsequently paid—for work done on those days at 15 Beacon Street: Transferring furniture in various offices of seventh and ninth floors, plus transferring some furniture and equipment in the building at 26 Norman Street, and the bill for January 16th is: Two men, sixteen hours each; and on the 17th it is: Two men eight hours each; and to me it seems a little queer that we have two men working sixteen hours each and then eight hours each on successive days.

Mr. O'Connell: My wife has been moving furniture ever since I got married.

Mr. Muehnick: Not at these prices, Joe!

Mr. O'Connell: At much higher prices!

Mr. Muehnick: Even you couldn't afford it, and I can't understand how neither the Superintendent nor the Secretary would recall such a major moving operation, that would take two men so many hours—at a cost, incidentally, of $91.

Mr. Mooney: To start with, the whole thing would have to be summed up into hours. That is an advertised contract at a rate that is posted in the D. P. U.

Mr. Muehnick: That has nothing to do with the number of hours.

Mr. Mooney: I am saying—until it gets down to a number of hours.

Mr. Muehnick: I don't know. Once again I haven't got the records.

Mr. O'Connell: Those records would be down at Norman Street.

Mr. Muehnick: Those records are also at the Auditor's office.

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. O'Connell: Why didn't you bring them up here?

Mr. Muehnick: It seems an awful lot of hours to pay people for moving furniture around on two floors in this building, particularly when we have custodians who are pretty able-bodied people.

Mr. Cronin: We have no control over custodians.

Mr. Mooney: No, we have not.

Mr. O'Connell: They are unionized.

Mr. Cronin: They are under your control, Mr. Muehnick.

Mr. Muehnick: Nobody has suggested that you have control over custodians or anything or anybody else. I merely make the observation that you have two men working sixteen hours each, thirty-two hours, and then two men working eight hours, sixteen hours, a total of forty-eight hours, on moving furniture around on the seventh and ninth floors in this building, and in part, on your building on Norman Street, just about a year ago, is an awful lot of men moving an awful lot of furniture.

Mr. O'Connell: What was the furniture?

Mr. Cronin: What did it consist of?

Mr. Muehnick: That is what I am trying to find out.

Mr. Cronin: We don't know.

Mr. O'Connell: Why didn't you get the record before you came up here?

Mr. Muehnick: I am looking at the Auditor's record.

Mr. O'Connell: Why didn't you ask us to bring it up here; or, better still, why don't you come down there and see it? This is the first time we have ever heard of this thing.

Mr. Muehnick: I assume that you would be interested enough in a full and frank discussion to bring records.

Mr. O'Connell: And if you were going to be full and frank, you would have come down to Norman Street where the records are, rather than trying to buffet Mr. Mooney here around with a lot of surprise questions.

Mr. Muehnick: I am not trying to buffet him.

Mr. O'Connell: You know the law. We have the form of interrogatories before trial, so that the issue is narrowed down when you go to court.

Mr. Muehnick: I don't know that we were having a trial. I thought we were having a discussion.

Mr. O'Connell: And before we discussed it, we usually let each other know what we are going to talk about, the subject matter.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I would like to ask your committee if we could digress a minute and out of deference to the press who, I think, might be instrumental in helping the system a great deal, I would like to place an order before your committee at this time, and that order reads:

"That the Boston School Committee go on record as being in favor of the message from His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to the Legislature today recommending that the Metropolitan District Commission acquire the Boston Arena either by eminent domain, purchase or gift; and to use the same for recreational purposes for the use of the Metropolitan area."

And he further ordered that a copy of the above order be dispatched to the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs, to whom the message was referred.

I think that if we go on record, it might add impetus to this bill which will result in retaining for the use of the Boston School pupils, the Boston Arena.

I would like to have that order acted on.

Chairman: Is there any objection?

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I am quite sure that the Committee certainly is in favor, and we certainly appreciate the action of the Governor with regard to the Boston Arena.

We did try to obtain the Boston Arena through Mr. Brown. We spoke to him some time ago but with the M. D. C. taking it over now I think it would be a step in the right direction and our schoolboy hockey probably will be continued, and I cannot see why we should not accept every consideration.

Chairman: Is there any objection to that?

Dr. Foley: This isn't Norman Street, is it? This is up at the Governor's office.

Mr. Muehnick: Madam Chairman, I don't particularly want to digress from the main subject that we are attempting to discuss here this evening. I do agree that we ought to pass this order but I would like to point out it being obvious that Dr. Foley is a little bit too modest in this situation, that it was he, if my recollection serves me correctly, who first proposed several months ago, that the Arena problem be tackled, and to be tackled in this manner; and I would just as soon have the record indicate whose idea this was first.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, do we have to vote on that order? It is not necessary is it?

Chairman: I think there are no objections.

Mr. Muehnick: Madam Chairman, may I get back to some other buildings?

Chairman: I think it would be a very nice gesture, too, to send a letter to the Governor commending him for this and expressing our gratitude to him for seeing that these youngsters have this facility.

Dr. Foley: How about the split contracts? Are we still on that?

Chairman: I still have a question on split contracts. Mr. Muehnick, did you by any chance find out how much it would cost to plaster a room the size of a classroom?

Mr. Muehnick: I have received several figures from seven or eight people and giving the dimensions. These people either had at one time been to school or had children in school and had seen schools, and their prices ran from sixty to seventy-five per cent of what we paid for total jobs—I mean complete plastering, not patch plastering.

Chairman: Does that include removing the old ceiling?

Mr. Muehnick: Yes.

Mr. O'Connell: I presume, Mr. Muehnick, that as a good lawyer, if you were to refute these costs, you would have these experts present at the hearing for questioning by our men.

Mr. Muehnick: I have never yet made any statement at any time, Joe, that I could not back up.

Mr. O'Connell: Those six or seven men should be here, or one or two of them, to discuss the matter with our men to see where they are off in price and quality. Are they here?

Mr. Muehnick: No, they are not here.

Mr. O'Connell: In other words, you have no evidence here to refute anything that has been loosely bruited about to challenge any figures that Mr. Mooney has presented to you?

Mr. Muehnick: You and I can quip and quibble all night, Joe, about what is loosely bruited about and what isn't loosely bruited about.

This isn't a trial, no matter how hard you may try to make it look like one, and you don't have to present evidence or anything else.

Mr. O'Connell: It is nice to be up here with you people. I like to talk to you very much and you are all nice and pleasant and so forth, but I have a wife and children at home, and this throws me off the meal schedule.

Mr. Muchnick: That is one of the prices one pays for public service.

Mr. O'Connell: We invited you down to Norman Street at eleven o'clock in the morning.

Dr. Foley: Does the Finance Commission check up on your plastering?

Mr. Mooney: Yes, they check up on all phases of our work.

Dr. Foley: On completion of work and so forth.

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. O'Connell: Isn't there supposed to be a representative of the Finance Commission here? Maybe he can tell us about it?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, back last October or November, we bought some miscellaneous furniture to the tune of $19,900 and something. What kind of miscellaneous furniture could you get for close to $20,000?

Mr. Cronin: You get what you order.

Mr. O'Connell: You get what you want and order.

Mr. Mooney: It is all set up.

Mr. Muchnick: Was that children's furniture or was that office furniture?

Mr. O'Connell: Wouldn't a copy of that requisition be here?

Mr. Mooney: It would be everything. Mr. McMackin has it.

Mr. Muchnick: How much did we buy by way of furniture during the course of this last year?

Mr. Mooney: This past year? I can give it to you approximately.

Mr. O'Connell: Not an approximate figure.

Mr. Cronin: We want facts.

Chairman: To get back to those split contracts again, here is another example of it. On July 1st, that Ralph Dixon received two contracts the same day, both on July 1st, one for $945 and one for $395, for electrical repairs. That is about $1600.

Mr. Mooney: Yes — two different locations and two different parts of the City.

Mr. Cronin: And two separate requisitions.

Chairman: I still can't see why that isn't splitting the contract. If we needed electrical repairs and we are going to give them to one man why his truck couldn't go to one school and then go to another school and do these jobs. I can't see that at all. If I own property, and I had an apartment house on one street that I wanted a man to fix up and I had an apartment house on another street, I certainly would not have two different contractors. I would get the cheapest price I could get and give all of the work, if it was painting or whatever it might be—if I was the same type of work—to one man.

Mr. O'Connell: You would give it to the lowest qualified man, wouldn't you?

Dr. Foley: Does organized labor come into your scheme of events?

Mr. Mooney: Very definitely.

Dr. Foley: Everybody is unionized?

Mr. Mooney: Wages are all based on the union scale. Our wages were so fair and reasonable that Mr. Fox, the city auditor, saw fit to use them for the entire city—every department in the city.

However, that all went out the window when the OPS came in. We had no more control of it, because every one of the men who do our business are registered with OPS, so that they are allowed the minimum or maximum or whatever it may be under OPS, on both their labor and their materials.

Dr. Foley: In other words, non-union firms can bid as long as they are under the OPS?

Mr. Mooney: I have never prevented them from doing so.

Chairman: Why was it, Mr. Mooney, two years ago, when that investigation was going on regarding the water-proofing that it says here: "Union leader not only says City treated but craftsmen as well"; and then they go on to say, Union craftsmen lost many days of work opportunities in the city. Taxpayers failed at the same time to get their money's worth on certain pointing and water-proofing jobs done in Boston."

Mr. Mooney: The answer to that is that I was obliged to use the low figure in the public bidding, and in some instances they were not union men or union contractors. However, I had to accept their figures.

Chairman: Well, it says here that "Successful low bidders failed to do the work for which they had contracted and were paid."

Mr. Mooney: Paid by their employers—not by us; paid by their employers.

Mr. O'Connell: Is there any way to get back to 1952? I have to get home.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, getting back to the furniture, Mr. Mooney, some time ago I had a person inquiring about furniture for the schools. It was not in our school system, but he told me of a problem they had on getting furniture for kindergartens. Do we have that same problem?

Mr. Mooney: Oh, yes. We have difficulty getting it.

Mr. Carr: Is it still hard to get?

Mr. Mooney: The market is lessening up, but there was a period of time when we could not get anything, and we have been repairing furniture and things like that in our storehouse.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, wasn't there a period of time that no one could get anything?

Mr. Mooney: I think so.

Chairman: Well, I think that since that time production has certainly increased to the extent that almost anything is available on the market now.

Mr. Mooney: From 1938 until within the last year or two we went without purchasing anything and it was a tremendous problem to keep the schools going. That is one of the reasons for those orders that you speak of, — to provide facilities. We had no place to move it from. We had to fix it up and keep it going and you cannot do that on an advertised bid.

Mr. O'Connell: Tell them about the storage of spare parts down there.

Mr. Mooney: Here is a good example that happened very recently in the Roxbury Memorial High School. It is within the last two weeks. Both oil burners went out of commission entirely. We couldn't heat the buildings. It was not necessary to dismiss classes as the temperature did not drop enough to cool the building off too much.

There we were confronted with a problem of putting those boilers in operation. We went to the manufacturer of the oil burner. It is a type that they discontinued making parts for many years ago.

These were the original boilers. It has been my practice and the practice of my department on my instruction to salvage everything you can salvage. Normally if you did it in your apartment house or anywhere else, the contractor would lug it off. He would take it as part of his bid.

However, they take it back to our storehouse, and fortunately within that day we were able to dig out from all this mass of material that we have there, sufficient parts to get that building in operation and that is good business.

Chairman: Yes, that is. I agree with you.

Mr. Carr: Mr. Mooney, if what you say on this shortage of elementary furniture or kindergarten furniture where you were forced to constantly repair and mend these things over that period of time is true, wouldn't that very easily create a backlog where at some time or other you would have to expend probably a lump sum?

Mr. Mooney: Yes, a lot of money to replenish it, yes.

Mr. Carr: Do you know whether that is why we have such a large item here now as put forth by one of the members?

Mr. Mooney: That is a relatively small item as it relates to furniture. Mr. Carr—a relatively small item.

Mr. O'Connell: Who else has a question? Mr. Muchnick, do you have a question?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes. On this $19,000 order, that wasn't split up in just one district the way you talk about an inspector for one district?

Mr. Muchnick: That is for the delivery of furniture, isn't it?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Mr. Mooney: There is no inspection involved in that?

Mr. Muchnick: Doesn't anybody inspect this furniture to see what we got for it?

Mr. Mooney: Or compliance, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, who does that? Does someone certify to you from each district?

Mr. Mooney: No, that is delivered to our storehouse and then sent out.

Mr. Muchnick: This furniture is delivered to the storehouse?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know that that particular order was. A lot of it is delivered to our storehouse.

Mr. Muchnick: Here is the order that says: "Name of school; work to be done; new furniture; South Boston High School," and so forth. Then, Girls' High School, and what has to go there.

Is that delivered to the storehouse first?

Mr. Mooney: Not unless it says so. It may be. We have carloads of it delivered to the storehouse.

Mr. Muchnick: Even when it is allocated for a specific school?

Mr. Mooney: Because we never know when it is going to arrive. The material may arrive six months after the contract is let and there are no facilities in the school to place it. We have to clear rooms out to put it in. It is not just a package delivery up there.

Mr. Muchnick: And you cannot load it in some space in the school?

Mr. Mooney: Well, in some schools we can't possibly do that—not without interfering with egress and putting it in corridors, which we would not do.

Mr. Muchnick: You have it taken to the storehouse?

Mr. Mooney: A lot of it is delivered in freight car lots to our storehouse.

Mr. Muchnick: And then it is taken from the storehouse?

Mr. Mooney: As called for in the different schools.

Mr. Muchnick: But where it is allocated for a specific school, you do not have to wait until it is called for? You know when it comes to Norman Street?

Mr. Mooney: It is all according to conditions. It might go to a school or it might come to our warehouse first and then be sent to the school.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, if it comes to your warehouse first, it is stored, handled and crated or uncrated, as the case may be?

Mr. Mooney: Then repacked, yes. It is not in crates.

Mr. Muchnick: What do you do then—empty a classroom?

Mr. Mooney: We have storage facilities at our place.

Mr. Muchnick: No—when you have to supply the Girls' High School with these twenty-four desks that were for Girls' High School, do you empty the classroom of the desks?

Mr. Mooney: If they are to be replaced by new furniture.

Mr. Muchnick: If they have to be replaced by new furniture?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: If at that time the new furniture is in your storehouse, then you take the desks out of the classroom?

Mr. Mooney: That's right.

Mr. Muchnick: And that is picked up by the transportation company and then that is brought back?

Mr. Mooney: That is brought back for repair and so forth.

Mr. Muchnick: When will the furniture then leave the storehouse and go to the school?

Mr. Mooney: Probably on the truck that brought the other thirty-two in.

Mr. Muchnick: So that a truck goes empty twice and full twice?

Mr. Mooney: Not necessarily. It could or could not. It is all according to the conditions.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, isn't it a little ridiculous to have the truck go empty even on one occasion?

Mr. O'Connell: To where?

Mr. Muchnick: To the Girls' High School, the place we are talking about.

Mr. Cronin: To where?

Mr. O'Connell: That isn't what he said.

Mr. Cronin: Where does it go to?

Mr. Muchnick: If you have the new furniture at Norman Street, then obviously you can put the furniture in the truck at Norman Street and bring it over to the Girls' High School.

Mr. Mooney: That same truck that left Norman Street might be full of furniture going to a school on the way to the school where it is going to bring furniture back from.

Mr. Muchnick: That isn't the way these bills read, Jim, with Milan.

Mr. O'Connell: Let me see those.

Mr. Muchnick: These are not bills. That is the contract. If you will check the bills with Milan, you will find—

Mr. Mooney: They are on an hourly rate, are they not?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, but you will find, for example, January 17th: "Pick up furniture and return to 26 Norman Street from the Hemenway School."

January 18th: "Take furniture from the Hemenway School to 26 Norman Street."

To me it means they went empty twice and full twice, and it could have been done by one round trip.

Mr. O'Connell: Or they could have stopped somewhere en route and picked up other furniture.

Mr. Muchnick: It does not say so.

Mr. Mooney: It would not say so.

Mr. Muchnick: Oh, yes, it would, because the places that have more than one stop say they have more than one stop on all the bills.

Mr. Mooney: Then that was an instance when we had nothing to send out.

Mr. Muchnick: But you had something going to the Hemenway from Norman Street and something coming from the Hemenway to Norman Street. It could have been done in one round trip. This way it was done on two separate days in two round trips.

Mr. Mooney: I cannot believe that.

Mr. Muchnick: I found it hard to believe myself, but the Auditor's records show it very clearly.

Mr. Mooney: That does not mean that that truck didn't go someplace else.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, every other time it says so. On the 14th of December we have the Frank V. Thompson, the Gardner, Boston Trade, Abraham Lincoln and Jeremiah Burke, Norcross and Storow, all with small loads coming and going to the different places.

Mr. Mooney: That is our effort to keep them busy.

Mr. Muchnick: There are too many instances—

Mr. O'Connell: That indicates just an isolated instance. Let me get moving.

Mr. Muchnick: You anticipated what I was going to say. There are too many instances of what you call the isolated instance.

Mr. O'Connell: Why don't you find out what they are? Come on down to Norman Street and we will give you the answers.

Mr. Muchnick: There they are. You can give me the answers.

Mr. Mooney: It is a little inconceivable for me to think that with the available help we have to operate this big plant we could make a schedule of truck routings, so to speak, so that at all times a truck would be loaded. Frankly I don't think it is possible.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, I think that is very simple to understand. If you were going to bring something to one building and you had something returned from there, the most natural thing in the world is to empty the truck with whatever you had and certainly put the other stuff back in. I think that is what Mr. Muchnick is trying to say here.

Mr. Mooney: I am not certain if that discloses the truth of the matter.

Mr. O'Connell: When I was in the Army, that used to be a full-time job.

Chairman: Why is it that Milan gets all that work?

Mr. Mooney: It is an advertised contract, and he was the low bidder. We have had others. We advertised again in April, and there are four or five bidders, usually.

Chairman: There is one item here, "Installing a soapstone sink at the Roxbury Memorial High School for Girls," $678.

Isn't that an awful lot to install a soapstone sink?

Mr. Mooney: It all depends on what kind of a sink is involved. It is all according to what it involves. If I might be privileged, I would like to get this on the record.

Mr. O'Connell: At least the statements by Mrs. Lyons and the statement by you?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know. It has been very injurious to me personally. I have a reputation—

Chairman: I took that from your own records.

Mr. Mooney: May I be privileged to read these?

Mr. O'Connell: I think those statements were very libellous.

Mr. Mooney: May I be privileged to read these? This is the Boston Traveler of Monday, December 29, 1952. It is under a byline by Sara White. Just in the first paragraph the inference is that there is something wrong:

"It costs $60 to disconnect a soapstone sink, when the sink is in a Boston public school."

That is not very good English. I wouldn't write that:

"The $60 disconnecting job was in the Julia Ward Howe School."

"The gong to call the boys back to class in the boys' yard of the James Otis School, East Boston, was fixed and that cost $170."

"Three fence-posts were welded and repaired at the Audubon School for $115."

"Lights went into the teachers' closets at the six-room Ira Allen school at $219.99."

"Mrs. Alice Lyons, School Committee member, will bring up these jobs when the Committee meets on January 22 with the Boston School Buildings Commission."

"She charges that last summer's school repair program has bogged down—about half complete now—because a few favored contractors got more work than they could handle."

"She says the delays appear to have been costly in money as well as inconvenience."

"From the records of so-called 'gift contracts'—strings of jobs at less than $1000 and consequently not subject to competitive bidding—she culls some more:

"Doors were removed in the Patrick Campbell School gymnasium for $225."

"It costs $30 just to install curtain rods on ten windows in the Thomas Edison School. That didn't include the cost of rods."

"Ribs (metal bars) were removed from a skylight at Girls' Trade School for $485."

"Batteries in emergency lighting units for the auditorium at the Grover Cleveland School were replaced for $185."

"The gas water heater burner at the Paul Revere School was cleaned and adjusted for $60."

"Installation cost alone for a gas hot water heater at the Woodrow Wilson School for $989."

"The kindergarten floor at the Michael J. Perkins school was re-finished for $250."

Then it goes on further.

Now, that gave the public, regardless of what your thoughts may have been, the impression that they were paying an exorbitant price for the work done.

Chairman: I certainly got the impression right now, Mr. Mooney, that the cost to install a soapstone sink is $678.

Mr. Mooney: If you will, I want you to listen to the facts. Each one of these is under the same caption: "Under a by-line, 'By Sara White', the Boston Traveler published the following, Monday, December 29, 1952:"

And then I quote:

"It costs $60 to disconnect a soapstone sink, when the sink is in a Boston public school."

"The $60 disconnecting job was in the Julia Ward Howe School."

The facts are:

Under date of April 3, 1952, Requisition No. 3759 was received from the School Committee and it read as follows:

"Remove lunch counter and sink from basement (in lunch counter area.)"

Note: This space is needed for AIR RAID SHELTER."

As a result of an inspection at the site of the school building, an Order (No. 5248) was issued to Henry J. Lyons to do the following work:

"Disconnect soapstone sink in basement. Securely cap supplies and waste. Deliver grease trap to Norman Street and deliver sink to Room 120, Roxbury Memorial High. Remove refrigerator trap above floor and cap drain. Re-cement floor where drain is removed."

To do this work it was necessary to break up a small portion of cement floor and repair same.

The order called for contractor to remove sink from Julia Ward Howe School to Room 120 at Roxbury Memorial High School where it was later installed. This sink weighed approximately four hundred pounds and it took four men and a truck to remove it from the basement of Julia Ward Howe School to the basement of Roxbury Memorial High School.

The order also called for the Contractor to deliver grease trap to Department Storehouse, 26 Norman Street.

Inspector's estimate to do the work was sixty dollars ($60).

Final bill submitted by contractor and paid by City of Boston—$32.20.

Chairman: Wasn't that the way that you gave that to us? Isn't that the way that it appeared here?

Mr. Mooney: That does not show one bit of related work. That is our record of orders. It does not show one bit of related work.

Now, I am not going to read all eighteen of these, but just to give you an impression—

Mr. O'Connell: As I say, if you came down to Norman Street we could show these things to you. We cannot bring up the other things that correspond to these related things.

Under a by-line, "By Sara White," the Boston Traveler published the following, Monday, December 29, 1952:

"Doors were removed in the Patrick Campbell School gymnasium for $225."

The facts are:

School Committee Requisition No. 5016, basis for Order No. 6785, resulting in an expenditure of $226, requested the installation of two hundred and thirty (230) new metal lockers which would have cost $1500.

As department architect, I decided that existing gun racks, no longer in use, could satisfactorily be converted to suitable compartments for storage of clothes used by gymnasium classes.

The reconversion of gun racks to locker compartments was satisfactory to the head master and gymnastic teacher, and by the removal of 32 doors, bottom strip of each compartment, division of each compartment into cubicles, insertion of wood in hinge slots, installation of hooks in cubicles, and painting the work, was accomplished at a saving of $1274 to the City.

Material and labor costs were as follows:

Original estimate:
Material	$50
Painting	25
Labor	168
	$243

Bill approved and paid,—$226.

Chairman: Isn't the impression that you gave from that, that there were doors removed?

Mr. Mooney: No. That is just a caption.

Chairman: It is the order register.

Mr. Mooney: And it just identifies another one.

Mr. O'Connell: Why were not questions asked of us concerning that before these loose statements were handed out to the press?

Chairman: These are not loose statements. They are just taken from your own records.

Mr. Mooney: They are loose to me, Mrs. Lyons, and detrimental to the department. I value my reputation, and I want you to know that I don't think it is possible for anybody to expend City moneys any more economically or to the advantage of the City than I try to do. I am not perfect. I will make that statement.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, I think, too, as people who provide that money and people who are responsible to the parents of this City for the condition of our schools, we have a perfect right to ask all of these questions.

Mr. Mooney: No doubt you have.

Mr. O'Connell: Why weren't they asked previously?

Chairman: Then why call them loose statements?

Mr. Mooney: I didn't call them loose statements.

Mr. O'Connell: I call them loose statements.

Mr. Mooney: I wish you would get the facts before you give out information to the newspapers.

Chairman: Just a minute, Mr. Mooney.

Mr. O'Connell: We have libel laws in this Commonwealth, you know.

Chairman: We invited you people to come up since last October, Mr. Mooney, and this is now the 28th of January; and every single time that you were not here there was some excuse given. We, as elected officials, have a perfect right to ask your department to which we are giving this money what you are doing with it, because other people ask us what you are doing with it.

Mr. Mooney: Absolutely.

Mr. O'Connell: Why don't you ask us when they ask you?

Mr. Mooney: I am just saying that things like this should not get into the newspapers, when they are not correct, because they are damaging to me as an individual. I try to spend the money as economically as possible. I may have made a lot of mistakes, in your mind, or in the minds of the newspaper people, but this sort of business is no help to me, I will tell you that.

Listen to this one:

Under a by-line, "By Sara White," the Boston Traveler published the following, Monday, December 29, 1932:

"Installation cost alone for a gas hot water heater at the Woodrow Wilson School was $989."

I happen to be very familiar with that.

The facts are:

Based on School Committee Requisition No. 5720, to "furnish and install gas water heater in boiler room" at the Woodrow Wilson School, Order No. 5992 was issued by this department to the J. P. O'Hearn Company after competitive bids were received from five reliable contractors.

In an installation of this type heater the City of Boston Regulations call for a separate illuminating gas service from meter to heater. The gas service to building and meter was about 350 feet away.

Oil burners were being installed at the time and gas service for these burners was needed and a separate line would have to be run for service to these burners to comply with Building Department regulations. This meant that about 700 feet of gas pipe of different sizes would have to run on ceilings of cafeteria and corridors. The Superintendent of Construction was consulted and the condition explained to him. He made an appointment with the Building Commissioner and the Gas Supervisor and had a meeting in the Building Commissioner's office and asked permission to install an extra gas service from the Alicia Road side of the building. We obtained this permission.

When I was Building Commissioner I wrote the gas regulations under which they operate. It required 700 feet of run over the ceilings of the cafeteria and along the corridors, which I just could not see. I did not think it was a proper expenditure or the proper way to do business, so I personally went down to the Building Commissioner and asked if we would waive the requirement, and let me bring a separate gas line into the boiler room which he did.

I then contacted the Boston Consolidated Gas Company and they agreed to install this service at a cost of $352.50. We then wrote specifications for this work and obtained five bids from reliable contractors. The low bidder was the J. P. O'Hearn Company; their bid for the job was $989.00 and the work was awarded to this company.

The specification called for the contractor submitting bid to assume responsibility for new gas main and pay all charges connected with its installation.

The low bid being $989.00, after contractor paid $352.50 to the Gas Company, he had $637.50 for purchase of material and labor to install same.

Below is a breakdown of job as estimated:

Gas water heater	$150
Copper smoke pipe	75
Pipe and fittings,
meter connection,
relief and vacuum valves, pipe coverings
and hangers	100
Labor (two men)	300
Trucking	15
Gas Company	$640.00
	352.00

Total $992.00

Bids received as follows:
D. J. Rull	$1476
F. McDonald	1422
Powers & Mehegan	1120
L. Jacobs	999
J. P. O'Hearn Co.	989

Following are the specifications which were the basis for the competitive bids:

Furnish all material and labor necessary to install one 100 Sands, Pittsburgh, Rudd or equal automatic gas water heater on left hand side of heating boiler to replace obsolete coal heater.

Gas water heater to be equipped with automatic thermostat, safety pilot and 16-gauge copper coil.

Connect present 2-inch brass flow pipes on coal heater with 1½-inch brass pipe from new gas water heater.

Have Boston Consolidated Gas Company install new 2-inch gas service from gas pipe main in Alicia Road to storeroom next to Custodian's Room. Contractor to be responsible for cost of new service into building. Install new rigid 20-light meter connector, on left-hand side of wall of storeroom and run 1½-inch service from meter to 2-inch service at foundation wall. Install swing joint on both sides of meter connection. From meter run new 1-inch gas it to thermostat to be installed at end of hot water tank, from thermostat run ¾-inch pipe to new gas water heater. Cut opening in chimney for flue pipe. All new pipe to be painted with black asphaltum after it is tested. All pipe to be securely fastened and run in compliance with the Gas Fitting Regulations of the City of Boston.

Install back diverter on top of gas water heater and run a 4-inch 16-ounce copper vertical flue pipe and 5-inch horizontal flue to 5-inch sleeve to be installed in brick chimney.

Disconnect existing coal heater and all piping in connection with same. Coal heater to become property of contractor and to be removed from building.

Equip existing tank with new Watts 40 XL pressure temperature relief valve and a Watts No. 36 vacuum valve in accordance with the Plumbing Code of the City of Boston. Install new brass dial thermometer in place of present one.

Insulate pipe lines between gas water heater and tank with three-play asbestos pipe covering with 6-ounce canvas and plaster fittings with long fibre asbestos even with pipe covering.

Disconnect 1½-inch discharge pipe from sump in front of boilers and connect same into 4-inch drain at ceiling. Remove and clean out and install 4 X 2 Y in drains, connect present discharge pipe from sump at front of boilers into drain. Install new 1½ inch trap and check valve at drain.

Do all necessary cutting, patching, and patch-painting and at completion of work remove all rubbish and leave premises in a clean and satisfactory manner.

Chairman: How much was that old heater worth?

Mr. Mooney: Hardly enough to move it out of the building. Now, that shows there was a range of over $500 in competitive bidding. And I defy anybody to get that job done better than that job was done at any price.

Mr. Barry: Madam Chairman, as a new member of this Commission, all of the previous discussion has been beyond me, because I was not there, but this newspaper notoriety rather bothered me, so I went down to Mr. Mooney to find out something about what might well be called from the newspaper stories a waste of money.

Mr. Mooney and I went over this register, and we dug out several of these items, and I don't mind telling everybody that I don't blame the School Committee because that register is used for a specific purpose, and that column there, which only has one line makes a short statement about a job which, to a person not familiar with it, could be construed as something which would be very simple.

So I asked Mr. Mooney to get all these details out for me and then I did not disbelieve Mr. Mooney but I went back to some of these department heads and checked to see if the figures were correct. I want to state for Mr. Mooney's sake, that the figures were absolutely correct, and everything on those sheets is correct. However, I don't blame the School Committee because of that register. I don't blame you for drawing an inference there at all.

Mr. O'Connell: I do blame them for not calling up and not asking for an explanation.

Dr. Foley: In other words, you believe, Mr. Barry, that there isn't enough information on that register?

Mr. Mooney: Of course, there isn't enough information.

Mr. Barry: Yes, that has a specific purpose.

Mr. Mooney: That is just like the title of a book. It does not give the contents or anything.

Mr. O'Connell: It is like an index.

Mr. Barry: I am fairly familiar with various types of column sheets because I am a certified public accountant, and I checked; and as far as I can see, the main purpose of this is merely a reference for the office.

What I mean by that is that the first column there is the job. The second column is the school, and there is the contractor's name and then there is an extremely brief description of the job, and then it has an inspector's estimate and then the total amount.

As far as I can see, what Mr. Mooney and Mr. Noonan do is keep track of the amount of money spent from day to day so they always know from day to day where they are. He has a job number and the fund, and he can refer from that book to any department. All I did was take the numbers off the sheets. I did not do all of them—I think there are eighteen—but I did about five to make a spot check, and I found it was absolutely correct. I told Mr. Mooney I did not blame the School Committee; but if we understand that this is merely a register for a specific purpose, and the purpose is not to give the details of the job because if a job to paint this room was ordered, you would have to have somebody who would estimate it and you would have to have somebody to write specifications for it.

You would have to have somebody have a list of the contractors and some kind of a file to see who was the lowest bidder, and all of that information is in the department that would do the work—in this case, maintenance and repair. However, on that one there it might say: "Paint a room at 15 Beacon Street."

So I say that I think much of this trouble that we are talking about tonight—and I do not want to call it trouble, either, because I think it is a good thing—is the fact that there is not a sufficient description in that column which calls for the job.

Now, that is my observation as a new member of this Commission.

Mr. Mooney: May I be privileged to read this? There was a statement made in the newspaper to the effect that you did not believe a certain amount of glass was broken in Boston Trade School. I can appreciate why you would say that because it was tremendous in the course of three or four days, but nevertheless that is a statement that does not help me because we replaced all that glass.

I made it my business to send Mr. O'Flaherty over to the school the day that statement was published to find out whether it was so—that we were paying for glass that was not installed. If we were, you know what I would do about it.

So he contacted Mr. Michael Potocki, and I think Mr. Barry knows him very well, and we got the daily reports that Mr. Potocki took, and here they are over his signature of every light of glass that was broken, and it checks with the order that we issued.

Mr. O'Connell: Do you want to type it and copy it?

Mr. Mooney: I don't blame you in thinking so because if $1700 worth of windows are broken in the matter of a few days, you say, "Well, something has gone wrong."

Mr. O'Connell: Did Mr. Muchnick ever call you up and tell you why?

Mr. Mooney: You are saying you don't believe it. The people say, "Well, what is that man doing down there?"

Mr. O'Connell: Did Mr. Muchnick ever call you or write you and ask you what the details were?

Mr. Mooney: I can go on with the fifteen. They are in the same vein, I assure you. I would like to have you look at this one, if you will.

Chairman: On that first contractor you just mentioned, there are only ten contractors you give all these jobs to.

Mr. O'Connell: What jobs?

Chairman: And there are about a thousand heating and plumbing contractors in the City of Boston, and that man is the top man—O'Hearn.

Mr. Mooney: He is a very capable man. I will put on a hundred more if you desire.

Chairman: 990 who are heating engineers are not on here. I don't want anybody. I don't know anybody.

Mr. Mooney: Well, if you did want somebody, I will put them on.

Chairman: I don't want anybody.

Mr. Mooney: Well, you may not now, but you have asked before.

Chairman: I didn't ask anybody. Did I ever go and ask you to do anything?

Mr. Mooney: No, but you asked the Mayor. I have the letter right here. Do you want to read it?

Chairman: You can if you want to because any number of people have come and asked me.

Mr. Mooney: Here is a letter from the Mayor over his signature with three names that you asked about.

Chairman: Because they came to me. In fact, I could have put ten on. They said, "Why don't we get it?" I said, "I will try and find out."

Mr. Mooney: I just want to clarify that.

Mr. O'Connell: By the way, there is one question—

Chairman: Back over the years they are the same ones, and I still feel that there are other contractors that could come in and do work on our schools.

Mr. Mooney: If they come in and ask me to do work, I let them do work.

Mr. O'Connell: If you will name them, Mrs. Lyons, we will get in touch with them.

Mr. Mooney: A lot of them have weeded themselves out by improper bills and imperfect work, but I have never refused them the privilege.

Mr. O'Connell: Mr. Mooney, let me ask you this question.

Chairman: It is a difficult thing to understand why, on every one of these different types of work, there are four or five people that get the bulk of the work. Now, I can't believe that people in business in our city are so incapable of doing a good job and are weeding themselves out because they are incapable of doing a good job and cleaning up after them.

Mr. O'Connell: Madam, you show us the proof and we will give you the answers.

Chairman: I am talking to Mr. Mooney, Mr. O'Connell.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, could I ask a question of Mr. Mooney? Mr. Mooney, I saw one item in there: Repairing a school going for $162.

Mr. Mooney: Would you like the report on that?

Mr. Carr: I would like a description of that work there.

Mr. Barry: That is one I checked, too. I checked that one. Mr. Mooney: Incidentally, these are not mine.

Dr. Foley: Do you have one there on hanging a picture?

Chairman: Do you have the information on that picture?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Cronin: We also have one on welding an iron fence.

Chairman: Mr. Mooney, I want to tell you—

Mr. Carr: Could I have my question answered, please?

Mr. Mooney: Under a by-line, "By Sara White," the Boston Traveler published the following Monday, December 29, 1952:

"The going to call the boys back to class in the boys' yard of the James Otis School, East Boston, was fixed and that cost $170."

The facts are:

On September 8, 1952, Requisition No. 7429 was received from the School Committee to "please repair yard bell in boys' yard."

Order No. 7031 was issued to the Kay Electric Co. to do the following work:

"Repair present gong in boys' yard or replace with a horn. Also secure wiring to gong in the girls' yard. Repair door bells and pull in new wiring if necessary."

The following is a description of the work performed at the James Otis School

Program Bells:

Third floor: Remove one bell, reconnect broken wires, adjust and re-install bell.

Second floor: Remove two bells, rewire two bells, adjust both bells, install one new bell, pull in new #14 wires between second and first floors, check push button for loose connections at master clock.

First floor: Remove bell, resplice broken conductors, re-install and re-connect bell.

Boys' Side: Remove bell, trace out wires to low tension cabinet, connect up open circuit, adjust bell, re-install and re-connect.

Girls' Side: Remove bell, trace out wires, re-connect and adjust bell.

The above required two men—eight hours labor. (Total sixteen hours).

This work was not included in the order but our men were authorized to put the program bells in working condition after consulting the Electrical Division engineer.

Door bells:

First floor corridor: Remove bell, trace wires to low voltage cabinet, test out wires, between first floor and push button at entrance. At low tension cabinet install switch for door bells for purpose of disconnecting door bells. Install one porcelain pull fixture in low tension cabinet. Reconnect broken wires behind mat. Reconnect broken off wires in low tension cabinet in basement.

The above work required two men—four hours labor. (Total eight hours).

Gongs:

Boys' side: Remove guard, secure mat, drill and tap stripped internal adjusting screws for bell, reconnect yard gong, clean conductors, contacts, etc. Install one Crouse Hinds LB cover.

Girls' side: Secure conduits, secure mat outside to brick wall and adjust bell, paint mat, install guard.

All outside conduit was loose requiring drilling of new holes in brick wall, and installing tamps and clips, involving the use of ladders and other equipment.

Master's office: Check push buttons for loose connections.

(There are two buttons, one for corridor bells and one for yard gong.)

The above work required two men—eight hours (Total sixteen hours).

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, in connection with this item here, when I read that in the Traveler, I was greatly disturbed at the price that was portrayed as being paid for a simple gong, and at that time I made inquiries from custodians who have observed the work done as to the procedure in fixing these gongs.

I was told that it was an involved job, just as the job described by Mr. Mooney, and I feel that these articles in the Traveler have done a great deal of harm to Mr. Mooney's reputation. Mr. Barry pointed out that the trouble is that this register here that we have just given a bird's-eye view, you might say, of the job, and the trouble lies here.

I don't think the trouble lies here. I did not take this for granted, and I went and inquired just what these jobs involved, and I was convinced that Sara White of the Traveler was in error.

Chairman: I don't believe she was in error. She just took it exactly as it was given in this book.

Mr. Carr: That was my point in asking Mr. Mooney to describe this work to confirm the description given to me by one of our custodians, and I am sorry to see Mr. Mooney's reputation being tossed around like that.

Dr. Foley: How about the picture, Mr. Mooney?

Mr. Mooney: News report: "He (Muehnick) also cited a bill for $190.50 for the hanging of two paintings of headmasters and the removal of a statue."

The facts are:

"Requisitions were received from the School Committee, one #9284 and the other unnumbered, to 'hang two Head Masters' pictures, and move all eight head masters' pictures from their present locations to other places in the building," and to "have the statue Caryatid," heroic size moved from the Assembly Hall to Room 8 in basement and have other statues in Assembly Hall moved to different positions" in the Girls' High School.

"A contractor was notified to go to the school by this department, look over the work to be done, and send in an estimate for doing the work. His estimate was $190.00. Order #8161 was issued by this department to the Courtney Hardware Co. to cover the work.

"In order to secure the pictures to the wall in the new locations considerable drilling was required in masonry and plaster and wood work to have the work done satisfactorily. The pictures had to be cleaned, also the statuary. It took staging to complete some of the work. New paper backs had to be installed where the older ones were in bad shape. "Two men worked the whole time the work was in progress.

"Final bill approved and paid —$190.60."

Mr. Muehnick: Did you say the contractor on that was the Courtney Hardware?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muehnick: Don't they specialize in selling locks?

Mr. Mooney: No.

Mr. O'Connell: No, you know better than that.

Mr. Muehnick: And they do other things besides sell hardware?

Mr. Mooney: Yes. We buy very little hardware from them.

Mr. Muehnick: Don't say that.

Mr. Mooney: Well, we do.

Mr. Muehnick: Unless you and I have different ideas of what "very little" is.

Mr. Mooney: I mean compared to the whole program. All we buy is window locks and things like that.

Mr. Muehnick: We buy more locks than most hardware people sell in the course of a year.

Mr. Mooney: Yes. You mean grille locks.

Mr. Muehnick: We buy all kinds of locks. Remember the Mayhew School that was running hundreds a month when we went through that?

Mr. Mooney: No, no, no—not hundreds.

Mr. Muehnick: You read the records.

Mr. O'Connell: Mr. Mooney, I have a couple of short questions. Has any member of this School Committee ever been down to Norman Street to your knowledge?

Mr. Carr: Yes.

Mr. O'Connell: Who?

Mr. Mooney: The only one that I know of is Mr. Carr.

Dr. Foley: Have I ever been there?

Mr. Mooney: Dr. Foley was down there.

Mr. Carr: Any other questions?

Mr. O'Connell: We will be fair about this. We will restrict this to the year 1952. For the purpose of the record, has any member of this Board in the year 1952 ever telephoned to you concerning any of the departmental contracts, to your knowledge? If you don't know, why say so.

Mr. Mooney: I don't remember.
Mr. O'Connell: Has any member of the Board as an individual written to you concerning any of these contracts?

Mr. Mooney: No.
Mr. O'Connell: To Norman Street or anywhere else?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.
Mr. O'Connell: Now I would like to ask the Board a question.

Mr. Muchnick: Would you ask him one more question before you ask the School Committee? I will give you the question. Has any member of the School Committee sent anybody down in an attempt to copy information from the records down there, and what happened?

Mr. Mooney: Yes, I will explain that. The answer is Yes. Two men came in representing themselves as coming from your office.

Mr. O'Connell: His private office?

Mr. Mooney: And they wanted to go through the records.

Mr. Muchnick: They asked for specific records, Jim.

Mr. Mooney: They didn't ask me for anything. They came to our office.

Mr. Muchnick: They asked the employee down there for specific records subsequent to my phone call that they were coming down.

Mr. Mooney: To whom did you make your phone call?

Mr. Muchnick: I spoke with Mr. Noonan, if I remember.

Mr. Noonan: " happened to be downstairs. Mr. Muchnick, and you spoke to Arthur Levitsky, who gave me the message.

Mr. O'Connell: Is Arthur here?

Mr. Noonan: No.
Mr. Muchnick: And he spoke with you, Mr. Noonan, wasn't it, and called back?

Mr. Noonan: That's right.

Mr. Muchnick: And the young man who went the first time had a letter from me identifying himself.

Mr. Noonan: No, I did not see that, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, he showed it to somebody down there.

Mr. O'Connell: Have you a copy of it here?

Mr. Muchnick: No, I don't have a copy here.

Mr. O'Connell: Don't you have the records up here?

Mr. Muchnick: I have the essential records because it is completely unessential whether the young man came from me or from anybody else or whether he worked for me in my private office or was unemployed. Those are public records.

Mr. O'Connell: Does the same thing obtain here on the School Board? Can I walk in here or send my dog in here or anybody else to cull over any records that are here?

Mr. Muchnick: The answer to that is Yes.

Mr. O'Connell: Is that so?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, and these are financial transactions.

Mr. Cronin: You mean—try and do it.

Mr. Muchnick: Involving the expenditure of the City's money.

Mr. O'Connell: About how far would I get if I tried that?

Mr. Muchnick: They wouldn't, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Mr. Chairman, I would answer it honestly—no.

Mr. Muchnick: Are our minutes public?

Superintendent: But Mr. O'Connell asked about all records. Our minutes are public, but our records in here we certainly would not throw open to anyone coming in.

Mr. Muchnick: Some of our records are kept secret and confidential by statute, aren't they?

Mr. O'Connell: You know the answer to that question as well as I do.

Mr. Muchnick: Aren't some of our records in the School Department kept confidential by statute?

Superintendent: The records of pupils. Madam Chairman; but there are no pupil records in this building.

Chairman: We are talking about expenditures of money.

Mr. O'Connell: No, he was talking about records.

Mr. Muchnick: Let's limit it for the moment to the expenditure of money. Let's be specific.

Mr. Mooney: The answer is that I did not permit him after I discovered he was there. He was there an hour, and then I told him I would not permit it.

Mr. Muchnick: And the answer further is, Mr. Mooney—

Mr. Mooney: Do you want me to give you the reason?

Mr. Carr: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, I would like the reason.

Mr. Mooney: How would I know but that he would change or alter some of my records? He was a stranger to me.

Mr. O'Connell: Did Mr. Muchnick follow that up with any attempt to explain that it was an official visit?

Mr. Muchnick: Do I understand you to say that the reason you did not let him do it was because you were afraid you could not trust him?

Mr. Mooney: No, I would not say that I could not trust him.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, you were afraid he would alter the records?

Mr. Mooney: He was a stranger to me.

Mr. Cronin: He didn't know him.

Mr. O'Connell: Who was he? We didn't know him.

Mr. Mooney: I think that as the custodian of public property, if I permitted that man to look at the records, I should assign somebody to take them out of the files and let him see them and put them back.

Mr. Muchnick: Tell me something. In what way could he alter the records?

Mr. Mooney: He could destroy them as far as I was concerned.

Mr. O'Connell: What a question to ask!

Mr. Mooney: I don't know.

Mr. O'Connell: Manually.

Mr. Mooney: I don't think it's good business.

Mr. Muchnick: You don't think it's good business to let the citizens of Boston see the records of expenditures by employees of the City—records of the expenditures by the employees? You are the employee, Mr. Mooney.

Mr. Mooney: Listen—you are trying to create a fuss here.

Mr. Muchnick: No, I am not trying to create a fuss.

Mr. Mooney: Yes, you are. If the man came to me and I thought his mission was as you explained it now, I might have acted otherwise; but I did not know that he was from your office other than that he said so. I did not see any letter or anything like that. I did not get any telephone call from you. He could have been an absolute stranger.

Mr. Muchnick: The reason you did not get the telephone call, Mr. Mooney, was that it was made at an hour of the morning when you did not happen to be in the building.

Mr. Mooney: Well, maybe so. That is a very unusual occurrence.

Mr. Muchnick: So that a message was given to your first assistant through one of the other employees, and even that makes no difference. Any citizen of this city is entitled to see how the City's money is spent.

Mr. O'Connell: Why didn't you go down?

Mr. Muchnick: Why didn't I go down?

Mr. O'Connell: Yes, if you were sincere about it.

Mr. Muchnick: Because I employ people to do certain things for me.

Mr. O'Connell: If you were so eager for it, why didn't you follow it up? Isn't that the normal thing to do?

Mr. Muchnick: No, and you know it. I sent somebody else down the next day who is a pretty reputable recognized architect in the City, and he was refused admission. There has been a lot of talk about absence of information and this register and so forth.

Mr. O'Connell: I have a question I want to ask.

Mr. Muchnick: I want to have it pointed out for the record that this information is the only information that has been furnished to the School Committee; and in the letter of transmittal it says as follows: with reference to the last few pages:

"Also attached are pages 171 to 185. Photostats of the order register of the Department of School Buildings." And this next part is the important part:

"Records, by order number, date, contractor, school, description of work, and estimate."

That is the language of the School Buildings Department telling us that they are giving us the information.

"Description of work and estimate." That is your language saying that you are telling us what work was being done and the cost of it, and it is sent to us in compliance with the Committee's request which reads as follows:

"Ordered. That the Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings, is hereby requested to prepare and submit to this Committee a list showing the breakdown on all bids under $1000 for the period . . ."

"Breakdown" means pretty much a detailed description of the work.

Mr. Mooney: I gave it to you.

Mr. Muchnick: And you tell us that you are giving us a description of the work.

Mr. Mooney: I gave it to you. I gave you exactly what you asked for plus that book.

Mr. Muchnick: Everybody says they want to wind this up, and frankly, Joe, I don't blame you for wanting to wind this up.

Mr. Mooney: Mr. Muchnick, may I ask you a question?

Mr. Cronin: Wait a minute. Give somebody else a chance, why don't you? Wait a minute. If this is going to be an open meeting, let's have it an open meeting.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, and I'd like to make a statement.

Mr. Cronin: Let everybody be heard.

Chairman: We have been very courteous on this side of the table, and I think courtesy should be extended to everyone else in this room.

Mr. Muchnick: I have heard it said this evening, that people are doing this work who have been doing it for years, and we have specialists in the field and the best one for the particular job is picked and so forth.

I came across one company, the Falmouth Construction Company. You don't find them in the phone book.

Chairman: There are others you don't find in the phone book.

Mr. Muchnick: You check around as well as you can, and you find out certain items about the Falmouth Construction Company. They didn't go into business until late in 1947 so that it would be somebody —

Mr. Mooney: I don't believe that.

Mr. Muchnick: You don't believe it?

Mr. Mooney: I don't believe they went in business then. I go by my records.

Mr. Muchnick: You can check the records at City Hall the same way.

Mr. O'Connell: Why don't you come down to Norman Street and we will give you the whole thing?

Mr. Muchnick: And you find out it was in 1947 that the Falmouth Construction Company filed a business certificate—October of 1947.

Chairman: May I interject here, too? In the carpentry and masonry contractors, Mr. Barr got over $25,000 worth of work. He got the major number of the jobs, amounting to $25,742; and again I say that is just the jobs under $1000. Mr. Barr is not listed under carpenters or masons.

Mr. O'Connell: So what?

Mr. Muchnick: That "So what" becomes pretty important.

Mr. O'Connell: Well, I don't think it is pretty important.

Mr. Muchnick: You must have known something about these people from 1947 on, Mr. Mooney, —this construction company. How do they get into the act?

Mr. Mooney: Because they were on the list when I went there.

Mr. O'Connell: By giving lower prices.

Mr. Mooney: The Falmouth Construction has been doing business for how long, Mr. Noonan, to your knowledge?

Mr. Noonan: Under the name of Norton for maybe twenty years.

Mr. Muchnick: That is a father-and-son combination, isn't it?

Mr. Mooney: I don't know. Mr. Muchnick, I have no personal knowledge about these contractors.

Mr. Muchnick: A name was just given by one of the people in your department.

Mr. Cronin: Norton? I don't know him.

Mr. Muchnick: I think if you check you will find some very interesting things.—

Mr. O'Connell: Let's find out about Falmouth, and let's get going.

Mr. Muchnick: Then you check again and you will find that we pay for automobile repairs and for stickers showing inspections, when we invite the people to have their automobiles done at our Brighton High School Automobile Repair Shop, but we have clutches fixed outside in automobile repair places and showrooms, and we pay $94 for fixing a clutch.

Mr. Mooney: I have a report on that. Do you want it?

Mr. Muchnick: And I believe we paid $5 for an inspection sticker.

Mr. Mooney: Oh, no. Do you want the report on that?

Mr. Muchnick: Let me give you the whole story and then you break it down as you wish later.

We have people in your department who are stenographers and secretaries. I assume that the average competent stenographer can cut a stencil but we pay people for cutting stencils. I cannot understand that at all.

We have a terrific amount of money spent for carfare, miscellaneous, and petty cash. It runs into a very sizeable sum every week.

Mr. O'Connell: What is the average?

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Mooney would know as well as I would.

Chairman: It is $388, $416, $368. I have taken it from this book. It is your own record. The total to October from February is $1561.18.

Mr. Muchnick: More than that in the records I have.

Chairman: That is what I just picked up in this book here.

Mr. Mooney: That accounts for the carfares.

Chairman: And that is just one man, George Regan.

Mr. Mooney: That shows how you folks analyze things. That is the total number.

Mr. Muchnick: We didn't analyze. We read what you said.

Mr. Mooney: That is the total amount advanced by the Auditor of the City of Boston to pay for the carfares and the mileage for every employee who uses an automobile of his own or spends money on carfare in making these 40,000-plus visits to the jobs.

Mr. Carr: And it is not just the one man?

Mr. Mooney: It is for the entire department. Mr. Muchnick, you have something in the record here that is absolutely wrong. You did ask me for a breakdown of all bids under $1,000, and I gave it to you in this form. Here is an exact form of every one of them. You have it in your records. But in addition to that, out of consideration for you, knowing that you were looking up these things, I sent up that big Bible that you have there. You didn't ask for that at all. I mean that big thing that you have in front of you, Mrs. Lyons.

You didn't ask for that. I sent that up. Here is what you asked for, and it was sent up without much delay as soon as we could compute it and record it. It was just out of a spirit of co-operation I sent that up to you.

Mr. Muchnick: To come back to that Falmouth Construction, a certain name was mentioned, Falmouth Construction Company does not appear in the phone book; and so far as I can see the person listed at City Hall as the owner of Falmouth Construction Company also does not appear in the phone book.

Mr. O'Connell: So?

Mr. Muchnick: So that under neither name is it particularly easy to reach this man, but I should think that people who are experts in their field would be open to business, Joe, for others.

Mr. O'Connell: Didn't he tell you that most of those men are small-time operators—that the big-time operators don't want to get into this?

Chairman: $24,000 jobs in one school is a small-time operation?

Mr. O'Connell: That's right.

Chairman: A man doing a hardware business here to the tune of $26,000 nearly?

Mr. O'Connell: That is my understanding of what he said.

Mr. Mooney: You see, Mrs. Lyons, that isn't so. That is the name of his concern—Courtney Hardware Company. He does a lot of work. He does window-shade work. What other kind of work? Locksmith's work, and what else?

Mr. Noonan: Curtains and stage draperies.

Chairman: I don't see anyone else here for all the locks that are put in the schools.

Mr. Mooney: Oh, yes, there are. There are a lot purchased from others. Haymarket Hardware, for instance.

Chairman: They only got $2000—$2800 worth.

Mr. O'Connell: A mere bagatelle.

Mr. Muchnick: To come back to the Falmouth Construction Company and the person in whose name the business certificate is filed, if they are the capable people they are supposed to be, and I don't say they are not, and if this is their business, and I don't say it isn't, it seems to me that they would want to get business from people other than the Boston School Department and would not keep their whereabouts and the nature of their work a secret.

Mr. O'Connell: Your question is a conclusion and a speech. Now let's ask questions and get information.

Mr. Muchnick: I am trying to get something across to you and to the other members of the Commission.

Mr. O'Connell: Izzy, you are doing a lot of talking but not saying anything.

Chairman: Mr. O'Connell, I think that is perfectly clear. Why are you contracting with somebody you don't know?

Mr. Mooney: I personally don't know him.

Mr. O'Connell: You asked for bids and they are the low bidder.

Mr. Muchnick: Regardless of the attempts to sidetrack, I will stay on the issue.

Mr. O'Connell: O. K. Fine. Mr. Muchnick: Let's stay on it. I can't understand that item.

Mr. O'Connell: All right. You don't understand it.

Mr. Muchnick: That is indicative of others, however. I can't understand further—

Mr. O'Connell: Take his explanation and let's get going and ask the next question.

Chairman: Mr. O'Connell, would you mind not interrupting Mr. Muchnick?

Mr. O'Connell: I do mind very much. I am not going to sit here all night.

Mr. Muchnick: Here is a situation where one figure is almost double what it is in another. I am disturbed to find that in the projected budget this year from your department—

Mr. O'Connell: You were very much bothered about it but you would never come down to Norman street and ask him these questions, would you?

Mr. Muchnick: Joe, regardless of the interruptions I will finish what I was intending to say.

I cannot understand why again this year there is being asked $15,400 for fire escapes, when we were told last year that that job was being completed and that the contracts were out and the Department of Public Safety was satisfied to let us run because the contracts were out, and when we had been told years back that a certain figure, which I believe was a million dollars at that time—or $900,000—would completely equip the City, and we are still having money appropriated for fire escapes.

I cannot understand what is meant by the contingencies and emergencies in the sum of $30,000, and why it isn't allocated for us.

Mr. O'Connell: That is on the budget, Izzy. Let's get talking about 1952.

Chairman: Continue, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: We are talking about 1952.

Mr. O'Connell: If you are talking about the projected budget.

Mr. Muchnick: I am talking about the projected budget, and I am trying to compare it. You may not care about it but I happen to care about it.

Chairman: Mr. O'Connell, you are out of order.

Mr. Cronin: You don't want to understand it.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like to know what the administration expenses, other than salaries were in 1952 and what they are expected to be in 1953. I would like to know what has happened to the unfilled requisitions of 1952. Have they been thrown out?

Mr. Mooney: No, they are being resurrected.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, that is the first time. I would like to know why there is $300,000 spent in 1952 for painting—was there?

Mr. Mooney: Approximately $300,000? Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: And you wanted to have some other money transferred in 1952 for further painting?

Mr. Mooney: That was suggested. I did not suggest it. However, it was suggested.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, who suggested it?

Mr. Mooney: Mr. McMackin discussed it with me.

Mr. Muchnick: And did you want it?

Mr. Mooney: I said I would try to use it if I could get it.

Mr. Muchnick: And would you have spent any money out of the 1953 budget for painting?

Mr. Mooney: If I could, yes, sir—an equal amount.

Mr. Muchnick: Equal to what?

Mr. Mooney: To last year, 1952.

Mr. Muchnick: How much did you and Mr. McMackin discuss on last year's figure?

Mr. Mooney: There was some money—I think it started with the sum of $275,000—that originally was earmarked for the Blackinton School, and it was never used; I said to Charlie McMackin discussing it: "Gee, if I got that money I'd do some more painting."

Mr. O'Connell: And we need it badly.

Mr. Mooney: And that is all I said.

Mr. Muchnick: And would you have done that in addition to the 1953 appropriation?

Mr. Mooney: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Which would have made—

Mr. Mooney: $500,000.

Mr. Muchnick: $375,000.

Mr. Mooney: I would like to be in a position to spend a million dollars.

Mr. Muchnick: If your department is being properly run, why don't you ask for $375,000 for painting this year?

Mr. Mooney: Because I haven't got personnel to properly inspect it. That is the only answer I can give you.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, you wouldn't have had personnel to inspect properly if you spent $375,000—

Mr. Mooney: The program was in progress. All my men were on painting, and if I can get that money—

Mr. Muchnick: All were on painting?

Mr. Mooney: Practically all.

Mr. Muchnick: And how about the rest of this two million dollars that was being spent—who is supervising that?

Mr. Mooney: The same men.

Mr. Muchnick: You did not have personnel shortage. You could have spent $600,000 in 1952; why can't you spend it in 1953?

Mr. Mooney: You don't want to have anything but your own way. Now, listen. I have so many men. I told you the numbers. I can only inspect so much work. I am on record up in this department prior to my 1952 budget when you folks wanted certain things done to do my best with my personnel.

It is the first time in the history of the department that School Buildings ever got the total amount allowed, and I am on record here as saying that I will try to do this work with the personnel I have, but I don't think I have personnel enough to do it. I think I have done a pretty good job.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, if you didn't have personnel enough to do that work, how come you wanted the extra $275,000?

Mr. Mooney: Just to help you folks out and try to get some more buildings.

Mr. Muchnick: Help us?

Mr. Mooney: Yes. You are the ones who comment on what a fine job it is to paint all these buildings, and you certainly know the crying need for it. Some buildings have not been painted for twenty-five or thirty years.

I am trying to paint them and bring them up to snuff. I am going out making inspections myself on Saturdays and Sundays, believe it or not, because I don't have time—trying to do a good job. That is all I am trying to do.

Mr. Muchnick: I hope you succeed.

Mr. Mooney: Thank you.

Mr. O'Connell: Thank you.

Mr. Cronin: Are you all through now?

Mr. Muchnick: No, I am not. I frankly don't expect to be all through on this or any other item until such time as I get reasonable and proper explanation.

Mr. O'Connell: Publicity.

Mr. Muchnick: And until such time further as I get to the bottom of certain items, as far as I am concerned, have in no way been explained properly other than by statements: "Come down to Norman Street and see the records."

Mr. O'Connell: Mr. District Attorney—

Mr. Cronin: That is the only place where our records are.

Mr. O'Connell: Where do you think they are?

Mr. Cronin: You have been jumping from pillar to post.

Mr. Mooney: My original estimate five years ago was that the egress work in the City of Boston schools would cost four million dollars.

At that time it included the painting, and I found after we let two or three jobs that there was no way of determining the amount of painting that we would require for the reason that it involved a lot of breaking through walls and things like that. One contractor might use a skilaw and make a vertical cut. Another one would take an air compressor and break through, so that you would have spalled plaster all around. I took the painting out of all those contracts. That is why we have a painting program now on the fire escapes and things like that.

If the cost of the painting over those four years was added to the amount of money that we spent on contracts, Chapter 143 contracts, I think that the ultimate result would be just in the neighborhood of $3,500,000 or $4,000,000.

Chairman: Are you satisfied with the work as it was done?

Mr. Mooney: What do you mean—the nature of the work?

Chairman: The egress and the nature of the work.

Mr. Mooney: Oh, yes. You mean the quality of the work, and so forth.

Chairman: Yes. I mean I think if they were put in there and intended to be there for safety purposes. I wondered what they are contributing to the safety of the children in the schools.

I have noticed in many, many of the requisitions that I have signed requests for some work to be done on these doors. I inquired from several people who seemed to be bothered with that, and they claimed that the check is too light on the door.

Now, if that check is too light and the door won't open, if there was ever a fire and that door would not open, those children would all be burned to death.

Mr. Mooney: They are a standard check designed for that type of door. They have become inoperative. That is true.

Chairman: Why are so many of them becoming inoperative?

Mr. Mooney: Due to the use of the door and the way the doors are used. They are a good quality check.

Chairman: If the children cannot push the doors, if it was necessary to push them and there was actually a fire there, it would be a pretty, pretty sorry thing.

Mr. Mooney: We are confronted with the problem, as you said yourself, of putting on a heavier check if they could not push the door. Then it would be bad. Now the check that we used was designed for that weight door.

Chairman: They can't push the door now. It drops and then it sticks to the floor and the youngsters cannot push the door in many of these buildings.

Mr. Mooney: Would you mind letting me tell you what we are confronted with in that respect? It just so happens that Mr. Delaney was out within the last two days on the completion of one of these contracts. Would you tell them what happened as far as the plates and the checks are concerned?

Mr. Delaney: On that Thursday I went to South Boston High School because this is absolute vandalism, and I will say that if anybody wants to go over there and look at a couple of the doors that are there now, it will be proven that it is absolute vandalism, and it is the same on a lot of doors.

Some schools where there is good discipline don't have any trouble whatsoever. There are certain schools where there is no discipline and the kids go through and bang those doors and everything else.

I went over to South Boston High School and inspected the work that had been done. I went back there on Monday morning with the contractor and over half of those doors had gone since that time. Now that is vandalism, and the custodian bore it out.

Mr. Mooney: How about the plates?

Mr. Delaney: Not on the work that we have done but work that has been done previously, the students have stripped the brass push plates off the old doors. They put on a doorknob and in two hours the doorknob is gone. It is absolute vandalism.

Chairman: That isn't what I had in mind. I had in mind that that check was so light that the door would drop and of course then it would stick to the floor; and when the children would push it it would not open. I have noticed so many of those coming through on requisitions.

Mr. Delaney: Mrs. Lyons, let me explain it. The door check did not hold the door up at all. I will tell you what we have done. When we first started in we put them up the way we had put them up for years.

Mr. Carr: I would like you to excuse me at this time because of the lateness of the hour. It has been very pleasant meeting you, Commissioners, and I think the information that you have supplied here will be beneficial at least in guiding my actions. I thank you for the information.

Mr. Cronin: May we adjourn to Norman Street at some other date?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would like to point out just one further item.

Mr. O'Connell: Just one now.

Mr. Muchnick: I can't understand—

Mr. Cronin: Another half hour?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, going back to the Dearborn School, in addition to the repairs that I commented on before on the boiler, the last one being January 25th, I don't have them all here but there was also another one on boiler tubes a, ain on February 18th with the same company, the Daniel Russell; again on March 5th, $160; and again in October, I believe, there was an item of $42,946 for the boiler at the Dearborn School and that was in May.

Then in October, after spending close to $43,000 we start in again; and we have Daniel Russell Boiler Works, repairs to boiler again, and adjusting, on another day, the steam pumps and oil leaks from the oil tank, and so forth, on down the line.

How much does it cost to have one heating system operate?

Mr. Mooney: Mr. MacPherson would like to speak on that?

Mr. MacPherson: You know, Mr. Muchnick, we have approximately 456 boilers in our schools, and it is humanly impossible to predict when one of those tubes is going to go.

Mr. Muchnick: On a new boiler? Mr. MacPherson: There is no new boiler. Mr. Muchnick: We only put two boilers in that school and it was one boiler which is something like forty years old or something like that.

Mr. Muchnick: And it was re-tubed—isn't that part of the $43,000?

Mr. MacPherson: No, no. We did nothing to that boiler at all.

Now we are in a very peculiar situation in regard to some of these repairs. For instance, I may get a call at five o'clock in the morning at home, and they say that there is a tube or two tubes leaking.

Now, what do I do? If there is only one boiler in the building, I have to get somebody there. They have to put the fires out. A man can't get in the boiler until he puts the fire out and allows it to cool.

Then a boilermaker has to cut that tube out, so he takes a chisel and he cuts it out.

Now when he hammers with a big heavy chisel, he so shakes the boiler that he may loosen the scale and he may cause two or three other tubes to leak. Then he takes and puts the tubes in that he finds are leaking. He makes a water test. They fill the whole boiler with water, and he has to put pressure on that boiler. That pressure may cause other tubes to go.

We have occasions sometimes when there will be three or four times. Every time that they take and pound the front of the boiler, not only do they have to cut them out but they have to round them out and put a bead on them. The boiler tubes will last probably up to fourteen years, when the boiler will have to be retubed.

I have seen in my experience in one year a new boiler with two tubes gone. I was a little suspicious about the tubes. I got hold of the insurance company and asked if there was anybody who could tell a charcoal wrought iron tube and they said — "No, it is impossible to tell by observation, but we will send over to Technology and we will find out."

So I got a photostat of the crystalline structure of the tube, and they said it was a good grade of charcoal wrought iron.

Now, a big problem on all this repair business is this: You mentioned these repairs. We may get a call today that there is a pipe leaking here. Those returns are buried down in the rear connection of the boiler. They are surrounded by the brick work. We don't know whether they are gone or rotted. It is impossible to examine them until we get a leak. We have to dig that entire rear of the boiler out. It may take men two or three days to fix the leak.

Suppose two days afterwards they get a call that there is another leak. If it is a serious leak, in order to prevent the leak from damaging other property we have to get a man over there, and there is the trouble on these boiler tubes.

When the man starts that job, we don't know and it is impossible to estimate how much the job is going to cost, but we have one thing we have to do. We have to keep school going, and the result is we have to work night-times.

Mr. Muchnick: How do you estimate it?

Mr. MacPherson: We can't estimate it.

Mr. Muchnick: I thought the estimate was put on an order before it is done?

Mr. MacPherson: The tubes are inside the boiler. They are encased in water.

Mr. Muchnick: So the estimate in those cases at least has to be made up after the job is done?

Mr. MacPherson: That is right. We have an inspector who follows the job, he keeps the time and he counts the number of tubes.

During the war we changed about forty oil-burning jobs to coal at the instance of the Government, and then some years afterwards, as soon as the restrictions were removed, we changed all the tubing back to oil and we have never changed from oil to coal.

Mr. Muchnick: Have you changed one from coal to oil back to coal?

Mr. MacPherson: No, never.

Mr. Muchnick: Wasn't there some difficulty?

Mr. MacPherson: I have had occasions sometimes to promise — Mr. Mooney spoke about the Roxbury Memorial High School. It is only by the grace of God that the Roxbury Memorial High School is operating today because when I got that call from the custodian's department the other day, those oil burners are such that they have stopped making those particular burners fifteen years ago and the result is, of course, as Mr. Mooney told you, that we have to use our own spare parts. Incidentally, on all these jobs that we had last year we saved all of the parts.

I called the Petroleum Heat & Power Company, which supplied the equipment way back in 1927. They said, "We can't furnish anything. We have stopped making the parts."

What are we going to do with four boilers, and you can't operate any of those oil burners because you can't run the pumps?

If they break down again, we are licked.

Mr. Muchnick: Wasn't there a school out in Brighton where there were changes made in the style of heating and then it had to be changed back?

Mr. MacPherson: Never, Mr. Muchnick, from oil back to coal except during the war.

Mr. Muchnick: How about vice versa?

Mr. MacPherson: Of course we have periodically over the years. For instance, there is a school in Brighton. There is the Thomas A. Edison School where we put the stokers in at the time the building was built, and over the course of years we had to remove the stokers, and fire them by hand.

Mr. Muchnick: Wasn't that changed from coal to oil?

Mr. MacPherson: Yes. The reason was because the stoker doors there were so small that a man could not properly fire that boiler.

Mr. Muchnick: What is it now?

Mr. MacPherson: It is oil.

Mr. Muchnick: What happened to the stokers? Hadn't they been fixed recently? Weren't the grates found to be too small for the type of operation?

Mr. MacPherson: No, a stoker burns coal only in the middle of the boiler. In other words, there are air perforations there and it burns the coal in the middle of the boiler. There is no air coming in the side's.

Mr. Muchnick: I was informed that after having changed from one to the other the pipes or the grates could not carry the load and there had to be many changes made.

Mr. MacPherson: There has never been any change of carrying the load.

Mr. Cronin: In an oil burner you don't need grates, do you?

Mr. MacPherson: No.

Mr. Muchnick: Does the boiler work satisfactorily?

Mr. MacPherson: Yes.

Dr. Foley: Bill, how many now are there which have coal that you expect to get oil into? How many schools now?

Mr. MacPherson: I am very glad you brought that up.

Dr. Foley: I mean on conversion.

Mr. MacPherson: We are in a terrible condition on oil burners in our schools. If we lose certain parts we cannot run the buildings. I think we should concentrate most of our heating on that one thing.

Mr. Muchnick: Wasn't there a school in Brighton a few weeks ago that was closed because of lack of heat?

Mr. MacPherson: Not to my knowledge. Roxbury Memorial was closed for an afternoon.

Mr. Muchnick: Wasn't there a school in Brighton where they did not open, I believe?

Mr. MacPherson: Of course there could be many causes.

Dr. Foley: How many schools would you say now have coal?

Mr. MacPherson: We have around 240 schools, haven't we? I think we have fifty-two schools with oil burners, and then we have two schools with oil-burning in part; in other words, the Theodore Roosevelt has an oil burner in the gymnasium. The Michael Perkins has a small burner in part of the building. If you have 240 schools, you have somewhere around 188 with coal, and the only place where I would recommend putting oil in which hasn't already an oil burner would be the Clarence Edwards because we have stokers there which were installed about 1931.

I would concentrate on taking out those old oil burners because if we didn't, we will have to put grates in and it will be in the middle of winter.

Mr. Mooney: Do you consider the Russell Boiler Works a reputable organization?

Mr. MacPherson: We have a small amount of emergency boiler retubing in the winter. In the summer we have the boiler insurance company, who are charged by the State with that responsibility. We cannot inspect the boilers ourselves for safety. The State assumes that, and they deputize it to these various insurance companies.

We have the Employers' Liability which inspects every boiler in the school system. They furnish us a list of the repairs that are needed. That is only on the boilers. We then advertise that list and the Daniel Russell Boiler Company, I think, has been low for the last fifteen years, if not more. At least they have been doing business with us for over thirty years, and there is only one other boiler company doing boiler work, and that is the Hodge Boiler Works, and it we give them some work.

Mr. Muchnick: Both of those companies are in the telephone book, aren't they?

Mr. MacPherson: Yes, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Cronin: They are in the directory, too.

Mr. MacPherson: Here is the point, Mr. Muchnick. There have to be extras on that work.

Dr. Foley: At least you gave the others a rest while you were talking, Mr. MacPherson.

Mrs. Lyons: Are there any more questions?

Mr. Muchnick: Not at this time, Madam Chairman.

Mr. O'Connell: I have just one question I would like to pose. Would you be good enough to give us the reason why you don't come down to our headquarters and talk things over—more particularly this meeting which we are holding here now?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I don't know if the question was directed at me—

Mr. O'Connell: I have been so used to talking to you all night long.

Mr. Muchnick: If it is directed to me, the answer is very simple as far as I am concerned.

I have absolutely no objection to going down to Norman Street. In the first instance, the former Chairman of the Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners, when we suggested a meeting—even before we suggested a meeting, if my memory serves me correctly—wrote that he was not a candidate for renomination and reelection of the Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners and thought that it would be a good idea if he, having spent ten years on the Commission and several of them as Chairman, and the other members of the Commission and the paid personnel discussed the entire situation.

Mr. O'Connell: Are you leading up now to the reason why you didn't come down.

Mr. Muchnick: No, I am trying to answer your question, Joe. Mr. Cronin: In a roundabout way.

Mr. Muchnick: He said he would be very happy to give us the benefit of his wisdom and experience; and on a motion made by somebody here it was voted to accept that offer and we sent a letter to the Schoolhouse Commission asking them to come up here and meet with us.

On many occasions in the past during my term on the School Committee, the Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners or their representatives, Mr. Mooney and the others, have come before the School Committee at least twenty-five times in my five years on the School Committee, and it has always been the practice and always been assumed that the meetings would take place here, so we asked you to come here.

Then when we started getting some very snippy, snooty letters concerning the problem, it seemed to the School Committee that, our invitation to meet here having been first accepted, we ought to extend the invitation again despite the snippiness.

Mr. O'Connell: So why don't you tell us in a few well-chosen words?

Mr. Mooney: Finally we got together.

Dr. Foley: These are the headquarters, and the public is interested, and it's a nice amphitheatre here.

Mr. Muchnick: And judging from the way Milan moves in and out of there, you would never be able to hold a discussion with all that noise.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, March 23, 1953.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., President AHEARN in the chair. Absent, Councillor HURLEY.

The Reverend Callistus Connolly, C.P., of St. Gabriel's Catholic Monastery, Brighton, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. CALLISTUS CONNOLLY, C.P.

In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.
O Lord, Father Almighty, Everlasting God, it is right and fitting for us to call upon Thee at all times and in all places. This afternoon, therefore, in this Council Chamber, we raise our minds and our hearts to Thee and to Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, as the source of all true wisdom which is the firm foundation of justice and their prudent enforcement. O Holy Spirit, bless and guide the deliberations of this Council as the honorable members of this body use the source of their power in the affairs of men. May they also find in Thee the pattern of a just administration and so may they with Thy blessing foster and increase the common good of each of Thy children. Bless, we beseech Thee, O Lord, this Council, our city, the nation and the world. Deliver us from all the snares committed by the devil, that Thy holy angels dwell with us and guard us, and finally may Thy blessing, O Lord, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, be with each of us and remain with us forever. These and all heavenly blessings we ask in the name of Him who taught us to pray to Thee: Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with Thee. Blessed art Thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of Thy womb, Jesus. Hail Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

RENAMING OF ANDREW SQUARE IN HONOR OF PATRICK JOSEPH CONNELLY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 16, 1953.
To The City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Secretary of the Board of Street Commissioners relative to your order of March 2, 1953, requesting that Andrew square, South Boston, be renamed in honor of the memory of Patrick Joseph Connolly.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Street Laying-Out Department,
March 5, 1953.

Mr. Thomas G. Shannon,
City Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

The Committee to Memorialize Veterans is in receipt of an order of the City Council requesting that the committee rename Andrew square, South Boston, in honor of Patrick Joseph Connolly.

In 1891 the open space at the junction of Dorchester avenue, Dorchester, Swett (now Southampton street), Boston, and Preble streets was named in honor of Patrick Joseph Connolly, famous war governor, John A. Andrew. For over sixty years this square has been a well-known important center and the terminus for several highways and a subway station in the Dorchester Tunnel.

The committee does not recommend the changing of the name of this square originally named for our war governor to the name of any war veteran but would be glad to cooperate with the Councilors interested in the selection of some other location.

For the Committee,
LAWRENCE W. COSTELLO, Secretary.

USE OF REVENUE FROM PARKING METERS FOR POLICE DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 23, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the City Auditor relative to your order of March 9, 1953, concerning the request that data be compiled with respect to the cost of police personnel engaged in policing parking meters in the City of Boston, and the purpose of effecting a transfer from the parking meter fund to the Police budget the equivalent sum of money thus reducing by the same amount money necessary to be appropriated by taxes on real estate.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Auditing Department, March 19, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

An order passed by the City Council under date of March 9, 1953, provides as follows:

"That his Honor the Mayor request the Auditor to gather and compile data with respect to the cost of police personnel engaged in policing parking meters in the City of Boston for the purpose of effecting a transfer from the Parking Meter Fund to the Police budget of the equivalent sum of money thus reducing by the same amount money necessary to be appropriated by taxes on real estate."

Since the initial installation of parking meters, it has been the practice to charge to the assessors as a credit in the determination of the annual tax rate. The amounts so estimated have been reported by me to the assessors in my annual estimate of anticipated departmental receipts and have been included as the assessors as a credit in the determination of the annual tax rate.

Respectfully,

CHARLES J. FOX,
City Auditor.

APPROPRIATION FOR OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES AT DUDLEY STREET DISTRICT, ROXBURY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 20, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

In conformity with the program of the city to establish local off-street parking areas, I transmit herewith an order for the construction of a parking area in the Dudley Street section of Roxbury.

This proposed area will permit parking by 110 cars. It is immediately behind the business section and is the area approved by the merchants of the Dudley Street section.

The total cost of the construction of this area is estimated to be about $27,500, the funds for which are available in the Parking Meter Fund.

I respectfully request consideration and early action on this proposed parking facility, as well as the two pending orders in your Body for the Fields Corner area and the Cleary Square area. It is imperative that approval of these orders be given so that the areas may be available at the earliest possible time.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Board of Real Estate Commissioners,
March 16, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.
Re: Dudley Street, Roxbury, Off-Street Parking Site.

Dear Sir: Mayor:

An engineer of the City Planning Board was assigned by the Chairman to make a study of a possible off-street parking facility in the Dudley Street section of Roxbury. I conferred with the Chairman of the Traffic Commission, William Arthur Reilly, concerning the locus selected by the Planning Board engineer and he is in agreement.

The area selected is known as "Area C." It having first been determined that the Dudley Street Terminal area is a "corner" shopping center, in accordance with the City Planning Board's "General Plan for Boston."

This area consists of 41,849 square feet of land and will have a capacity of 110 cars. It will have a frontage on Rugles street and Shawmut avenue and will be directly in rear of the stores facing on Washington street, that extend from Vernon street to Rugles street. This area will necessitate the demolition of seven buildings which appear to be in very poor condition.

The assessed value of the properties to be taken is $42,200, and if we were to allow 25 per cent above that is the probable amount of land damages, the cost of the land to us would be approximately $52,750. The cost of improvements would be about $27,500, the total being $80,250. Assuming an average meter income on this area of $5.56 per month, it will take 14 years to amortize the initial investment of the city.

Therefore, a request is made of the City Council that they appropriate the amount of $80,250 from the Parking Meter Fund to be transferred to the Board of Real Estate Commissioners for suburban off-street parking purposes.

Very truly yours,

HERMAN CARP, Chairman.

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 22B of chapter 40 of the General Laws as established by chapter 776 of the Acts of 1949 the sum of eighty thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($80,250.00) hereinafter is appropriated, from the special account "Parking Meter Fees," to be expended by the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, for acquiring off-street parking areas and facilities and for constructing or reconstructing and resurfacing such areas and facilities in the Dudley Street section of the Roxbury district.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and Finance.

EXAMINATION OF RECORDS OF OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 16, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners relative to your order of March 9, 1953, concerning the request that the books and records of all presently operating leased off-street parking facilities be examined for the purpose of compiling and making available to prospective bidders on off-street facilities financial data on which to base informed bids.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Board of Real Estate Commissioners,
March 16, 1953.

Mr. Thomas G. J. Shannon,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.
Re: City Council Order of March 9, 1953, Requesting That the Books and Records of All Presently Operating Leased Off-Street Parking Facilities Be Examined for the Purpose of Compiling and Making Available to Prospective Bidders on Off-Street Parking Facilities Financial Data on Which to Base Informed Bids.

Dear Sir:

At the meeting of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners held on Thursday, March 12, 1953, I presented to the Board the City Council order dated March 9, 1953, in which it was Ordered, That the Board of Real Estate Commissioners avail themselves of statutory and contractual privileges to examine the books and records of all presently operating leased off-street parking facilities for the purpose of compiling and making available to prospective bidders on off-street parking facilities financial data on which to base informed bids.

It was the consensus of the Board that it had no statutory nor contractual rights to demand audits from the operators of any of the city-owned off-street parking sites with the exception of unit No. 1, at Columbia, Lincoln, and Essex streets, Boston; and in connection with that locus it was "Voted, That the Board, for the present, is willing to accept certified figures as submitted by the lessee, and subsequently to determine a reasonable time before the expiration of the lease, to have its opinion an audit of the books is required."

I trust that this sufficiently answers the queries as previously stated in said Council order.

Very truly yours,

HERMAN CARP, Chairman.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

SALE OF FERRYBOATS AND EQUIPMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 16, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I am informed by the Commissioner of Public Works that several offers have been made for the purchase of the ferryboats of "Charles C. Donoghue" and "Daniel A. McCormack."

After receipt of the various offers, it is the opinion of the Commissioner of Public Works that an upper price of $22,500 should be established for the sale of each of the ferryboats. The commissioner is also of the opinion that the sale of the ferries, drop boats, straining machinery, galleys frames, and other sundry items should be sold at public auction, for whatever reasonable price this equipment will bring.

In view of the fact that prospective purchasers of the ferryboats would desire to put these boats in service at the beginning of the summer, it is imperative that the sale of these boats be consummated as quickly as possible. Therefore, I hereby request that your Honorable Body give prompt approval to the accompanying two orders so that the sale of the boats and the miscellaneous equipment may take place on April 2.

Respectfully yours,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
March 11, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
Due to the discontinuance of the Ferry system, we now have available for sale two steel ferries, four steel bridge drops, two sets of bridge operating machinery, two structural steel gallow frame structures, as well as sundry other items. The boats, bridges, and all other equipment used in connection with the operation of the Ferry should be disposed of, as this department has no further use for them.

In order to reach as many prospective purchasers as possible and to obtain offers for the sale of the two ferries and the other equipment, the department recently advertised in the leading trade-magazines and newspapers in the water-front cities on the Eastern Coast. To date I have received several offers for the purchase of the boats, the highest being in the amount of $12,000 each. No offers were received for the bridge drops or other machinery.

The sale of ferries is restricted to a narrow field, due to the comparatively small number of ferries in operation at the present time, and, under the circumstances, I feel that we did well to receive any offers at all. We should, therefore, take immediate advantage of these offers and hold a public auction to dispose of the boats, bridges, and other surplus equipment and materials. In general, the summer months are the busiest in the ferry operation, and any prospective purchaser, therefore, would want to obtain the boats not later than April, in order to have sufficient time to remodel them and possibly convert them from coal-burning to oil or Diesel operation, and place them in service at an early date. Therefore, the time element is of importance, and I have tentatively established Thursday, April 2, as the date on which to hold the auction.

It is my opinion that an upset price of $12,000 should be established for the sale of each ferryboat, and that no upset price should be established for the sale of ferry bridges and other equipment.

I respectfully recommend, therefore, that an attached order providing for the sale of the boats at an upset price of $12,000 each, of the ferries "Charles C. Donoghue" and "Daniel A. McCormack," be forwarded to the City Council for approval of that Body; and I also recommend that the accompanying order authorizing the sale of the four steel bridge drops, operating machinery, gallow frame and other sundry items, be sent to the City Council for approval.

I respectfully request that you ask the members of the Council to take early and favorable action on the attached two orders, so that the auction may be held on April 2, as scheduled. Incidentally, the following is a record of the ferries previously sold, and the prices obtained for same:

"John H. Sullivan," sold in 1934 for $10,000.
"R. J. Palumbo," sold in 1935 for $10,000.
"John Flaherty," sold in 1938 for $40,000.
"Ralph J. Palumbo," sold in 1950 for $22,500.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be, and hereby is, authorized to sell at public auction, at an upset price of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) each, the ferries "Charles C. Donoghue" and "Daniel A. McCormack."

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be, and hereby is, authorized to sell at public auction four steel bridge drops, four sets of bridge operating machinery, and other sundry items, consisting of surplus materials, etc., formerly used in connection with the maintenance and operation of the Ferry system.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

SALE OF SAND, GRAVEL, ETC., BY PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, March 23, 1953.
Gentlemen:

I submit herewith an order authorizing the Commissioner of Public Works to sell surplus sand, gravel and other earth material located on city-owned land northwest of Gardner street, West Roxbury. This material will be sold to the contractor who made the highest bid at a price of 17.7 cents per cubic yard. The city will be reimbursed to the amount of approximately $12,000.

The communication from the Commissioner of Public Works submitted herewith, is self-explanatory. I recommend the passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
March 20, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Publicly advertised proposals were opened in this office yesterday for removing and disposing of sand, gravel and other materials from city-owned land that is located northwest of Gardner street, West Roxbury.

The following tabulation contains the list of bidders and the bid prices:

Charles Callahan Company, 17.7 cents per cubic yard.

John Deveney Company, 11 cents per cubic yard.

Sylvester A. Ray, 4 cents per cubic yard.

William P. Capone Corporation, .5 cent per cubic yard.

The contract provides for the payment to the city, by the successful bidder, of the bid price per cubic yard for the excavating and removal of sand and gravel that is located on the city-owned land that was purchased about two years ago for use as a refuse disposal dump and as a future site for a refuse incinerator.

We estimate that there are at least 68,000 yards of gravel that should be removed before the affected areas are covered with refuse materials. The city paid $36,000 to the former owner for this land, and I feel that we can realize at least $12,000 from the sale of the surplus sand and gravel in the next year.

In view of this, it obviously is good business for the city to have the material removed by a contractor, particularly when we have received a bid as favorable as the one submitted by the high bidder, the Charles Callahan Company. In addition, the removal of the surplus gravel increases the capacity of the dump for refuse material.

This is to certify that the sand and gravel represents surplus material not needed by this department, and as its value will exceed $500, the necessary approval to dispose of this material will have to be granted by the City Council. Time is of the essence, and I would appreciate it, therefore, if the said order were submitted to the City Council for the approval of that Body on next Monday, March 23.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be, and hereby is, authorized to sell to the Charles Callahan Company, at the high bid price of seventeen and seven-tenths (17.7) cents per cubic yard, surplus sand, gravel, and other earth material located in city-owned land northwest of Gardner street, West Roxbury.

Dear Sir:

You forwarded to this department a copy of the Resolve adopted March 2, 1953, by the City Council of the City of Boston, the same pertaining to the reconstruction of the Meridian Street Bridge between Boston and Chelsea.

This department has at present underway two contracts for the reconstruction of this project, one being for the substructure, which is about 95 per cent complete and for which the contract work will be finished early this spring. The other contract is with the American Bridge Company for the superstructure and decking of the bridge. The contractor on this project advises that preliminary work will get underway in April or May with their actual erection of steel on the bridge proper starting about September 1, 1953. On this basis, the American Bridge Company will complete the work required under their contract on or about June 30, 1954, the completion date of the contract. Accordingly the opening of this new bridge to traffic is about fifteen months away.

RECENT FEDERAL ACTIONS AFFECTING CITIES.

The Housing Act of 1949, approved on July 15, authorized a uniform 10 per cent payment to cities in lieu of taxes on housing projects, but the independent offices appropriation bill passed on August 15 contains a provision that for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, only payments provided for in the original contract between the housing authority and the city are authorized for federal reimbursement.

Federal aid for hospital construction has been approved for nearly 800 projects; more than 600 are general hospitals and the great majority are in towns of under 10,000 population.

REPORT OF NATHAN P. HARRIS, PRINCIPAL, HORACE MANN SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF, ON ATTENDANCE AT ANNUAL CONVENTION OF AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS IN ATLANTIC CITY.

The following is the report on attendance of Nathan P. Harris, principal, Horace Mann School, at the Annual Meeting of the Department of Elementary School Principals, N.E.A., Atlantic City, February 12-14, 1953:

The opening meeting on Thursday, February 12, was highlighted by an address of Miss Helen Heffernan of the State Department of Education of Sacramento, California, entitled "Bases For Effective Learning."

We are responsible as educators for creating in the children the significance of interest in learning. Present-day handicaps reveal a shortage of fully qualified teachers, and classes that are too large. No teacher can effectually care for and provide for individual differences in classes of over twenty-five.

Books are not the answer to learning. There should be more field trips and opportunities for actual experiences with real things in the community. Func-

REPAIRING OF PAVEMENT OF SUMNER TUNNEL APPROVED BY MAYOR — JOHN J. AMARA GETS CONTRACT — PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER HYLAND MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT — COST TO APPROXIMATE $9,300.

The work of repairing the pavement of the Sumner Tunnel is to begin immediately. The contract for this work has been let to John J. Amara at an estimated sum of $9,300. This announcement was made by George G. Hyland, Public Works Commissioner, and approved by Mayor John B. Hynes. The letter of announcement, as approved by the Mayor, reads as follows:

CITY OF BOSTON,
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,
APRIL 1, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

Under date of March 26, 1953, bids were received, after publicly advertising for same, for repairing the pavement of the Sumner Tunnel. The lowest proposal of three received was from John J. Amara, at an estimated amount of HISTORICAL DORCHESTER HEIGHTS AREA, SOUTH BOSTON, FIRST CHOSEN BY MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES IN PLANS FOR CITY-WIDE NEIGHBORHOOD REHABILITATION — AIM NOT AT RAZING AND REBUILDING BUT TO FRESHEN UP AND RESTORE TO CORRODING DISTRICTS NEW VITALITY AND BEAUTY BY PLANTING TREES ON WALKS, INSTALLING BETTER LIGHTING SYSTEM, AND REPAIRING STREETS.

The historical Dorchester Heights area of South Boston has been designated by Mayor John B. Hynes as the "Pilot Area" for the proposed city-wide neighborhood rehabilitation and conservation program inaugurated by him in an effort to check the spread of blight and corrosion in the older sections of the city.

The area selected lies between Broadway on the north, the water front on the south, I street on the east, and F street on the west. The center of the area is marked by the famous Telegraph Hill, on which stands the Washington Monument commemorating the historical siege and evacuation of Boston.

The Mayor, in his statement to the city department heads charged with the responsibility of carrying out his aims, said, "Pursuant to the recommendation of the 'Steering Committee' of the Boston Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Committee, I have designated a section of historical South Boston as the 'Pilot Area.' The Steering Committee is composed of George G. Hyland, Public Works Commissioner; Dr. John H. Cauley, Commissioner of Health; Harry J. Keefe, Building Commissioner; Edward W. Fallon, Superintendent of Police; and Frank R. Kelley, Park Commissioner. Paul H. Hines, Industrial Counselor, is serving as city coordinator.

To Improve Area.

"As a means of stimulating and encouraging the owners of real estate in the 'Pilot Area' to clean up, paint up, fix up, and plant up their properties," the Mayor's statement said, "it is my hope to have the city, living within its present appropriations, plant appropriate shade trees along all sidewalks within the prescribed area where practical and where such planting will restore the former beauty of the streets; replace all gas lights with modern electric lights and install additional such lights where needed; repair all streets in the area where necessary; raze or cause to be erased the few antiquated houses that have been condemned by the Building Department as unsafe for living or working purposes; require all property owners within the area to conform with the legal sanitary, building, and fire prevention requirements, all with a view toward making the area a better and safer place in which to work and live.

"It is also my hope that all of this work will begin on or before May 1, 1953, and be completed as soon as practical. It is only through such dispatch that we can hope to win the city-wide interest, cooperation, and public confidence in the over-all long-range program.

"A committee of prominent South Boston citizens will be named to serve as an Advisory Committee to aid the 'Steering Committee' in making the 'Pilot Area' experiment a success.

MAYOR HYNES PLANS TO BEAUTIFY DORCHESTER HEIGHTS.

"I also request the City Planning Board to provide the 'Steering Committee,' as soon as practicable, with a list of other areas of the city in which neighborhood rehabilitation and conservation programs should be promptly inaugurated. The proposed long-range development program should not be allowed to impede this interim race against blight and corrosion.

"The problem in question," the Mayor told the department heads, "is not the wholesale clearance and rebuilding of slum areas, but rather the reconditioning of the older parts of the city where existing structures are basically sound, and where the obsolescence of both dwellings and neighborhood environment have resulted in deteriorating property values and living conditions.

LONG-RANGE PROGRAM.

"A comprehensive, long-range action program in these areas, involving the conservation of the dwellings by the owners themselves under the citizens' co-operation, supplemented by municipal efforts to improve neighborhood conditions by bringing public facilities up to new standards and providing a higher level of municipal services, is what is needed.

"It is my hope that all of the areas involved will be improved and beautified as a result of this program and that many of the streets in such districts will be readorned with trees and shrubbery, better lighted, and restored to their former pride and dignity.

"I believe that such a program, which I have long had under consideration and which has been advocated by various civic and political organizations as well as the City Planning Board, is a sound way to stem the spread of blight, to stabilize property values, to protect the city's tax base, and to further promote safe and healthful living conditions."

To assist the city officials in the promotion of the city-wide program, neighborhood committees consisting of the owners and occupants of properties in the so-called "blighted areas" will be appointed by the Mayor from time to time as the program progresses. If the program meets with popular approval, within a year or two local neighborhood rehabilitation and conservation committees should be in existence in every blighted area in Boston.

Similar neighborhood rehabilitation and conservation programs are now in operation in a number of leading municipalities, and, judging from reports received by the Mayor from leaders of civic and political organizations, they have met with notable success in at least some cases. Outstanding accomplishments have been obtained in Baltimore, Maryland, and Charlotte, North Carolina, whose precincts had been seriously affected by deterioration.

A comparative study made by city officials indicates that, while considerable decay has set in in all of the older cities of the nation, as a result of the stringent building, fire, and sanitary codes that have been long in existence here, Boston legal requirements for health and safety have checked blight over the years to a marked degree.

SUMNER TUNNEL TO BE REPAVED.

$9,300. The other proposals received were from Adams Asphalt Company, Inc., $11,900, and from Rufo Construction Company, Inc., $14,750.

Under one part of Item 4 of the proposal the city invited bidders to submit a lump sum price for one thousand (1,000) granite blocks furnished, stored, etc., as specified. In addition, in a separate column of the same Item 4, the proposal indicated the "Quantity" as 1,000. As a result of the foregoing, two of the bidders, John J. Amara and Adams Asphalt Company, Inc., construed this as a solicitation of a unit price per block, furnished and stored, etc., based on a quantity of 1,000 blocks, and so set out a unit price of 25 cents and 50 cents, their respective total bids for the Item 4 work being $250 and $500. The third bidder, Rufo Construction Company, Inc., inserted a lump sum price for Item 4, in the amount of $300.

Irrespective of the interpretations placed upon this Item 4 by the bidders, the ultimate result in the total amounts bid, from the standpoint of ascertaining who submitted the lowest bid for the whole project remained the same, as is seen from the total amounts bid by each of them, as set out above.

The city is desirous of having this work completed as soon as possible, and since the John J. Amara firm is willing to perform the work specified at the total price bid, $9,300, including therein the Item 4 work at a total cost of $250, and as its total price is the lowest offered for the entire work, it is felt that it is in the best interest of the city to award the contract at the unit prices bid, plus the Item 4 lump sum price, to John J. Amara, at a maximum contract cost of $9,300, plus $2,262 which represents 25 per cent of the total of the original proposal, exclusive of the price bid for the Item 4 work.

I have requested authority to award the proposed contract in the total amount of the proposal, plus 25 per cent thereof, excepting that part of the work which is the subject of the lump sum bid, because the quantities set out in the proposal are merely estimates, and the quantities of each item of work which it may be found necessary to perform as the work progresses may well exceed the original estimates.

Therefore, your authorization is requested to reject all bids and dispense with further public advertising and to award the contract to John J. Amara, in a sum not to exceed $11,562.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

tional neighborhood schools are better than large concentrated units where pupils and teachers never get to know each other.

LACKS IN SCHOOLS.

Lacking in too many schools throughout the country are library facilities, audio-visual material and equipment, experiences in the arts and sciences, and training in physical education. Competent educators can remedy this by working with leaders in the community.

Mass education seems inescapable. We must help our teachers to feel that perfectionism lies beyond the realm of reality. The teacher must make the classroom a rich and wholesome living experience. The physical aspect of the room is so important. If the child is to reach its highest potentialities it must have a good learning environment, good flexible seating, group discussion, and the dramatizing of class projects. The old-type repetitious recitation by all children was never effective.

There should be a variety of learning material, better books, tools, clay, large paper, toys, films, and recordings. Through field trips the resources of the entire community must be made available. Communities will help if you give them the opportunity.

There must be natural drives for learning. They need to be active, to satisfy curiosity, to share and communicate, to construct, and to express themselves in esthetic mediums. Thus will they learn.

Family life must add to the schooling experiences. We must work with parents to improve the conditions and the environment in which the child may grow.

Differences of children vary in the physical, intellectual, and emotional aspects of the human being. More effort is not enough to compensate for inherent weaknesses. Admonition and threats of punishment will not help the child with problems. We must find the basic facts that cause these difficulties. We must know if it is because of physical weakness, poor eyesight, a loss of hearing acuity, poor teeth, etc., that a child is faced with problems.

HOME BACKGROUND.

What is the child's home background? The economic standing and attitudes of the parents? Are we asking the child to do more than he is able to do? He must see the significance of what we are trying to give him. We must understand why he acts as he does. The child reveals things to us by his behavior. We must use techniques of child study and not leave them to just written pages in a book. Some textbooks are away from the child and certainly do not provide for individual differences.

To make learning more effective the teacher must release the child from tension in new learning situations. Must recognize new difficulties of children and help to get them over the hurdles. Must preserve child's security.

Principal must work with teachers at all times. Must develop a philosophy of human relations that is to exist in his school. Must minimize hostility and tension within the group. He releases creative ability to make teacher do best work. He contributes to the welfare of the group. He recognizes wide experiences and abilities of his group and has them participate. His leadership must be shared by all in the group. He must recognize those with qualities of leadership. He must be a human relation expert. His philosophy will be reflected in all classrooms and cause good learning.

On Friday and Saturday, February 13 and 14, 1953, the visiting principals split up and attended panel discussions to suit their own interests.

I attended a section on Evaluation and Measurement. These two words are generally differentiated. In general, measurement is thought of as precise quantitative description, while evaluation is described as appraisal in terms of some criterion of excellence. Evaluation usually goes beyond measurement in its use of value concepts.

A school must justify its program by evaluating it in some way. If it may be shown that the three R's are well taught or that the graduates achieve well in life or later in some other school, such facts are frequently used in the evaluation of the school. Sometimes schools are evaluated in ways that are open to serious question. There is a widespread belief today among educators that schools cannot be evaluated in terms of measurement by tests. They regard measurement and evaluation as potentially useful only in terms of the effectiveness of education as it pertains to individual children. These people believe that it is the methods and processes and not the schools or the classes that may be evaluated as new techniques are devised and as attainable goals are progressively developed.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION.

The first step in evaluating elementary education is to determine what education is intended to accomplish. We know that elementary schools are concerned with educating children, but education how—and for what? These are the things that must be known if evaluation is to have any useful consequences.

Evaluation is an inherent part of the process of expanding the store of human learning. At the same time it is an essential element in the learning of each individual. Certainly, evaluation must be a part of any effort to improve, of any effort to reach a goal, of any effort to measure gain or loss in terms of quality. Evaluation is the process of assigning value to the results of measurement or to other data.

The concept of measurement in education is familiar to teachers. There are formal and informal tests, oral or written, essay or objective type, that measure both broad general outcomes and limited specific fields. Measurement in education is to be used in at least three important ways: (1) improvement of instruction; (2) improvement of administration and management; (3) improvement of society's purposes for and control of education.

Measurement and evaluation must concern themselves with the whole life of the child—emotional, intellectual, mental, physical, social, ethical, esthetic—in the classroom, on the playground, in the home, and in the community. They must take into account the needs of society.

Evaluation must take into account the objectives of education or there is nothing to evaluate. Objectives are ends that are sought because they have value. Values spring from ways of thinking and feeling about things. In education our measuring instruments should be neutral, but those who use them should be devoted to the promotion of certain common values. To be neutral, in the best sense, a measuring instrument must be free of internal bias and its usefulness constantly open to checking, calibration, and reassessment.

We all realize that no matter how effectively we devise new instruments today, they will be discarded again and again as we learn more. We still do not know what actually takes place in the nervous system when we think. The effect of the various social and emotional factors in relation to learning the knowledge and skills is in need of much clarification. We are far from utilizing what we know, but we must be aware that further knowledge will continually modify both our theory and our practices.

As I listened to the problems discussed and the needs outlined for the future to improve all educational systems, I felt with a great deal of pride that our Boston School Department was far ahead in every respect.

I most certainly appreciate the privilege of attending this convention and sincerely thank the members of the School Committee, Dr. Haley, and Miss Reynolds for their interest in this matter.

DEAR SIR:

Your approval is respectfully requested to the award of a contract for earth excavation and refilling to assist the Water Division employees to install, regulate or repair Water Division structures and other incidental work in the Dorchester (Water Division) district, to John J. Appel, 73 Moreland street, Roxbury, at an estimated cost of $54,700.

Because of the nature of the work involved it is considered inadvisable to award more than one district to any one contractor and, therefore, since the contractors who submitted the lowest prices for the Dorchester (Water Division) district have been awarded a contract covering another district, it is considered that it will be in the best interest of the city to award the contract for the Dor-

The work to be done under this contract is to be completed March 31, 1954. The following bids were received March 19, 1953, after advertising in the City Record March 7, 1953:

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 26, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

We have had difficulty in obtaining suitable trees for planting on one of our recently completed playgrounds as a shortage of trees exists, due in part to the various housing authorities purchases having depleted the supply.

We have found that the Blueview Nurseries have a limited supply of Norway maples of the 2-inch caliper size which we feel is the most suitable tree for this location. They have given us a quotation of $50 per tree which includes the excavation of the 5-foot x 5-foot x 3-foot deep tree pit, the filling of it with loam and fertilizer and the furnishing, planting, staking and wiring of the tree. We feel that the price quoted is reasonable and it is the same price we paid last year for the same type of work.

As we are desirous of planting the playground the first thing in the spring and setting in the trees before they leaf, and as the supply of trees is limited, we feel that it would be in the best interests of the city to award the work, without publicly advertising, to the above firm at the unit price quoted.

Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that we be permitted to award a contract, without advertising, to Blueview Nurseries, 32 Gaston street, Roxbury, for preparing pits and planting trees at the William Gary Walsh Playground, Dorchester, Mass., for a sum not to exceed $2,500; same to be charged to special appropriation "Park and Playground Improvements, etc."

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Chairman.

PRINTING DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 30, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your Honor's permission is respectfully requested to permit the Printing Department to award a contract, without advertising, to the Uarco, Inc., 132 Newbury street, Boston, Mass., for furnishing 100,000 sets 5-ply Continuous Bump Fastened authorization forms at $22.20 per thousand sets, $2,220, 50,000 sets Continuous Relief Disbursement forms at $86.50 per thousand sets, $4,325.00, total cost approximately $6,549.50.

These forms are to be furnished to meet the yearly requirements of the Welfare Department.

These continuous forms are designed for use on machines equipped with a Tabuliner loaned to the Overseers of Public Welfare several years ago by the Uarco, Inc., and it is still in use at this department. This Tabuliner is a pinwheel feeding device to insure perfect alignment in the feeding of these forms through the machine. The present market price of this device is $350.

The above-named company has furnished the Overseers of Public Welfare with these forms for many years and its product has always been highly satisfactory.

In view of this satisfactory performance continuously rendered on the part of this contractor during so many years and because of the special type of feeding device used by the Overseers of Public Welfare on these forms, in my opinion nothing would be gained by public advertising, and therefore I respectfully request your permission for the awarding of a contract, without advertising, to the Uarco, Inc., for the furnishing of these forms to the city at an estimated cost of $6,549.50.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN J. TWOMEY,
Superintendent.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 27, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pending the award of contracts for which publicly advertised bids were recently requested, we have issued service orders to the contracting firms of Mary E. Taaffe, John J. Appel, and James A. Freaney, Inc., for the furnishing of labor, materials, and equipment necessary for earth excavation to allow Water Division employees to make emergency repairs, respectively, in the Brighton, Dorchester, and West Roxbury districts.

These service orders have exceeded $1,000, and the City Auditor insists that I obtain your approval and prepare written contracts covering the work done.

I therefore respectfully request your approval to the issuance of a service order, or to the entering into a contract if necessary, in the amount of $750, to Mary E. Taaffe of 35 Presentation road, Brighton, for doing the above-referenced work. I also respectfully request your approval to entering into a contract with John J. Appel of 78 Moreland street, Roxbury, in an amount not in excess of $1,500, to do the above-referenced work, and I also respectfully request your approval to entering into a contract with James A. Freaney, Inc., in an amount not to exceed $1,500, for doing the above-referenced work.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, March 27, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I wish to amend my letter of March 23 that I sent to you concerning the award of refuse collection contracts insofar as said letter affects my recommendations concerning the proposed award to Joseph P. McCabe, Inc.

I have been informed today by Mr. McCabe that he does not want to accept the contract, because, in his opinion, he has not been fairly treated, and he feels that his price is not sufficiently high to guarantee performance and allow for a profit. By "not being fairly treated," I presume he means he would have liked other districts in preference to District 7C, Mission Hill. Regardless of the reason, I do not feel that we should award the contract to him under such circumstances, as we do not want any disgruntled contractors on work of this type.

Therefore, I respectfully request that you cancel the authority to award the contract in District 7C, Mission Hill, to the above-referenced contractor, and that you approve the award of a contract for a one-year period, at the bid price of $6,790 per month, to Mariniucci Brothers & Co., Inc., for collecting and removing garbage and refuse in District 7C, Mission Hill.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, March 30, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I wish to amend my letter of March 23 that I sent to you concerning the award of refuse collection contracts insofar as said letter affects my recommendation concerning the proposed award to James A. Freaney, Inc., for collecting and removing garbage and refuse in District 1, South Boston.

My recommendation was based on the presumed bid price of $12,240 per month, as submitted by the Freaney Company. Upon examination of the original proposal submitted by the contractor, I find that the actual bid was $12,440 per month, but that it had been erroneously read at the public opening as $12,240 per month. The latter-referenced mistake was understandable in that the bidder originally inserted the price of $12,240, and prior to the submitting of the proposal, wrote the word "four" over the original insertion of the word "two." In addition, he changed the original figures from $12,240 to $12,440. Therefore, the written words, which govern, were not easily legible, with the result that an error was made in the reading.

We have checked with the Auditor's copy of the proposal, and the bid also submitted by the contractor on this proposal was in the amount of $12,440. Therefore, I feel that the city is legally and morally bound to award the contract in the amount of $12,440. In addition, the $200 per month difference would have had no effect on my original recommendation, as I would have recommended the Freaney Company whether the bid was in the amount of $12,240 or $12,440. Under the circumstances, therefore, it is my opinion that we should award the contract on the basis of the contractor's bid of $12,440.

I respectfully request, therefore, your approval to the awarding of a contract to James A. Freaney, Inc., for collecting and removing garbage and refuse in District 1, South Boston, for a one-year period from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, on the basis of the contractors furnishing open-top trucks, at the bid price of $12,440 per month.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 20, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 6, 1953, bids on proposals for furnishing ice cream mix to the various city departments from April 1, 1953, to September 30, 1953, inclusive, were publicly opened and read in this office. Tabulation of prices received is attached.

The lowest bidder was Shawmut Dairy, Inc.; however, the Auditor's copy of their bid was irregular. Authority is therefore requested to reject all bids received at the public opening and award a contract, without further public advertisement, to Shawmut Dairy, Inc., at the prices submitted in their original proposal. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $12,898, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, March 26, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Fire Department has submitted a requisition to this office for the following:

300 only fire alarm box plain ruby globes.

100 only fire alarm box plain ruby domes.

American Service Company, Inc., has furnished these globes and domes to the Fire Department previously and at all times they have been in compliance with the required specifications and have proven most satisfactory. Inasmuch as American Service Company, Inc., has been the successful low bidder for several years, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to this company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $2,000, less 1 per cent cash discount for payment within ten days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, March 26, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The City Clerk's office has submitted a requisition for 30 rolls of Record Duplex Paper, as per specifications, to be delivered as requested.

The Haloid Company, 141 Milk street, Boston, is the manufacturer of this particular type paper. Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to the Haloid Company. Owing to the fact that this company manufactures the paper requested, it is my opinion that no advantage could be gained by publicly advertising for prices.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $1,383, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, March 30, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On December 15, 1952, your Honor executed a contract to DeMambo Radio Supply Company, Inc., for furnishing radio equipment to the Boston Police Department for the use of the Civil Defense Department.

Subsequent to the execution of this contract, the Director of Civil Defense informed this department that he would like to substitute for one of the items originally mentioned in the contract, namely, twenty-five (25) converters at a price of $36.65 each, a new type converter, namely, twenty-five (25) RME MC-53 converters at a cost of $50.95 each, thereby making an increase of $357.50 in the original award.

As this was a publicly opened bid, your permission is requested to dispense with further public advertisement and to amend the contract by substituting another type converter for the type now specified in the contract as above mentioned and to further amend the contract by increasing the contract sum in the total amount of $357.50 to cover the increased cost of the converter desired by the Civil Defense Department.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, March 31, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On February 10, 1953, following the customary public advertising in the City Record, your Honor approved my written request of February 5, 1953, for the award of a contract in the approximate sum of $30,000 to the present supplier and lowest bidder, Universal Tire and Auto Supply Company, Inc., 1305 Boylston street, Boston, for the furnishing of tires and tubes to the various city departments for the period from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954.

It has now come to my attention that the proposal submitted to the city by the aforementioned firm was a qualified bid, and as a result the bid cannot be considered as responsive to our published invitation for bids.

However, as this firm in fact supplies excellent merchandise and actually submitted the lowest prices for tires and tubes, I am of the firm opinion that it would be in the best interests of the city to enter into a contract with the Universal Tire and Auto Supply Company, Inc., at its offered unit prices for the tires and tubes.

Therefore, this communication is to supersede my earlier request, and your authorization is now requested to reject all the bids received as a result of the public advertising and to enter into a contract in a sum not to exceed $37,500, without additional public advertising, with the Universal Tire and Auto Supply Company, Inc., who now propose unqualifiedly to supply tires and tubes at the prices stated in its formal proposal to the city from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954.

The proposed contract sum of $37,500 takes into account a possible additional expenditure at the contract unit prices of 25 per cent of $30,000, which latter amount would have been the stated contract sum if the award was predicated entirely on the original bid submitted. Our form of contract, as we advertise it, extends to the city the option to purchase an additional 25 per cent at an executed contract's unit price, and, since the contract herein proposed is to be one without public advertisement, it appears to be to the city's advantage to execute it now at a contract cost of $30,000 plus 25 per cent ($7,500) thereof, namely, in the maximum sum of $37,500.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In accordance with the provisions of the letter approved by your Honor on January 20, 1953, authority is requested at this time to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the following company for furnishing perishable foods, etc., to the various city departments from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, inclusive: Radlo Brothers, 5 Commerce street, Boston, Mass.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, March 23, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your permission is respectfully requested to enter into an agreement, without publicly advertising for bids, between the City of Boston and Brink's, Inc., 711 West Monroe street, Chicago, Illinois, for the daily transportation of city funds between City Hall and the First National Bank of Boston and between the National Shawmut Bank of Boston and City Hall.

Brink's Inc., agrees to assume full liability for any loss of any shipment up to the amount of $500,000, except for approximately fifteen uncertain dates when the liability will be $1,000,000, and between the period of September 4 and November 4 when it will be $5,000,000, at a cost to the city of $225 per month for a period of one year beginning April 1, 1953.

Two other financial transportation companies servicing this area were invited to bid for this contract. No response was received from one company, and the other submitted a bid $5 per month in excess of the Brink bid. Our experience with Brink's Inc., has been entirely satisfactory in past years, and no purpose will be served by advertising.

Very truly yours,

DANIEL M. DRISCOLL,
City Treasurer.

Your approval is hereby requested for the award of a contract without public advertising to the Otis Elevator Company for the complete maintenance and servicing of the ten control passenger elevators in the Suffolk County Court House, in service continuously during Court House hours, at a monthly cost of $1,144, exclusive of an added charge of $4.15 per man-hour for any ordered overtime work, for the period commencing with April 1, 1953, and ending March 31, 1954.

The contract shall include provision for the required annual drop test and the replacement of all parts, and, in addition, include monthly supervisory inspection of the three intermittently operated passenger elevators at the Court House and of the two electric book lifts, including also the annual drop test for foregoing apparatus. The approximate total amount contemplated for expenditure under the proposed contract is $13,728.

All of the ten continuously operated signal control passenger elevators, the three other elevators used intermittently for passengers, and the two electric book lifts were manufactured and installed by the Otis Elevator Company, in view of which the Court House Commission believes that nothing would be gained by public advertising for the foregoing service, particularly with the existing and increasing difficulties in procuring the mechanical parts specially designed for use in these machines, unless in stock by the firm furnishing the maintenance service, as is the case in the present instance, since the contractor is the manufacturer of the same.

Furthermore, the charges for the services are reasonable, and the work will be done at the same rates as charged during the preceding 12-month period.

Respectfully yours,

COURT HOUSE COMMISSION,
THOMAS P. McDAVITT,
Chairman.

REGISTRY OF DEEDS.

BOSTON, February 6, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby respectfully request from your Honor written authority to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and, following the effective date of the 1953 budget, to enter into separate contracts with the Recordak Corporation, 99 Bedford street, Boston, for the furnishing of microfilm in rolls at a cost of $6.47 per roll and positive film print at 5½ cents per foot to the Suffolk County Registry of Deeds, and with the Haloid Company, 141 Milk street, Boston, for the furnishing to this Registry of photo-copy duplex paper, in rolls, at $45.45 per roll, and record paper, in rolls, at $31.90 per roll, both contracts being for the period commencing with April 1, 1953, and ending March 31, 1954.

The approximate total amounts contemplated for expenditure under the proposed contracts are, in the case of Recordak Corporation, based on an estimated requirement of 400 rolls of microfilm, 46,200 feet of positive film print, plus up to a $100 return shipping charge, a total cost of $5,229.00, and, in the case of the Haloid Company, based upon an expected need of 150 rolls of duplex paper and 60 rolls of record paper, $8,731.50.

The aforementioned firms have supplied the Registry with most of these same materials for the past several years, and their products have consistently been of the very highest quality. Furthermore, it has been found advantageous to use materials supplied by these firms, as two photo-copy machines in use at the Registry were acquired from the Haloid Company and a microfilm machine in use was purchased from the Recordak Corporation. In respect to the positive film prints, our experience has been that these prints, whenever received from the Recordak Corporation, have been most satisfactory, as this firm has superb equipment and personnel highly skilled in carrying out all the necessary operations in producing positive film prints.

Respectfully yours,

LEO J. SULLIVAN,
Register of Deeds.

Boston, March 19, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby request your authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record and to engage the services of Thomas Groom & Co., Inc., 105 State street, Boston, by contract in a total sum not to exceed $3,490.85, to bind in blank-book bindings, whip- or cross-stitch for single sheets and for folded sheets, twenty pages to a folder, certain books and indexes, as requested during the period April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, in the quantities and at the prices set forth below:

100 1953 record books at $19.60 each, $1,960; 10 1953 registered Land books at $20.15 each, $201.50; 21 1952 grantor classified indexes at $24.25 each, $509.25; 6 1952 grantee classified indexes at $20.85 each, $125.10; 20 volumes consolidated indexes at $24.25 each, $485 — $3,280.85.

In addition, as requested during the contract period, the contractor is to supply twenty canvas jackets for the consolidated indexes at $10.50 per jacket, a total cost of $210.

This company has carried out this kind of service on behalf of the Registry of Deeds over a span of thirty-five to forty years, and its work has been of the very highest quality. Since the proposed prices for the work are fair, and compare favorably with the rates of others engaged in such work in this area, I am confident that this firm will continue to maintain its high standards, and it is not felt that any advantage would be derived by publicly advertising for proposals for this work.

Respectfully yours,

LEO J. SULLIVAN,
Register of Deeds.

MUNICIPAL COURT, ROXBURY DISTRICT.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your authorization to enter into a written contract with Patrick Fitzgerald, doing business as Fitz Taxi at 554 Talbot avenue, Dorchester, without public advertising, providing for the transportation of prisoners to certain designated institutions, as may be requested by and in accordance with the instruction of the court, during the calendar year 1953.

The contractor will be paid for such services as may be ordered and rendered in accordance with a set schedule of rates and as provided in the proposed contract. The total amount of contingent expenditures during 1953 is not to exceed $4,800, with the amount of same in the first three months being limited by applicable statute.

The above-named individual, whose rates are both fair and reasonable, has been engaged in the business of transportation for a considerable number of years and has an established reputation for dependability, efficiency, and the rendering of satisfactory service. Considering the foregoing, I am of the opinion that nothing would be gained by public advertising for bids for the subject services.

Yours truly,

THOMAS J. SPRING,
Justice.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, March 30, 1953.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the City Council Chamber, City Hall at 2 p.m., President AHEARN in the chair. Absent: Councillor Kerrigan.

The Reverend Harold Travers of St. Gabriel's Monastery, Brighton, was escorted to the restroom.

INVOCATION BY REV. HAROLD TRAVERS.

Dearlv beloved, if our hearts do not reprehend us, we have confidence toward God. And whatsoever we shall ask, we shall receive of Him, because we keep His commandments and do those things which are pleasing in His sight. And this is His commandment: That we should believe in the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another as He hath given commandment unto in Him, and He in them. And in this we know that He abideth in us by the Spirit He hath given us.

Dearlv beloved, let us love one another, for charity is of God. And everyone that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not, knoweth not God, for God is charity. By this we know the charity of God, because He loved us, because God hath sent His only begotten Son into the world that we may live by Him. In this is charity: Not as though we loved God, but because He hath first loved us, and sent His Son to be a propitiation for our sins. My dearest, if God hath so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abideth in us, and His charity is perfected in us. In this we know that He abideth in Him and He in us: Because He hath given us of His spirit.

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

O Almighty and Eternal God, do Thou direct our actions according to Thy good pleasure, that we may deserve to abound in good works, in the Name of Thy Beloved Son Who with Thy reigneth forever and ever.

May the Spirit, O Lord, Who proceedeth from Thee enlighten our understanding, and may He, even as Thy Son has promised, lead us unto all truth.

O Holy Spirit, love of the Father and the Son, take up Your abode in the center of our hearts, and like burning flame, heat on high our thoughts, our affections and our actions even to the bosom of the Father, so that our whole life may constitute one glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the flag.

LEGAL OPINION RE LOAN FOR EMERGENCY SCHOOL CONSTRUCTION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Law Department, March 30, 1953.
To the Honorable the City Council.
Gentlemen:

We are in reply to the order passed by your Honorable Body on March 9, 1953, requesting my opinion as to the legality of a certain loan order presently pending before you and reading as follows:

"Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 452 of the Acts of 1948, as amended by chapter 376 of the Acts of 1951, the sum of four million dollars be, and hereby is, appropriated for the purpose of emergency school construction, and that to meet said appropriation the City Treasurer is hereby authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the City of Boston to said amount."

The order just quoted, like most loan orders, makes an appropriation, albeit the appropriation is to be raised by borrowing rather than by taxation. Bond counsel might well draw an inference from the last paragraph of the 1956, c. 24, as amended by St. 1949, c. 117, that, while the City Council has exclusive power under St. 1948, c. 452, s. 17E, as amended by St. 1951, c. 376, s. 1, to originate loan orders for school purposes, because of the appropriating factor involved it may not do so unless the origination of such loan order is recommended by the Mayor on the request of the School Committee. Suffice it to say, therefore, that since the above-quoted loan order was not so recommended, I am of the opinion that, even if it were duly adopted, no money would be loaned on it because of doubt as to its legality.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,
Corporation Counsel.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

RAZING OF WASHINGTON STREET ELEVATED STRUCTURE.

Coun. AHEARN and HURLEY offered the following:

Whereas, It has now been revealed that there is a new plan for razing the MTA Washington Street elevated structure which runs through the South End, Roxbury, and Jamaica Plain and

Whereas, This unsightly elevated structure is a blot on our city and has been largely responsible for retarding the development of much of the property near it and has greatly depressed real estate values in Boston; and

Whereas, The removal of this hazardous structure which has been characterized as "monstrosity" and the substitution of a subway would probably result in lower costs of operation, increased revenues and a great increase in valuations of adjoining property, thereby helping to eventually lower our tax rate; and

Whereas, The existence of this unsightly, hazardous structure has become a nuisance and a menace to the community and has impaired the physical and moral well-being of many citizens in the community; and

Whereas, Under said new plan of the razing this monstrosity and constructing a subway can be done at a substantial saving and within the limit set by law; be it

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston, in meeting assembled, calls upon the Mayor and General Court of Massachusetts and the MTA Advisory Board to take all the necessary steps to raze the MTA elevated structure in the South End, Roxbury, and Jamaica Plain, and to approve a satisfactory alternate route for a subway to take the place of the present elevated structure which is a hazardous, unsightly monstrosity responsible for endangering the physical and moral well-being of our citizens and depressing property values.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

SKELETON FORCE OF EMPLOYEES ON APRIL 2 AND 3.

Coun. WARD offered the following:

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Feb. 17, 1953.

A meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 9:56 P. M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick.

SALARY SURVEY PROCEEDURES

Mrs. Lyons: I would like to move that the Committee go along with Mr. Ruddy's suggestion in the Conference that we adopt the methods that he suggested in having certain teachers released and substitutes employed to take their places in order that they may have an opportunity to hear the various salary petitions.

Mr. Muchnick: Was that under Item No. 1 of the prepared statement that Mr. Ruddy read?

Mrs. Lyons: I believe it was.

Mr. Ruddy: That's right.

Mr. Muchnick: I just wanted to localize it.

Mr. Ruddy: I don't care particularly when but I would like to have it all adopted as the basis upon which we can go ahead with these hearings that involve more than just the replacements for teachers. It involves the procedures. It involves the circularization.

If you would adopt the whole program, the only cost item on it is the six replacements for three days. The rest, in so far as I can see, the entire committee is in accord with.

Mrs. Lyons: I move that we adopt—

Miss Fitzgerald: Just as a point of procedure, don't we function under the Roberts rules of order? As I understand the Roberts rules of order, motions are not supposed to be made from the Chair. I don't wish to hold up the progress of the meeting but I do want to have that point of information cleared up.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, we function under the Roberts rules, as I understand it, in all situations that are not covered under our own rules. Under our own rules the fact that one holds the office of Chairman is stated specifically not to take away any of the other prerogatives or privileges of those persons who are non-officetelling members of the Committee.

Miss Fitzgerald: In other words, do I understand you to say, Mr. Muchnick, that the chairmanship has no additional authority or voting authority or anything else?

Mr. Muchnick: No, and is no bar to the making of motions or voting; and if it were, I made an awful lot of out-of-order motions last year.

Miss Fitzgerald: That is what I had in mind, Mr. Muchnick.

Dr. Foley: I thought Mr. Muchnick was always making motions last year, and he was never interrupted by any member.

Mrs. Lyons: That was my feeling in the matter too.

Miss Fitzgerald: I am just stating this as a matter of procedure. I wanted it to be clarified.

Dr. Foley: The procedure was involved last year.

Miss Fitzgerald: Since it had been my understanding that we did operate under Roberts rules of order,—

Dr. Foley: I was wondering if Miss Fitzgerald was proceeding on that assumption—that after all it was interfering with the procedure of the Chair? If so, I will be glad to have you relinquish the Chair, Madam Chairman, and I will be glad to fill the Chair.

Mrs. Lyons: All right. Would you do that, Dr. Foley?

Dr. Foley assumed the Chair.
Dr. Foley: Mrs. Lyons is recognized by the Chair.

Mrs. Lyons: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I move that we accept Mr. Ruddy's suggestion in allowing teachers to participate next week in this entire plan and platform, to hear the various salary schedules as set up by his group.

Dr. Foley: You have heard the motion with regard to Mrs. Lyons and the request of this Committee to grant leave for how many—six?

Mrs. Lyons: To adopt this entire plan.

Mr. Ruddy: It is the entire plan.

Mrs. Lyons: The entire plan of procedure.

Dr. Foley: As suggested by Mr. Ruddy.

On roll call, the plan of procedure in connection with the Salary Survey Committee, as submitted by Mr. Ruddy of the Planning Board of that Committee, was adopted by the following vote:

YEAS—Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—3.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

STATEMENT OF CHAIRMAN RELATING TO SICK LEAVE PLAN

Mrs. Lyons: May I just add this so that it will be included in the public meeting—that I would like to have the teachers feel assured that any plan adopted for sick leave will be equally as good as the one they now enjoy, and will be, of course, retroactive to November 1st; and we hope that our finances will enable us to improve upon the plan, but we do want them to have that assurance.

EXCHANGE TEACHERS

Dr. Foley: Mr. Bond, how many exchange teachers do we have in our system—that is, as a rough estimate?

Mr. Bond: Only two.

Dr. Foley: We subscribe to other cities, do we?

Mr. Bond: We have about twenty of our own teachers interested in exchange within the United States, and we are writing to different cities, for the most part, in Texas, California, Arizona, New Mexico and Florida, to see if they will co-operate with us in an exchange program.

Dr. Foley: Do we have other school systems within the confines of our Commonwealth that have more exchange training teachers than we have here in Boston?

Mr. Bond: No. The number, I think, throughout the United States was 100, Great Britain, because of financial difficulties, was not able to exchange many teachers.

Dr. Foley: But we do nationally?

Mr. Bond: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, within the United States there are more than 100 exchange teachers between cities.

Mr. Bond: Well, I don't know of any school system, with the exception of Seattle, Washington, that has an exchange program now, but we are writing to these cities, where these teachers in permanent service have shown interest to see if they will co-operate in exchange.

Dr. Foley: Do we have any other school systems here in the Commonwealth that have that set-up?

Mrs. Lyons: Springfield has one.

Dr. Foley: Newton.
Miss Fitzgerald: Winchester.
Mr. Bond: These teachers for the most part want to go to the Southwest and Florida.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

Mrs. Lyons: I wonder if the principals would be willing to stagger those hours. It is difficult for the members of the School Committee to get from one school to another when graduations are scheduled for the same hour.

Secretary: They are spread out over several days.

Mrs. Lyons: They are, but even at that there are some that have graduating exercises the same day. If they could delay them a half hour, it would be more convenient. It is almost impossible to get there. Even if it were fifteen minutes later, it would be more convenient. That is just a thought.

The following was offered.

ORDERED, That the graduating exercises of the Central Evening High School shall be held on Thursday evening, May 28, 1953.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

The following was offered:

ORDERED, That the authorization given by the School Committee on Mar. 22, 1949, to the Business Manager to grant the difference between the salary of teachers and other employees and the amount received by them under the Workmen's Compensation Act be, and the same hereby is, rescinded, to take effect Nov. 1, 1952.

On roll call the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, and Mrs. Lyons—3.

NAYS—0.

PRESENT—Mr. Muchnick—1.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

The following was offered:

ORDERED, That the order passed by this Committee on Oct. 6, 1952, discontinuing, effective Nov. 1, 1952, in then pending Workmen's Compensation cases and in any that may arise thereafter, all payments in excess of the regular statutory payments for Workmen's Compensation be, and the same hereby is, rescinded, to take effect Nov. 1, 1952.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I voted present on the other order and I intend to vote present on this one, because I can see no point whatsoever in having an order to rescind the prior order when all the prior order says is that we should make such payments as are legal. I cannot understand the need of this order when we are bound by the statute whether we want to be or not.

Business Manager: Madam Chairman, the Law Department has advised us that these orders should be wiped off the books, and this order will accomplish it.

Mrs. Lyons: How can they order us to wipe off the books when we feel that we were only following the statute by putting the order in in the first place?

Business Manager: They said that the original order did not follow the statute, that I am bound by the order, and I cannot pay anything over and above Workmen's Compensation to these people.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it is elementary in the field of law and in any other field that we cannot pass an order or adopt a rule or regulation that limits the rights given to employees under a statute.

If we had no order, the employees of the school system would be entitled to their statutory rights, and the statute is very specific, incidentally, in so far as Workmen's Compensation is concerned. You get the Workmen's Compensation plus that much sick leave that you are entitled to, but not to exceed 100 per cent of your daily, weekly, or other salary.

The statute is very specific on it, and all the original order says, the one back in October, is that we should pay such compensation as the law allows, and I cannot see any sense to this at all. That is the only reason I am voting Present.

Mrs. Lyons: If the law says one-half their salary, why don't they do it?

Mr. Muchnick: Provided the total does not equal more than the regular salary.

Mrs. Lyons: Why isn't the order made out that way instead of rescinding the original order?

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, our legal representative has asked us to adopt an order, and I would say that since he is our legal representative, we must follow in his footsteps until we prove ourselves otherwise.

Mr. Muchnick: May I ask then that this be held, and the previous order as well, and the one that is coming afterwards, until such time as we can talk with Mr. Kerr?

Dr. Foley: That is perfectly all right with me.

Mrs. Lyons: No objections to its being held?

Secretary: What happens to the vote I have taken?

Business Manager: We have many needy cases, and that is why I hate to see this put off any longer. I think you ought to accept these orders.

Mrs. Lyons: It is working a terrific hardship on these people.

Business Manager: It is.

Dr. Foley: I don't see any harm in accepting them.

Business Manager: I think they ought to be accepted.

Mrs. Lyons: If we should accept them now, what is the next procedure?

Business Manager: The next procedure is for me, on every compensation case, to get the approval of the person out on compensation, that they wish their sick leave to be used to supplement their Workmen's Compensation payment, and I shall contact them. I have submitted to the Law Department—but I have not heard from them on it—a proposed form that they should sign.

The minute that their signatures are obtained, we will put them on the payroll immediately, provided they have sick leave. We will put them back on the payroll from last November 1st to date.

Mrs. Lyons: That is the legal procedure now?

Business Manager: Yes.

Miss Fitzgerald: Isn't it true that we have taken a vote in a legally constituted public meeting to comply with the Law Department's suggestion that we pay what is legal to the people who are rightfully deserving of it? I don't see that there is any point in this discussion.

Mrs. Lyons: Were there three votes on that?

Miss Fitzgerald: There were three votes to my recollection.

On roll call the second order failed of passage by the following vote:

Miss Fitzgerald: Present.

Dr. Foley: Yes, to comply with the Law Department.

Mr. Muchnick: Present.

Mrs. Lyons: Present.

Secretary: The first order already has been passed.

Mrs. Lyons: Read that first one again, will you? I think we should understand what we were doing.

Miss Fitzgerald: I have a very clear understanding of what I voted for.

Mrs. Lyons: I am glad you did.

The first order was again read by the Secretary.

Secretary: I have a vote on that. I don't know whether you wish to reconsider it.

Dr. Foley: Mr. Kerr, has asked a Yes vote on that.

Business Manager: Yes, Mr. Kerr suggested passage of the three orders.

Mrs. Lyons: I hate to see people who really need this money not get it.

Business Manager: That is what bothers me.

Dr. Foley: It bothers me, too.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, under this first vote we rescind that order which stopped the payment that was the practice of the amount between Workmen's Compensation and the total salary?

Mrs. Lyons: Which meant they were just getting Workmen's Compensation, $30.

Mr. Muchnick: No, we stopped paying that amount, whether it was sick leave or anything else, that would supplement Workmen's Compensation pay up to the total salary.

This first vote rescinds that order and makes it possible and I should imagine makes it actual that we go back to paying full pay. Now that we have no right to do.

Mrs. Lyons: I thought Mr. Kerr was the one who brought that point up, that we had no right. Now, why is he asking us to rescind it?

Mr. Muchnick: That is what this does.

Secretary: As I understand it, they rescind the authority that the School Committee gave the Business Manager to pay full pay.

Dr. Foley: That is right.

Secretary: That is $30 Workmen's Compensation plus $70 if a teacher got $100 a week. That is rescinded. That is what that is.

Business Manager: Now the next one rescinds the action of last October.

The Secretary again read the second order.

Mrs. Lyons: Then, Mr. Smith, you start out and go back to November 1st, and pay them their Workmen's Compensation plus what the law says is perfectly all right to pay them?

Business Manager: Their sick leave if they elect to take it.

Mr. Muchnick: This here just says we arc rescinding that.

Business Manager: The Law Department does not interpret it that way. You say Workmen's Compensation in that order. You mean Workmen's Compensation, and you make no reference to the sick leave that, under the statute, if they so elect, they are entitled to take. You say you rescind these things and then I am free to operate under the law.

Mrs. Lyons: Going back to November 1st?

Business Manager: That's right. Mrs. Lyons: And you operate under the law giving them Workmen's Compensation plus their sick leave?

Business Manager: Yes.

Mrs. Lyons: I can't see why it isn't perfectly legal.

Mr. Muchnick: That is just the point, Madam Chairman. Mr. Smith says if we do certain things, he is free to operate under the law. Regardless of what we do, at no time is Mr. Smith or anybody else connected with this School Committee or School Department free to operate in any other way than under the law.

Mrs. Lyons: But he hasn't, since the people haven't had this benefit.

Mr. Muchnick: If he hasn't, that is something I cannot understand.

Business Manager: The Law Department says that I am not allowed to pay sick leave, because of your orders on the books and that you have to rescind those orders before I am allowed to pay sick leave.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, we must release the Business Manager.

Secretary: I will take another vote on the one that you all said Present on.

Dr. Foley: You don't have to. The Secretary again read the order.

Secretary: Failed of passage. Business Manager: There is nothing I can do now.

Secretary: There is still another one.

Business Manager: In my opinion, that is the vital order, and I will not pay Workmen's Compensation and sick leave.

Dr. Foley: Is that what Mr. Kerr wanted passed?

Business Manager: Yes. In my opinion, that is the most important of the three orders.

Dr. Foley: He wanted it passed, didn't he?

Business Manager: He says I cannot pay sick leave until it is passed.

Dr. Foley: The Law Department says you can't pay. What else can we subscribe to other than the Law Department? We can't subscribe to you because you are not the Law Department.

Business Manager: You have a lawyer. I think you ought to follow his advice.

Dr. Foley: You haven't, have you?

Business Manager: No. This order failed of passage.

Dr. Foley: I told you at the beginning I was voting along with Mr. Kerr on whatever order he had.

Secretary: But you are only one person. There are only four people present. The order failed of passage.

The Secretary read the following order:

ORDERED. That, effective Nov. 1, 1952, the first sentence of paragraph 1 of section 337 of the Rules and Regulations adopted by this Committee on Mar. 4, 1935, be, and the same hereby is, amended by striking out clause (1) and inserting in place thereof the following:

"(1) Physical incapacity for less than 7 calendar days caused by accidents which occur during the performance of duty on premises under the control of the School Committee . . . 5 days."

Business Manager: The reason for that was this: It was to take care of the accident cases that were approved by Workmen's Compensation but the person concerned was not out long enough to qualify for any Workmen's Compensation payment.

That would give a person who had a legitimate accident, who was approved by Workmen's Compensation and was out a day or two to get full pay for that period.

Dr. Foley: And Mr. Kerr has done what on your order?

Business Manager: That is his order.

Dr. Foley: He has substantiated your thought on it?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, that is not the question at all of law or interpretation of law. That is a question of policy, and Mr. Kerr's opinion should have no weight any more than any other citizen of the city in determining the policy that the School Committee wishes to adopt.

The normal thing in Workmen's Compensation is that if you are incapacitated for one week or less, you do not receive compensation for it. That is true in private industry, and it is true, if my information is correct, in almost every place of public employment.

The Workmen's Compensation law is to give insurance to people—to give them funds regardless of fault or liability or anything of that nature, and it is generally accepted throughout the country that if you have an unfortunate occurrence that lasts one week or less, and particularly would that be true, incidentally, if we adopt the sick leave of full pay or half pay. Nobody would be hurt particularly. It would come out of the sick leave allowance.

There is no need of our adopting a policy that runs contrary to the generally accepted employer-employee relationship or Workmen's Compensation policy of most of the entire country.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I am quite sure Mr. Kerr knows and realizes that he is not a member of the policy-making body because after all the only policy-making body is the school committee but he certainly does enlighten the members of the school committee as to the legal aspect of what he thinks and we can always later on or at our will change any of the enlightenment that we might get from Mr. Kerr.

At this particular time we are the policy-making body and it is within our rights and really our duty to go along with the legal aspects of that department which we call on so frequently to enlighten us on legal opinions and legal decisions.

I can't see how I, as a layman, can go along otherwise than with the legal aspect of our problem.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would suggest that this order be held because it is a question of policy, and should not be acted on now because if it is acted on affirmatively it gives, as I see it, five days to which people are not entitled if they want to be treated the same as all other people are treated under similar circumstances.

By the same token, if we act adversely on this and it is defeated, then the original paragraph remains in force and the original period of three months remains in force. This cuts the three months down to five days so far it is printed in the Rules and Regulations.

Mrs. Lyons: Why wouldn't it be a good suggestion, inasmuch as there is no one here who seems to be too sure that they are doing the right thing each time,—Miss Fitzgerald is very sure she is, but the rest of us aren't.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I resent that reading of thought into my mind if I may resent it.

Mrs. Lyons: You told me that you were very sure what you were doing, so I am just excluding you from the three of us.

Miss Fitzgerald: I am very happy to be so excluded.

Mrs. Lyons: I would suggest that we ask Mr. Kerr to come in at our next meeting and explain this. Then we will definitely know why he has done this and what his reason is for it.

Dr. Foley: You know, Madam Chairman, it is possible that Mr. Muchnick is wrong.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, but don't spread it on the record, Doctor. That would be a terrible thing.

Dr. Foley: He has a right to be wrong.

Mrs. Lyons: I think Mr. Kerr should be here when a decision of this type is being made, where it involves people's money and they need it. I feel very badly that they are being held up, and I would like very much to have him come in and explain his suggestions to us. I think it would do a great deal to clarify and satisfy us and would satisfy the people who are involved.

Secretary: May I please ask you this: You passed the first order. The second order failed of passage. Now the third order is an amendment to the regulations and it should automatically lie over unless you are going to suspend the rules. Shall I have it lie over?

Mrs. Lyons: I would have it lie over and in the meantime I would like to have Mr. Kerr come in.

Secretary: What happens on the first one?

Mr. Muchnick: It is passed. Mrs. Lyons: Couldn't we ask for reconsideration on it?

Secretary: Then Mr. Kerr will come in.

COLLECTION TO BUILD SCHOOL IN HOLLAND

Mrs. Lyons: I would like to say that Mr. Leo Hurley of the Boston Traveler and the Committee on Relief for Holland was at the Conference this evening and now wishes to extend his thanks to the School Committee for being so receptive to their plans and ideas for assistance to stricken Holland.

Dr. Foley: And that is referred, Madam Chairman, to the Emergency Finance Board.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it seems to me that it ought to be the Chairman of the School Committee.

Secretary: I will confer with you, Mrs. Lyons.

Miss Fitzgerald: Could it be two members of the School Committee, since Mr. Carr has proposed the motion? I suggest that he go along with you as Chairman of the School Committee, since he made the motion.

Dr. Foley: I think that is entirely within your power to appoint whomever you see fit.

Business Manager: Madam Chairman, to get back to Rawding, I said in my opinion there is no need of voting in public meeting; but still, if Rawding made a technical fight on this thing on technicalities, I would not want to have the School Committee feel that I advised them incorrectly.

Mrs. Lyons: It would probably be wise to vote on it.

CONVOCATION OF HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

The following extract from the Conference Notes was ordered printed in full in the record of the open meeting:

Mr. Muchnick offered the following:

ORDERED, That, in addition to the regular graduating exercises conducted each year in the respective high and Latin schools, this Committee plan the first year of what it is hoped will become an annual convocation of all graduating classes in our high and Latin schools, to be conducted with appropriate exercises on one morning or afternoon, depending on the feasibility of either, this convocation to be held preferably at the White Stadium, but, in the case of rain, at the Boston Garden, Mechanics Building, or any other place that will accommodate the number of people concerned; and be it further ORDERED, That, as the speaker at the first of these convocations this coming spring, this Committee invite the President of the United States to come to the City of Boston to speak, not only to our own high and Latin school graduates, but through them to the youth of the entire country.

Mr. Muchnick: There is no better place, it seems to me, for the President of the United States to deliver a message to the young people of this country than the City of Boston, which not only has its place as one of the major cities in our country in the first interests of freedom and liberty, but also is the city where the real cornerstone of the United States or the American way of life, the public education system, was begun back in 1635.

It seems to me, and I am sure will seem to everybody else, that a message of hope, a message of inspiration from a great general, and a great educator and a man who shows every sign, even in the short period of time that he has been President that he will go down in history as one of our country's greatest Presidents—can, and I am sure will, be a source of rededication of all Americans, young and old.

I would suggest, along with that, that this Committee urge upon our Senators and our Representatives from Boston that if this order is passed they wait upon President Eisenhower and ask him if he will be the speaker at the first of these annual convocations, and that he select some date early in June consistent with his schedule so that the necessary plans can be made as soon as possible.

Miss Fitzgerald: Could I ask Mr. Muchnick, on the question of hiring other facilities if we cannot use the White Stadium because of the weather, would that run into a fabulous sum of money?

Mr. Muchnick: It seems to me that it would not run into a fabulous sum of money, but it also seems to me that, particularly in times such as these, when not only there is such great unrest in the international scene and where the world in general is waiting from day to day to see what Mr. Eisenhower's views are on international subjects, but even related very closely to our problem at home here on the question of delinquency among young people, that no price would be too great if, under the right auspices, the President of the United States were to deliver a message and could do nothing else but help this general situation of delinquency.

People, you know just as well as I do, look upon Mr. Eisenhower, not only as a President, but as a symbol of almost everything that is good, a symbol of everything that is American, and it seems to me that for our high and Latin school graduates—and there would be thousands of them—and their parents, to have a chance to see the President of the United States and get it direct from his lips and straight from the shoulder what they can expect of the United States; and, fully as important, what the United States can and does expect of them, would be worth even fabulous sums, but I haven't the slightest idea in dollars and cents what the standby rent of the Boston Garden or Mechanics Building is.

Dr. Foley: I think the Boston Garden is $400.

Mr. Daley: I think it is a little higher with the personnel attached to it.

Dr. Foley: I think it is a splendid idea. I think we should at least ask the Chair to formulate plans and select a committee suitable for the presentation of the matter in question and solicit the members of Congress perhaps throughout the state of Massachusetts, I think it would be fine for them to participate on this occasion.

Miss Fitzgerald: I just want to ask if Mr. Bond has any suggestion about setting up this program. It would not preclude the individual exercises, as I understand it.

Mr. Muchnick: I made that very specific in the beginning. Miss Fitzgerald—in addition to the regularly scheduled individual high and Latin school graduating exercises.

Miss Fitzgerald: So rather than a graduating exercise, it will be a convocation or dedication ceremony?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, similar to a commencement ceremony at college.

Dr. Foley: I think that could be worked out.

Mr. Bond: I think, Madam Chairman, it is an excellent idea. You would include, of course, graduates of eight-grade schools and of junior high schools.

Mr. Muchnick: If that were proper, and I make no claim to attempting to decide by myself whether it is proper or improper to include eighth and ninth grade schools, if space, propriety, and age level of pupils in those grades were the right specifications, then I should think that they would be included as well.

Mrs. Lyons: May I say something? Along those lines, where this will be the final graduating exercise and the only graduation for the seniors in high and Latin schools, and where the junior high schools will have, if they remain in school, another opportunity to attend this type of a convocation, wouldn't it be better to limit it to our high and Latin schools?

Mr. Muchnick: It might easily be. It might be, if Mr. Eisenhower can and will come, that he might suggest that the audience be limited or enlarged.

Dr. Foley: I think, Madam Chairman, it probably would be a City holiday.

Mrs. Lyons: I am afraid it would.

Dr. Foley: Whether we like it or not.

Miss Fitzgerald: How many people would you estimate, Mr. Bond, that would include when you take into consideration the parents and the others who are usually invited to graduating exercises?

Mr. Bond: Mr. Daley, do you recall how many high school graduates there were last year?

Mr. Daley: We have twenty-two high and Latin schools, and the average is between 200 and 400 graduates in each school. Probably around 6,000. You must remember that our seniors will be out working, I think, after May 9th.

Mr. Muchnick: Oh, I imagine, Madam Chairman, that they would be able to get the day off with pay.

Miss Fitzgerald: Mr. Daley, do you see any reason why this would be administratively difficult?

Mr. Daley: Will it take place prior to or after graduating exercises?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it seems to me the date should be left and would have to be left to the convenience of the President if he consents to come.

Mrs. Lyons: That was my feeling in the matter—that we probably would have to give him some dates that we felt would fit in with our program, and then let him choose the one that will best fit in with his.

Mr. Daley: Have we agreed that the graduating exercises will take place during the first week in June?

Mrs. Lyons: That was on the agenda for tonight.

Mr. Bond: It has not been taken up yet.

Mrs. Lyons: Why don't we take that right up now?

Miss Fitzgerald: Is that your recommendation?

Mr. Daley: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I don't know whether it would hurt any if we let that item wait over until the next meeting two weeks from now. By that time we may have had some indication if you communicate with the White House and with the various Senators and Representatives concerned as to whether the President will or won't be able to come, or will or won't come even if he is able to.

That might, by the very nature of it, change the dates of graduation a few days up or a few days back. I imagine that nobody would object to having his or her graduation date pushed up or pushed back one or two afternoons or nights for the chance of hearing and seeing Mr. Eisenhower in person.

Mrs. Lyons: I cannot see where it would make much difference if we did vote now to advance the date for graduating exercises to the first week in June. We could still rearrange those schedules if it was necessary.

Mr. Muchnick: All right.

Mrs. Lyons: So that it would not conflict with this ceremony.

Dr. Foley: I move that we adopt that order.

Secretary: It will go into the open meeting.
(End of Conference notes.)

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—4.

BROTHERHOOD WEEK

The following extract from the Conference Notes was ordered printed in full in the record of the open meeting:

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, in the absence of the Superintendent I would like to have the Acting Superintendent send a bulletin to the schools rededicating our school system to Brotherhood Week, which is nationally known throughout our great country, to see if we cannot re-stimulate and re-enact, you might say, the goodness of Brotherhood.

I think that that theme, now going out in our schools, probably would fall on fertile ground, and the Superintendent can rephrase it as he sees fit.

The main thing is to get a thought into our school system that we are dedicating this week as Brotherhood Week. I think it is a thought in the right direction, coming from the Boston School Committee, as trustees of the system, and a thought along that line probably would be of benefit to the system at large.

I ask that this Committee see to it that such a bulletin is sent out as a thought to the system that we as trustees of the School Committee have them in mind and we wish to feel that we help our brothers.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I have just been informed that the excellent thought suggested by Dr. Foley has been the subject of a circular sent through the system within the past few days.

Dr. Foley: Grand.

Mr. Muchnick: But I would like, if you have no objection, Doctor, to amend his suggestion, and that is that a circular such as he suggests be sent with the addendum on it, or rephrasing, probably would be better, that while there is one week that is nationally proclaimed or advertised as Brotherhood Week, it's a pretty good idea to maintain those principles of Brotherhood Week and the ideologies of the week during the other fifty-one weeks in the year as well.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that is a splendid thought, Mr. Muchnick, and I believe we would all go along with it.

Dr. Foley: Well, Madam Chairman, inasmuch as a circular has been sent out, I think that covers the ground very well. I appreciate the thought of my associate here on the left; but owing to the expensive setup of such a thing, I think that one is sufficient. As long as we have done it, I think it is very nice.

Mrs. Lyons: I think it was a very nice thought just the same, Dr. Foley.

Dr. Foley: Being a fraternity man, I have my brother in mind all the time.

(End of Conference notes.)

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I talked at some length during the conference today with regard to National Brotherhood Week, but it has come to my attention that Superintendent's circular #124 was sent out Jan. 26, 1953, to our public schools.

I wish to have our school system rededicate itself to Brotherhood Week and to reaffirm its pledge to its brothers, to the end that our school system will profit by it and enjoy the company of its brothers, no matter where they happen to be.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, Dr. Foley has suggested a reaffirmation or rededication of the principles of brotherhood and suggested that a circular be sent out.

If you have no objection, Doctor, I would like to move that your suggestion be carried in the form of a motion; and again, if you have no objection, I would like to move that your remarks made during the conference and any other remarks on that same subject be included in the minutes of the public meeting.

Dr. Foley: I have no objection, Madam Chairman, inasmuch as if we keep talking Brotherhood Week, we probably will get a great deal out of it.

On roll call, Mr. Muchnick's motion passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—3.

General Order No. 14.

BOARD OF MERIT.

The Board of Merit of the Boston Fire Department, consisting of the chief of department and the deputy chiefs, has considered all meritorious acts referred to it for the year 1952. After careful consideration and study the Board submitted the following recommendation which is hereby approved by the Fire Commissioner.

I. Case of Lieut. Joseph F. White of Ladder Company 24.

The apparatus, upon receipt of a still alarm, at 7.19 P.M., September 4, 1952, responded to the Ames Building, 1 Court street, Boston. Upon arrival at this location, department members observed a young man sitting on the edge of the roof, 188 feet above the sidewalk, threatening to jump into the street.

Lieut. Joseph F. White of Ladder Company 24 proceeded to the roof and cautiously crawled toward the man who was threatening to jump. The man warned Lieutenant White that he would jump if he came any closer. Other people on the roof kept talking to the man while Lieutenant White slowly moved toward the self-intended victim.

During the conversation, the lieutenant learned that he and the man had served in the same naval unit during World War II. He continued talking with him on this subject, passing him lighted cigarettes, and all the time, edging closer and closer.

At the opportune moment, Lieutenant White made a quick lunge, grasped the man by the arm, and with, what appeared to be superhuman effort, hurled him back onto the roof. The man put up a terrific struggle to get free but was subdued by others on the roof. When Lieutenant White secured his hold on the man, other people on the roof held the lieutenant's legs in order to prevent both him and the self-intended victim from plunging 188 feet into the street.

This action on the part of Lieutenant White was above and beyond the call of duty and was carried out at great personal risk and with a total disregard for his own safety. He was highly commended in General Orders, No. 47, series of 1952, for this courageous act.

The Board of Merit recommends that Lieut. Joseph F. White be awarded the "John F. Fitzgerald" medal.

By order of Fire Commissioner
MICHAEL T. KELLEHER.

JOHN V. STAPLETON,
Chief of Department.

$16,945,000 IN UNUSED BUT AUTHORIZED LOANS SOUGHT TO BE RETURNED TO GENERAL FUNDS BY MAYOR HYNES—HAD BEEN APPROPRIATED FOR PROJECTS INCLUDING PERMANENT VETERANS' HOUSING—RETENTION OF THEM IN CITY'S FINANCIAL RECORDS MIGHT EVENTUALLY PROVE HARMFUL TO CREDIT, MAYOR AVERS.

The following communication has gone forward from the office of the Mayor:
To the City Council.

GENTLEMEN:

The latest monthly exhibit issued by the City Auditor discloses that loans totaling $16,945,000 have been "authorized but not issued." An analysis of the various projects included in this total reveals that in the case of six projects, with unused authorizations totaling $13,710,000, considerable doubt exists as to whether the existing authorizations ever will be utilized. The following schedule indicates the basis of this statement:

PROJECT.—NEW CITY HALL PLANS, ETC., authorized December 12, 1935, unissued amount, $10,000.

MAYOR HYNES REFUSES TO CHANGE VACATION PLAN IN PRACTICE FOR CITY EMPLOYEES—VETOES COUNCIL PROPOSAL—PRESENT PLAN AS LIBERAL AS CAN BE OFFERED WITHOUT ENDANGERING CITY'S FINANCIAL STRUCTURE.

The following communication has gone forward from this office:

To the City Council.

GENTLEMEN:

I return herewith disapproved, and without my signature, the order adopted by your Honorable Body for acceptance of chapter 488 of the Acts of 1952.

This Act provides that all employees who have worked continuously for five years, but less than ten years, shall be given three weeks' vacation, and that all employees who have worked continuously for ten years or more shall be given four weeks' vacation.

At the present time, by virtue of statute and ordinance, employees who

MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES CALLS FOR SUPPLEMENTARY APPROPRIATIONS AMOUNTING TO $915,000 TO TAKE CARE OF NEEDS OF SEVERAL DEPARTMENTS, INCLUDING POLICE, FIRE, ASSESSING, PARK, AND PUBLIC CELEBRATIONS—REVALUATION SURVEY OF 115,000 PARCELS OF REAL ESTATE, SEEKING FAIR VALUES TO ALL PROPERTY OWNERS—SUMMER PLAYGROUND ACTIVITIES AND DUTIES OF PUBLIC CELEBRATIONS DEPARTMENT ALSO CALL FOR MORE FUNDS.

Following is a copy of a communication from his Honor the Mayor, John B. Hynes, to the City Council with reference to the supplementary appropriations:

To the City Council.

GENTLEMEN:

There are forwarded herewith supplementary appropriations totaling $915,000, and allocated as follows:

Police Department	$425,000
Fire Department	325,000
Assessing Department	80,000
Park Department	70,000
Public Celebrations	15,000
	$915,000

The sums of $425,000 and $325,000 for the Police and Fire Departments, respectively, are requested in order that the uniformed forces of these departments, not having been included in the compensation plan adopted last year for city employees, might be given a modest increase which is more or less in line with the general compensation plan. This increase is to be effective as of April 1, 1953.

The sum of $80,000 is requested by the Board of Assessors for the purpose of initiating a revaluation survey of the 115,000 parcels of real estate in the city. The result of this survey will assist the assessors in placing fair and equitable valuations upon the real estate of the city. It is a much needed survey which should have been undertaken some years ago.

Playground Work.

The sum of $70,000 for the Park Department is requested in order to continue the summer playground activities conducted by the School Committee for the past several years. This year the School Committee eliminated the necessary funds for this program from its 1953 budget without any consideration being given as to how this most necessary activity would be continued without interruption. Because I am convinced this program is absolutely essential, particularly in these times of unrest and delinquency among our youngsters, this sum is requested to provide leadership, supervision, and supplies to the 70 areas formerly operated by the School Committee, for a summer program of ten weeks' duration from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., Monday through Friday. These 70 areas consist of 57 Park Department areas and 13 in districts where playgrounds are not available. This program will be consolidated with the Park Department's regular summer program in 14 areas now under its control.

The sum of $15,000 for Public Celebrations is requested in order that the city may participate in the Second Annual Art Festival to be held under the auspices of the Boston Art Festival Committee. Last year, without adequate time or funds, the committee was able to present an exhibition

MAYOR HYNES SEEKS TO RETURN LOANS TO GENERAL FUNDS ACCOUNT.

Originally, $60,000 was authorized for this project, but the plans, as finally prepared, cost the city $50,000. These plans are now on file in the Public Buildings Department, so that the project may be deemed to have been completed and no further need exists for the outstanding authorization.

PROJECT.—PERMANENT VETERANS' HOUSING, authorized November 13, 1946, unissued amount, $1,500,000.

Against an original authorization of $10,000,000, bonds totaling $8,500,000 were actually issued. Under the terms of the legislation governing this authorization, construction is limited to one- and two-family houses, and any debt issued is limited to a term of 15 years. These two features make any further issues of debt under this authorization undesirable.

PROJECT.—INCINERATOR BUILDING, authorized November 5, 1946, unissued amount, $200,000.

This authorization was intended to cover the construction of an incinerator in the Brighton district. Because of the refusal of the Board of Appeal to change zoning restrictions in this district to permit such construction, no action has been taken under the original authorization. No further need for continuance of the authorization is apparent.

PROJECT.—LOW-INCOME HOUSING, SOUTH END, authorized December 1, 1946, unissued amount, $3,000,000.

This authorization was specifically for the Cathedral Project, which was subsequently constructed with other funds. No further use can be made of this authorization.

PROJECT.—PERMANENT VETERANS' HOUSING, authorized June 8, 1948, unissued amount, $2,000,000.

The original authorization was for $10,000,000, against which bond issues totaling $8,000,000 have actually been made. Since it appears that approximately $10,000,000 in state and federal funds are still available to the Boston Housing Authority for the construction of veterans' housing, it is believed that no further expenditure of city funds in this respect should be made.

PROJECT.—PERMANENT VETERANS' HOUSING, authorized May 10, 1950, unissued amount, $7,000,000.

This authorization, together with the two veterans' projects authorized in 1946 and 1948, totals $27,000,000, which sum is the maximum amount the city was authorized to incur for veterans' housing under the provisions of chapter 372 of the Acts of 1946, as amended. Subsequent to the adoption of this order, the Commonwealth, under the provisions of chapter 200 of the Acts of 1948, as amended, assumed the responsibility of guaranteeing veterans' housing bond issues as well as making certain annual contributions on behalf of such projects. Because of this development, the Boston Housing Authority has made no plans for construction under this $7,000,000 authorization. As previously pointed out, further expenditure of city funds for veterans' housing while a substantial amount of state and federal funds are available appears unwarranted.

In view of the doubt attached to the desirability of any further utilization of the authorizations set forth in the foregoing schedule, I deem it for the best interest of the city to recommend that they be rescinded. Retention of them in the financial records of the city may cause misinterpretations to arise which might eventually prove harmful to the credit of the city. Investors and financial establishments, who otherwise might be interested in purchasing bonds and notes of the city, would be justified in assuming that because of the existence of these authorizations the city is faced, at some future date, with a 20 per cent increase in its net debt. Such an assumption would naturally lessen investor interest in our securities.

I submit herewith six orders providing for the rescission of the six authorizations previously discussed and respectfully recommend adoption of the same by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

MAYOR HYNES REFUSES TO CHANGE VACATION PLAN FOR CITY EMPLOYEES.

have served over ten years, but less than 20 years, are given three weeks' vacation. Employees who have served over 20 years are given four weeks' vacation. It is also provided by General Laws that in the event a person's employment is terminated by reason of resignation, retirement, or death, and he has not received the two weeks' vacation under the law, the city is obligated to pay to the beneficiary an amount in cash equal to the vacation period.

It is my opinion that the present vacation allowance granted to employees is as liberal as the City of Boston can afford. It must be kept in mind, in considering any further liberality of vacation allowances, that employees are now entitled to sick leave with pay, and it must also be kept in mind that the Compensation and Classification Plan, recently put in effect, is most liberal as far as wages and salaries are concerned.

I know of no large corporation in the City of Boston, employing thousands of workers, which gives over three weeks' vacation to its employees. As a matter of fact, the larger corporations allow three weeks' vacation only after 15 years of service.

The cost of broadening vacation periods for employees will result in additional expenditure for vacation substitutes in those departments which are required to open for seven days each week, departments such as the City Hospital, the Sanatorium Division of the City Hospital, the Long Island Hospital, and the Fire and Police Departments. In these departments it would be necessary to either employ additional permanent employees, or employ temporary workers, or provide overtime for present employees. A conservative estimate of the additional cost which would have to be borne by the city is $50,000 to $75,000 annually, if the legislation in question were approved.

The City of Boston is in no position to take on greater operating costs, in the absence of additional revenues to meet such costs. The tax rate of our city is now the highest of any of the largest cities in our country, placing our city in an unenviable competitive position. Rather than an increase of operating costs the city is now bending its efforts towards a reduction of operating costs.

For these reasons, among others, I am withholding my approval of the order adopted by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 10.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, APRIL 13, 1953.

To All Department Heads.

GENTLEMEN:

The annual appeal of the Boston Evening Clinic for vitally-needed funds for maintenance and new modern equipment is being presented to the citizens of Boston during the month of April.

This nonprofit, nonsectarian institution makes available low-cost medical services to people of low and moderate income. By treating them in the evening the clinic keeps men and women on their jobs without loss of pay or production. The work of the Boston Evening Clinic and its affiliates, the Diagnostic Clinic and the Cancer Detection Center, has resulted in saving thousands of man-hours, so vitally necessary in these days of emergency, for Boston business firms.

I believe that all sections of the Boston community should and will support this most worthy appeal for assistance. I have designated Joseph P. Lally, of the Auditing Department, as chairman of the City Employees' Group. Will you please notify him of the representative of your department who will work with him?

Your cooperation and the cooperation of all city employees will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
City Hall, Boston, Mass.

Re: City Council Resolution Authorizing an Application for Final Advance Contract for $96,800 for the West End Project.

MY DEAR MR MAYOR:

I am submitting for your review copies of the report of the West End Project, containing results of the preliminary planning studies for that area. The report, together with supporting documentation, constitutes the application for final advance contract with Washington. A resolution by the City Council authorizing the application for a final advance contract is required by Washington. The prescribed form of the necessary resolution is attached hereto.

The final advance contract for the West End Project, if authorized by the City Council and approved by Washington, will provide funds for the following activities:

1. Detailing the project plans.
2. Final appraisals of each parcel of property to determine acquisition costs.
3. Land re-use appraisal to determine the disposal value of the cleared land.
4. Marketability analysis.

5. Preparation of final cost estimates for site improvements, site preparation, and supporting facilities.

6. Engineering surveys.

7. Preparation of financial plan, redevelopment plan, relocation plan, land acquisition plan, land management plan, land disposal plan.

8. Public hearing.

9. Negotiations with prospective developers.

10. Administrative, legal, and public relations.

11. Preparation of the loan and grant contract for the actual project undertaking.

Attached also is a progress report on the present status of the urban redevelopment program.

If any further information is necessary, I shall be glad to furnish the same.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES J. MAHAR, Chairman.
